Dodge, Grace H.

A Bundle of Letters to Busy Girls

Helpful and practical talks to girls. 16mo, Cloth, 139 pp., 50 cents; Presentation Edition, ornamental cover, uncut edges, 75 cents.

Some philanthropic person ought to see this book put into the hands of thousands of school and shop girls throughout the country. It would be a bit of philanthropy that would bear more moral fruit than often comes from charitable endeavor.—The Journal of Commerce, Boston.

The book has uncommon merit.—Public Opinion, New York.

No class of girls can be more usefully employed than in reading and discussing the points suggested in this excellent book.—Woman's Journal, Boston.

Domestic Blunders of Women, The ‡

A series of critical sketches by a "Mere Man," constituting a bold and unsparing attack upon woman's stronghold in the home. 12mo, Cloth, 210 pp. $1.00.

It is a book which ought to be introduced into the senior course of every girl's seminary and college, and every clergyman ought to present it to the bride with the marriage certificate. If read in the right spirit it would save countless worries and needless tears.—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

Dougall, Lily

The Summit House Mystery ‡

A story of tragic intensity, pulsating with human emotion, each chapter leading the reader with breathless expectancy to the next, the denoument baffling the shrewdest guesser. 12mo, Cloth, 345 pp. $1.50.

We can recall no tale in recent fiction of a mysterious crime and its consequences that can come within speaking distance of this story.—Press, New York.

Here is a detective story into which one might say a soul has been infused. . . . If it does not have an immense popular success it will be the public's loss.—The Globe, New York.

It is probably the best detective story that has appeared since "The Leavenworth Case," . . . holding the reader's attention with singular grip.—Brooklyn Eagle.

It is not often that an absorbing story of mystery possesses literary quality, but Miss L. Dougall has achieved it in her new novel.—The World, New York.

Drachman, Bernard, Ph.D. (see Hirsch).

Dubois, Dr.

Psychic Treatment of Nervous Disorders.

Dr. Dubois, Professor of Neuropathology, has made a unique reputation in Europe by a series of brochures in which he has urged upon physicians the necessity of training and educating the minds, as well as treating the physical ailments, of psychoneurotic patients. The present work summarizes his most important discoveries. It is the production of a specialist who combines the skill of the physician with the experimental learning of the psychologist. The book is translated from the French by Dr. Smith Ely Jelliffe. 8vo, Cloth. $3.00, net; by mail, $3.25.

Duffield, Rev. Samuel W.

Burial of the Dead

A pastor's complete handbook for funeral services and the consolation and comfort of the afflicted. By George Duffield, D.D., and Rev. Samuel W. Duffield. Cloth, 167 pp., 75 cents; Limp Leather, $1.00.

I cordially recommend it as a suggestive and useful manual.—John Hall, D.D.

Admirable alike in conception and execution. —Talbot W. Chambers, D.D.

English Hymns; Their Authors and History

It cites in alphabetical order the first lines of over 1,500 hymns. Under each is given a brief biographical sketch of the author, circumstances attending its composition, and incidents in connection with its use. American as well as English hymnology has been drawn upon. Large 8vo, Cloth, 683 pp. $3.00.

This is by far the most complete, accurate, and thorough work of its kind on either side of the Atlantic.—Theodore L. Cuyler, D.D.

The book is one which can be picked up and read at random with constant satisfaction.—The Sunday School Times, Philadelphia.

Latin Hymn Writers and Their Hymns

A companion volume to "English Hymns; Their Authors and History." Uniform in style and binding. Edited and completed by R. E. Thompson, D.D. Large 8vo, Cloth, 523 pp. $3.00.

It is a book which fills a gap hitherto yawning, and lays claim to literary graces that were absent from all previous volumes upon hymnology.—The Independent, New York.

An ample and noble work.—The Advance.

There is nothing pedantic or bookish about the text. No one should fail to read this book. —The New York Herald.

A valuable and interesting book.—The American, Philadelphia.

The New King Arthur

A dramatic poem. 12mo, Cloth, 164 pp. $1.50.

Ferguson, Charles

The Affirmative Intellect

A strong new philosophy for the two classes of men who wage the real battles of the world—the men of the affirmative or creative intellect who are dominated by the ideal, and the men of the negative and passive intellect who are prostrated by an external law. The message in this book comes with ringing tone to both these classes. It is exhilarating and sympathetic to the one; it challenges and inspires the other. 12mo, Cloth, 204 pp. 90 cents.

Mr. Ferguson does not tell us of the past, but thrills us with delight with his glowing accounts of the future. This book is a problem, and if carefully studied will lead one into the far beyond, which is so fascinating and full of millennial ideas.—St. Louis Star.

It is full of brilliant sentences, sharp and incisive as a tempered blade that pricks one into thinking.—Christian Intelligencer, New York.

This is a thoughtful book intended to arouse the thought and startle the action. Whether one agrees with the author in all or many of his positions he must be admired for his virility and purposefulness.—Herald and Presbyter, Cincinnati, O.

It is aggressive, positive, virile, characteristic of the pulsing present and prophetic of a better future.—Cumberland Presbyterian.

The Religion of Democracy

The book propounds an eloquent gospel of optimism and of faith in the power of truth. It brings us face to face with the ideals toward which democracy has been groping through the ages. It makes plain the close relations in which the individual man is bound with the universal—the universal divine, the universal human, and the universal material. It is a plea for the appropriation and the use of the real in man and the real in nature for the accomplishment of man's high destiny 12mo, Cloth, 175 pp. $1.00.

There is strength in this book—the strength of a crusader who strikes boldly and goes straight to the point.—The Sun, Baltimore.

Probes as deep as Carlyle, and smites with the strength of Ruskin. . . .—Boston Transcript.

It is great in that it clearly belongs, as do few books in a century, to the prophetic literature of the world.—Rev. Philip Moxom, D.D.

It is a great book of a great epoch.—Edwin Markham.

Fernald, James C.

Connectives of English Speech *

Giving the definitions with the correct usage of prepositions, conjunctions, relative pronouns and adverbs, so far as pertains to their office as connectives in the construction of English phrases and sentences. Special pains have been taken to indicate what prepositions should be used after those verbs with regard to which any question might arise. Decisions as to correct or incorrect use are sustained by numerous quotations. 12mo, Cloth. $1.50, net.

I know of no place where there is to be found in one book, and for so light a price, any such amount of information about connectives at once correct and clearly stated. It is indispensable to teachers as well as to writers.—A. E. Winship, Editor Journal of Education, Boston, Mass.

It will be a very valuable volume for educators, for students in schools and colleges. . . . The work exhibits great research.—The Presbyterian, Philadelphia.

It is a very comprehensive guide for people who are inclined to confuse "which" with "that" and who become uncertain as to the "tos," "froms," "withs," and "buts" of formal discourse. The wide range of authorities given imparts to the volume an additional value as a book of quotations. The new publication will be found a useful shelf-mate to Mr. Fernald's "English Synonyms, Antonyms, and Prepositions," in which "just the right word" is indicated for each of more than 7,500 instances. —New York World.

English Synonyms, Antonyms, and Prepositions *

Over 7,000 classified and discriminated synonyms with nearly 4,000 antonyms. The correct use of prepositions is indicated by illustrative examples. Practical helps and hints on the correct and accurate use of words. 12mo, Cloth, 574 pp. $1.50, net.

It is the best book of its class that I have seen, and will be equally valuable for private study and reference, and for class use in schools and academies.—W. J. Rolfe, M.A., D.L., the Shakespearian Critic.

I do not hesitate to say that there is no book yet offered . . . which is its equal in imparting a mastery of words. . . . This book will do more to secure rhetorical perspicuity—propriety and precision of expression—than any other textbook of higher English yet produced.—President Cochran, of the Polytechnic Institute, Brooklyn.

For clearness, precision, discrimination, and comprehensiveness I do not hesitate to commend "English Synonyms and Antonyms" as superior to anything of the kind within my knowledge.—Herrick Johnson, D.D., McCormick Theological Seminary.

This is a book of importance and invaluable to teacher, student, and speaker.—New York Times.

Scientific Side-Lights

A Cyclopedia of Science, containing nearly 4,000 selections from the foremost scientific authors of our time, illustrating many thousands of topics in religion, morals, politics, history, education, social progress, and industrial and domestic life. Astronomy, botany, chemistry, geology, physics—land and sea, earth and sun, planets, comets, and stars, meteorites, earthquakes, and volcanoes, the infinitesimal world of the microscope, the innumerable bacteria (mighty for good or evil), light and heat, electricity and magnetism, the unseen atoms and the viewless ether, all bringing some message to man. 8vo, Cloth, 925 pp., $5.00; Law Sheep, $6.50; Half Morocco, $8.00; Full Morocco, $10.00.

OTHER FEATURES OF THE WORK.

The cyclopedia brings before the reader the chief discoveries, the highest thoughts, the widest outreachings, expressed in the very words of the masters of science, and puts the riches of this wide field in the reader's hands for instant public use. Each selection is given in the very words of some eminent author, and its exact source is indicated by the names of author and publisher, the title of the work, and reference to the volume, chapter, and page where found. The contents are arranged alphabetically according to topics. Besides this there is a general index of all subjects treated, an index of proper names, and a special topical and cross-reference index, aggregating 30,000 topics.

A wonderful mince-meat of facts and opinions. It will meet a need and fill a gap.—Wm. James, LL.D., Ph.D., Professor of Philosophy, Harvard University.

Everything here is bright, quick, ready. There are no prefaces, no homilies, no long-drawn arguments, nor tedious enumerations.—The Lutheran Observer, Philadelphia.

Here the public speaker of any degree will find at his command a book of reference where the thought of the leaders of science is pigeonholed, so to say, for his immediate use.—The Minneapolis Times.

I have derived from the volume much information and pleasure.—Theodore N. Gill, Prof. of Zoology, Columbian University, Washington, D. C.

The wide research, the patient labor, and the sound judgment of the compiler have never been displayed to better advantage than in this helpful volume. . . .—The Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Standard works of eminent authors, nuggets of purest ray, have been selected and arranged in convenient form for one who scans the field of science in hasty search for illustration, or information regarding an isolated point.—The Boston Advertiser.

The Economics of Prohibition

A comprehensive presentation of the economic facts and arguments on prohibition. 12mo, Cloth, 515 pp., with Index of nearly 800 topical references. $1.50.

This is the best book on temperance that we have seen. It is unanswerable.—Morning Star, Boston.

The Imperial Republic

A thoroughly original, stirring, and powerful argument for expansion from the point of view of a scholar and a student in history. 12mo, Cloth, 192 pp., including several maps; cover design. 75 cents.

It is a spirited and unanswerable brief for expansion. Mr. Fernald's style is polished, forceful, full of magnetism. His outlook is broad, and bold, and frank. His patriotism is infectious, his knowledge accurate and voluminous, his logic sound and close-woven.—The Chicago Tribune.

The New Womanhood

A searching study of woman's true sphere, her highest ideals, and her important part in helping to mold present civilization. Introduction by Marion Harland. 12mo, Cloth, 369 pp. $1.25.

We are not acquainted with any book that even approaches this as an outline for girls and women of their true glory and work. If every girl in the land would read it and would take its wise and inspiring truths prayerfully to her heart, we would soon have a vastly better and happier nation. Every page is crowded with good things.—Christian Endeavor World, Boston.

The Spaniard in History

The dramatic story of the Spaniard from the fifteenth century to and including Admiral Dewey's victory at Manila. 12mo, Cloth, 144 pp., with maps. 75 cents.

To be commended for its clear and philosophical presentment of the causes which shaped the national type, and were responsible for both the greatness and decline of Spain.—Springfield Republican.

True Motherhood

Helpful talks on the ideals of true motherhood and woman's sphere as a home-maker. 12mo, Leatherette, 112 pp. 60 cents.

It runs all the way from the sweet flowers of the poetic description to the deep things of intrinsic help.—Mrs. Clinton Smith, President W. T. C. U., Washington, D. C.

Fillingham, R. C.

The Gospel in the Fields ‡

Talks about the delights and inspirations of nature. It is the object of these chats to interpret the lessons contained in the flowers and trees, the rivers and the sea, and the hills and dales. The author points out the happiness missed by those who are unreceptive to the charms of nature. 12mo, Cloth, 282 pp., cover design, gilt top, deckle edges. $1.25.

For short, pleasant readings to elevate the thoughts of the devout believer we commend this volume.—The Baptist.

In a sympathetic and practical way he points out the spiritual significance of various aspects of nature.—The Christian World.

Final Science; or, Spiritual Materialism

A satirical study of the most advanced scientific theories of evolution. 12mo, Cloth, 194 pp. 75 cents.

Without yielding his apparent confidence in his theory, he runs himself at every point into the ground. The satire is well and ably managed.—Zion's Herald, Boston, Mass.

Finch, Frances

Life of John B. Finch

By his wife, Frances Finch, and Frank J. Sibley. Memorial speeches and articles by Frances E. Willard, Mrs. Woodbridge, Prof. Hopkins, and others. Crown 8vo, Cloth, 585 pp., illustrated. $1.50.

No temperance library is complete without this work.—The Transcript, Susquehanna, Pa.

Firey, M. J., D.D.

Infant Salvation

Or, The Passivity of the Infant Soul the Key to the Solution of This Problem. Dr. Firey in this work gives the history and deductions of the various phases of the doctrines concerning Infant Salvation, or Damnation, from the beginning of Christian institutes on down to the present times. In the second part of his book he expounds, in careful detail, the inception and condition of the soul of an infant, and develops the idea that the passivity of the infant soul is sure ground for the belief that salvation is assured for it. 12mo, Cloth, 407 pp. $1.30.

The book will prove a good reference-book for those of the clergy who feel called upon at stated times to preach sound doctrinal sermons. The author has made a very thorough and conscientious research on the subject.—The Milwaukee Journal.

Fitch, Henry

The Perfect (Perpetual) Calendar

A practical calendar for every year of the Christian era. With a brief history of the calendar and a chronicle of important events from 2170 B.C. down to present times. (Patented Sept. 1, 1891.) 8vo, Manila Covers, 57 pp. 50 cents.

Ought to be hung at the corner of every desk in the country.—Journal of Commerce, New York.

It commends itself to the commercial world because of its accuracy.—Religious Telescope, Hartford.

Foley, John P. (see Jeffersonian Cyclopedia).

Foster, Elon, D.D.

Cyclopedia of Prose and Poetical Illustrations

Containing the best religious illustrations, either prose or poetic, which literature affords. The immense number of illustrations on various subjects are made readily accessible by a most complete and exhaustive system of indexes. There are six regular indexes: Analytical Index, with all subjects and divisions of subjects in alphabetical order; Author's Index, with date, nationality, and page where writings occur; General Index, embracing anecdotes, persons, and titles (combined with Analytical Index); Textual Index, connecting 1,500 illustrations with pertinent texts; Topical Index; Index to First Lines, and blank pages for indexing user's library. Four volumes. 8vo, Cloth, $5.00 per volume; Sheep, $6.00 per volume.

THE CYCLOPEDIA OF PROSE ILLUSTRATIONS.

Its contents embrace an immense variety of subjects and are in the form of Mythology, Analogies, Legends, Parables, Emblems, Metaphors, Allegories, Proverbs, Aphorisms, Fables, Quotations, Similes, Biblical Types and Figures. The latest and best prose illustrations adapted to Christian teaching. 12,348 selections. Two volumes.

THE CYCLOPEDIA OF POETICAL ILLUSTRATIONS.

Poetical illustrations, descriptive of scenes, incidents, persons, and places in the Bible. Including Odes, Legends, Lyrics, Hymns, Sonnets, Extracts, etc. The second volume of the poetical series contains the full indexes to the four volumes. Each volume has a subject-index of its own. 4,120 selections. Two volumes.

I don't know how to do better by a young preacher than to give him an appointment, and tell him to provide himself with a set of Foster's Cyclopedia, and then go and get sinners converted.—Bishop J. F. Hurst, D.D., LL.D.

I do not see how any preacher can consent to be without a full set of Foster's Cyclopedia.—C. C. McLain, D.D.

I have been making use of Foster's work for several years, and would rather part with any other volumes in my library.—Robert Patterson, D.D.

It supplies a want which no other work within my knowledge meets, and is carefully and thoroughly executed. It should be in the hands of every student.—Geo. W. Eaton, D.D., President Hamilton Theological Seminary (Baptist).

Foster's Cyclopedia should be in every library, public or private.—Bishop Thomas Bowman.

This work is more of a theological and homiletical school than a majority of our preachers ever find anywhere else.—Bishop C. H. Fowler, D.D., LL.D.

This is the very best book of the kind with which I am acquainted.—John J. Tigert, D.D.

A library in itself. I refer to it often. A perfect galaxy of the gems of English literature.—Chaplain C. C. McCabe, D.D.

Foster's Cyclopedia is preeminently the Preachers' and Students' Cyclopedia. No minister should be without it.—Bishop J. H. Vincent, D.D., LL.D.

In these volumes the Sunday-school teacher will find an apt quotation or selection of poetry, or illustrative incident adapted to every subject; and by means of its copious topical and textual indexes he can at once turn to the article needed. —Jesse L. Hurlbut, D.D., M. E. S.-S. Sec'y.

Frances, Mary

Daddy Dave

A charming story of southern home life. 12mo, Paper, 116 pp. 25 cents.

The description in certain scenes, both in point of pathos and humor, are above the average.—Sunday States, Louisiana.

Francis, Mary C. (see "One of Those Coincidences," under Hawthorne).

French, Prof. C. W.

Abraham Lincoln, the Emancipator

Vol. V. of "American Reformers" Series. This book deals with the man rather than with the statesman and the President, and seats us in cozy chat at the fireside, while the subject of its pages seems to tell his own story. 12mo, Cloth, 398 pp. $1.50.

This biography of Abraham Lincoln subordinates all environing conditions to their proper functions of presenting the personality of the subject in its true light, but also furnishes one of the most interesting ideals of the true American manhood.—The Southern Star, Atlanta.

Mr. French's enthusiasm is impressively genuine, his judgments of men and events notably wise and even-tempered. Nor is any fault to be found with him concerning matters of fact; and author and reader will do well to remember that plain truth about Abraham Lincoln has the charm of romance and almost the uplift of revelation.—Times, Boston.

The Next Step in Evolution

The Present Step—A Study. The author believes that "Christ came the first time into men's vision by coming on the plane of their senses; He comes the second time into men's vision by lifting them up to his plane of spiritual comprehension. It means a new step in the evolution of man." 16mo, Cloth, frontispiece, 106 pp. 50 cents.

This is the most satisfactory attempt at the reconciliation of science and religion that I have ever read.—Hon. Abram S. Hewitt.

The Widow's Mite **

And Other Psychic Phenomena. This book brings psychic investigations and the best thought concerning them down to date. It presents hundreds of experiences along psychic lines, and reasons most carefully concerning them. It gives fairly all sides. The author says: "I say neither 'No' nor 'Yes' to telepathy, the subjective-mind theory, spiritualism, etc., for I don't know. I simply give the facts I and others have seen, and ask 'What is it?'" The answer of nearly forty of the world's best-known psychologists are here given with these marvelous experiences of a quarter of a century's careful investigations of psychic phenomena. Large 8vo, Cloth, 538 pages. $2.00, net; by mail, $2.19.

This is a great book. . . . It makes men think.—Elbert Hubbard, Editor of The Philistine.

The greatest sociological book which has appeared in years.—The Item, New Orleans, La.

In this book is a quarter of a century of research in spiritualism, telepathy, and forces.—The World, New York.

A most remarkable, most important, most thoughtful, and most interesting work.—The Times, Boston.

The questions here presented should be obviously and honestly studied. . . . This book is a solid contribution to the inquiry.—Catholic News, New York.

In this book a distinguished clergyman and editor becomes sponsor for amazing facts . . . . examined and abundantly proved. . . . A book that is worth any man's attention.—The Times, Washington, D. C.

A book of marvels.—The Press, Philadelphia.

Gallagher, Mason

The True Historic Episcopate

As seen in the original constitution of the church in Alexandria. 12mo, Cloth, 378 pp. $1.00.

With admirable industry and ability the author illustrates the testimony of Jerome and gathers round it the learning of ages. This book should be in the library of every clergyman and intelligent layman.—Prof. John M. Leavitt, D.D.

Mr. Gallagher has made a book that must needs be a classic in ecclesiastical controversy, and to which we are ready to point as going far toward the settlement of the debated question. —Prof. J. Howard Smith, D.D.

Gerhart, Emanuel V., D.D., LL.D.

Institutes of the Christian Religion

A new work on systematic theology. With an introduction by Philip Schaff, D.D., LL.D. Complete in two 8vo volumes, Cloth, 1,744 pp., with index to each volume. Per volume, $3.00.

A very valuable addition to the science of Christian theology.—The Lutheran Observer, Phila.

Gilman, Arthur, M.A. (see "Library of Religious Poetry," under Schaff).

Gladden, Rev. Washington

Working People and Their Employers

Practical lectures delivered to workingmen on the problems of capital and labor. They are straightforward, broad-minded talks, including duty and discipline of work, rising in the world, strong drink, the future of labor, labor and capital, the household and the home, etc. 12mo, Cloth, 241 pp., $1.00; Paper, 25 cents.

They are simple in style, thoroughly helpful in purpose, and full of the best of advice. . . . His book is one that can not fail to do much good to those who read it, for it teaches the right things in the right spirit.—The Critic, New York.

Gloria Deo ‡

This new hymnal is especially designed to meet the requirements of all religious services. It is wholly undenominational, and embraces the best hymns in use with tunes that are strong in melody and well harmonized. The words are carefully arranged between the braces of music; subdividing words being placed so as to bring each syllable below and close to the note to be sung. Ample provision has been made for each department of the Church. The book contains 767 numbers, including Chants. The complete Psalter is added at the end of the hymnal. 8vo, Cloth, leather back. $1.25. Special rates in quantities.

It contains striking advantages over all other hymnals without sacrificing any of the substantial merits of the older works.—Globe, St. Paul.

I take pleasure in saying that in my judgment the work is finely adapted to congregational uses.—Charles Henry Parkhurst, D.D., LL.D., New York City.

I deem this the best collection of church hymns that I have ever seen. The music is of high order and singable.—Dr. Arthur T. Pierson.

Godet, F. F.

Commentaries ‡

A series of commentaries, translated and edited, with preface, notes, and introduction, by eminent American scholars. 8vo, Cloth. Per volume, $3.00.

ST. LUKE, 584 pp., edited by John Hall, D.D.

ST. JOHN, 1,130 pp. (two vols.), edited by Timothy Dwight, D.D.

ROMANS, 545 pp., edited by Talbot W. Chambers, D.D.

To an immense erudition and a living piety, Godet unites a profound feeling of reality. There is a vivifying breath, an ardent love for the Savior, which helps the disciple to comprehend the work, the acts, the words of his Divine Master.—H. A. W. Meyer, D.D.

Meyer is always helpful in matters of lexicography, philology, and syntax. Godet well supplements where he is deficient.—Joseph T. Duryea, D.D.

Godet's Commentaries combine the critical and the spiritual more effectually than any others.—Lyman Abbott, D.D.

I consider Godet a man of soundest learning and purest orthodoxy.—Howard Crosby, D.D., LL.D.

Goldsmith, J. C.

Himself Again

A story. 12mo, Cloth, 286 pp., $1.00; Paper, 25 cents.

Beneath the sprightly dash with which the story is outlined and filled there is conscious, strong power. It is finely written, and of decided merit.—The Globe, Boston.

Goldsmith, Oliver

A Selection from His Works ‡

Introduction by Edward Everett Hale. 12mo, Cloth, 287 pp., with Portrait. $1.00.

Oliver Goldsmith is read wherever men read English; and where he is read he is almost always loved.—Edward Everett Hale.

Letters from a Citizen of the World ‡

To His Friends in the East; or, Europe Through the Eyes of a Chinaman. 4to, Paper, 91 pp. 20 cents.

Gordon, Armistead Churchill

The Gift of the Morning Star †

A forceful story dealing with the hitherto neglected field, Dunker life and experience, written in an attractive and poetic style. 12mo, Cloth, frontispiece. $1.50; by mail, $1.62.

Gore, Mrs. Nelly

Your Loving Nell **

The volume comprises letters which were written home by Mrs. Nelly Gore, an American music student abroad, and depict her experiences in studying under some of the greatest foreign masters. These letters give an intimate insight into the life and methods of some of the world's most celebrated studios. 12mo, Cloth, illustrated. $1.00, net; by mail, $1.11.

As pictures of student life in Vienna and Paris they are excellent.—Daily Picayune, New Orleans.

Gorky, Maksim

Tales from Gorky ‡

Gorky is undoubtedly the foremost Russian novelist of the present day. This volume contains a selection of his most characteristic short stories—those by which he won his sudden and tremendous popularity. They are translated into strong and idiomatic English with biographical notes of the author by R. Nisbet Bain. The following stories are included: I.—In the Steppe. II.—Twenty-Six of Us and One Other. III.—One Autumn Night. IV.—A Rolling Stone. V.—The Green Kitten. VI.—Comrades. VII.—Her Lover. VIII.—Chelkash. IX.—Chums. 12mo, Cloth, 285 pp., photogravure portrait. $1.20.

Not from any other Russian writer can we get the awful truths of Russian peasant and labor existences as in Gorky's stories. They will be read by students of humanity as well as by fiction-lovers. These stories seem a great cry from the suffering to humanity.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

His forceful style leaves no doubt as to the desire of the author to impress every one with his sincerity.—St. Louis Republic.

He has immense descriptive power.—Philadelphia Times.

They are among the first written by the tramp genius, but they are even more effective than his later and larger productions.—Philadelphia Record.

The tales from Gorky included in this substantial and satisfactory volume have been selected with discrimination. They are individual and characteristic.—The Sun, New York.

Gospel of Mark, The

From the Teachers' Edition of the Revised New Testament, with harmony of the Gospels, list of lessons, maps, etc. 8vo, Cloth, 34 pp., 50 cents; Paper, 15 cents.

Grant, Rev. William D.

The Pastor's Ready Reference Record

A record for Sunday services, etc., to cover fifty years. Large 4to, Cloth. $1.50.

"The Pastor's Ready Reference Record" is altogether the most complete and compact thing of the kind we have ever seen.—The Independent, New York.

Grenell, Rev. Zelotes

The Sandals (see "Hour-Glass Stories")

Grimke, A. H.

Charles Sumner: The Scholar in Politics

Vol. VIII. of "American Reformers" Series. 12mo, Cloth, 415 pp. $1.50.

The author excels in biographical work. The book is well calculated to fire the spirit of patriotism in the youth of our land by holding up for their study an American who, recognizing the evil of his times, became through the exercise of his lofty principles, by his self-abnegation and inflexible purpose, largely instrumental in overthrowing it.—Religio-Philosophical Journal, Chicago.

It is a condensed yet comprehensive biography of this great American statesman—the kind of book for busy men.—Pittsburg Commercial Gazette.

The work has the merit of being more than a simple record of actions and events; it is a study of character as well, and will, in that point of view, be of especial interest to its readers.—The Standard, Chicago.

It is a thoroughly American book, and should be studied by every patriotic American.—Presbyterian, Philadelphia.

In this volume one gets a vivid impression of that grandest chapter which America has yet contributed to the universal history of liberty, equality, and fraternity. The author has rendered a valuable service in contributing this volume.—Morning Star, Boston.

It is a book and a history well calculated to inspire patriotism and make the lover of his country and race proud of the noble men from whom he has secured his national inheritance. There is no better study for American youth than just such biography and history.—The Chicago Inter Ocean.

William Lloyd Garrison: The Abolitionist

With many important side-lights on the antislavery movement. Vol. VII. of "American Reformers" Series. 12mo, Cloth, 406 pp., with portrait. $1.50.

The story is thrilling, and serves to remind us that the "higher education" needed to elevate a people and wean them from ignoble pursuits is to be found in the study of such a noble example of manhood.—Journal, Indianapolis, Ind.

The volume is written in a clear, straightforward style, and is admirably adapted for the home library. It affords highly entertaining and inspiring reading for young or old.—Boston Times.

It is the record of a brave and true man whose career should be studied by all American youth as an aid to conscientious living.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

The author has addressed himself to the work with intelligence and sympathy, and the result is a volume which will be welcomed in the home library, and to circulating and Sunday-school libraries.—The Chicago Evening Herald.

To millions of people of the nation born since the war the revelations of this volume will be comparatively new. To another multitude, those who are older, it will revive memories forever pictured in the mind. The volume is true history, and gives graphically the very spirit of the times.—The Chicago Inter Ocean.

Grob, Jean

Ulric Zwingli

Translated from the German by Rev. G. F. Behringer. 12mo, Cloth, 200 pp., with portrait of Zwingli, $1.00; Paper, 25 cents.

Decidedly the most solid and condensed life of the great reformer.—Christian World, Dayton, O.

This biography presents the life of the Reformer of Switzerland—"the mountain boy of Wildhaus," as he has been called—in a highly interesting manner.—Journal of Education, Boston.

Guizot, M.

Life of John Calvin

4to, Paper, 39 pp. 15 cents.

Gumlich, G. A., D.D.

Christian Creeds and Confessions ‡

A short account of the symbolical books of the churches and sects of Christendom and of the doctrines dependent on them. Translated from the German by L. A. Wheatley. 12mo, Cloth, 134 pp. $1.00.

"Christian Creeds and Confessions" is an admirable compendium. . . . useful also to those possessing the larger treatises. . . . fixes the attention upon the important points.—Professor W. H. Maynard, Hamilton Theological Seminary, N. Y.

It is a compendium every student and clergyman would do well to have in his library, as giving in a condensed form information he ought not to do without.—S. M. Woodbridge, D.D., Pres. Refd. Dutch Ch. Theol. Sem., New Brunswick, N. J.

Gustafson, Axel

Some Thoughts on Moderation

12mo, Cloth, 37 pp. 40 cents.

The Drink Problem ‡

A series of lectures delivered by Axel Gustafson in Exeter Hall, England, under the auspices of the Central Young Men's Christian Association. 12mo, Cloth, 89 pp. 75 cents.

The Foundation of Death ‡

A practical study of the drink question. 12mo, Cloth, 630 pp. $1.50.

"The Foundation of Death" (a temperance treatise) is a monument of wide and patient research, replete with curious, valuable, and interesting information.—Medical Times, London.

Guthrie, Thomas, D.D.

Gems of Illustration

From the sermons and other writings of Thomas Guthrie, D.D., arranged under the subjects which they illustrate, by an American clergyman. 8vo, Cloth, 196 pp. $1.25.

The wealth of anecdote, comparison, and rhetorical similitude displayed in its pages and the excellent index added at the end of the book make this work one of exceptional value for its kind. —The Churchman, New York.

Habberton, John

The Bowsham Puzzle

A story. 12mo, Cloth, 222 pp., $1.00; Paper, 25 cents.

This novel is exceedingly clever in plot and admirable for its portrayal of village life. A quiet and natural humor pervades the whole story. It is realistic in style and full of exciting incident. It is thoroughly readable.—The Evening Gazette, Boston.

Hack, Mary Pryor

Hold the Fort; or, Alcohol in Sickness ‡

A plea for the more moderate use of alcohol in the sick-room and in the hospital. 12mo, Cloth, 104 pp. 50 cents.

Haddock, Frank C.

Life of the Rev. George C. Haddock

Square 12mo, Cloth, 539 pp., illustrated. $2.00.

Regarded in every phase of the art of book-making, it is a magnificent volume and a work of merit. Every one will be interested in it.—The Light, Pittsburg, Pa.

Hale, Edward Everett

Christmas in Narragansett

A story. 12mo, Cloth, 293 pp., $1.00; Paper, 25 cents.

This is an entertaining, sparkling, vivacious bundle of stories; just the thing to read aloud in the family circle.—The Christian Weekly, New York.

Our Christmas in a Palace

A traveler's story. 12mo, Cloth, 268 pp., $1.00; Paper, 25 cents.

Edward Everett Hale has written nothing better in the way of a story of late years than "Our Christmas in a Palace." . . . .—The Transcript, Boston.

The Fortunes of Rachel

A story. 12mo, Cloth, 221 pp., $1.00; Paper, 25 cents.

A purely American story, original all through. After surfeiting on romances whose scenes are laid abroad, it is delightful to come across a healthy home product like this.—The Journal of Commerce, N. Y.

Hall, John, D.D.

Commentary on St. Luke (see Godet's Commentaries).

Hamilton, Edward John, D.D.

The Moral Law, or the Theory and Practise of Duty. An Ethical Text-Book

The doctrines set forth have been carefully formed according to the rules of inductive logic. The aim has been to employ fact—fact only—as the basis of theory. The tenets of every school and the reason alleged in their behalf are compared. 8vo, Cloth, 473 pp. $1.60.

That the book will commend itself to thinkers, be a source of power in the hands of the teachers of philosophy, and an inspiration to the Christian preacher is certain.—New York Times.

This book belongs to the same class with the works of Porter and McCosh; and, in my judgment, it compares favorably with them.—Prof. W. D. Wilson, Cornell University.

I find in it the ripe thought and expression with the thoroughness and vigor of treatment which can come only from the long study and elaboration of one who is at home in dealing with questions pertaining to the human intellect. —Prof. Lyman Atwater, London.

Dr. Hamilton belongs to the school of intuitional psychology. He has, however, wrought independently, and has thought through for himself the great problems with which he deals. His style, I may add, is admirably clear.—President Francis L. Patton, Princeton.

The author is evidently familiar with the latest productions of sensationalisms, associationalists, and cerebralists, and of all others who openly or virtually deny the separate existence or spirituality of the soul, and, without the savage justice of Dabney, but with equal conclusiveness, establishes his own positions and destroys theirs.—President Jeffers, Westminster College.

Hamilton, Gail

Biography of Hon. James G. Blaine

An authoritative story of Mr. Blaine's life by his literary executrix to whom he left his papers and notes. Illustrated. 8vo, Sheep, 700 pp., $3.50; Full Morocco, $7.00.

Hammond, Rev. E. P.

The Reaper and His Harvest

Giving the results of the evangelist's work for the conversion of children. Edited by Rev. P. C. Headley. With portrait. 12mo, Cloth, 550 pp. $1.50.

Edward Payson Hammond, the children's evangelist, has been richly blessed in the salvation of souls, and all Christians will be greatly stimulated by a perusal of this work.—The Interior, Chicago.

Hapgood, Hutchins

The Spirit of the Ghetto

Pictures of the people and life in the East Side Jewish Quarter of New York. The author describes how the Ghetto Jew differs from the Jew elsewhere. He gives short sketches of some of the Ghetto's notable scholars, authors, poets, playwrights, and artists. The "old" and the "new" Jewish woman are described. The reader is given glimpses of the theaters, cafés, newspaper offices, and studios of the quarter. With drawings from life by Jacob Epstein. 12mo, Cloth, 320 pp., ornamental covers. $1.35.

The book will be a revelation to the Christian, and even to the modern Jew, neither of whom understands how complete and characteristic a life pulsates in the Ghetto, how it tingles with every kind of activity, intellectual, political, and dramatic. It is the work of one able to interpret what he sees, to understand its ratios, and finally to divine the deep springs of idealism that transfuse the Ghetto with a poetry that the larger American life often loses.—Israel Zangwill.

There is a singular fascination in the numerous drawings from life. They are speaking pictures full of the color and the essence of their subjects. —The Sun, New York.

Mr. Hapgood has studied the Ghetto with sympathetic insight, and has portrayed it for us with loving care. It is a fascinating, endlessly varied world into which he leads us.—Commercial Advertiser, New York.

He has given us a delightful and remarkable book; candid, sympathetic, and beautifully written—one can not praise it too highly.—The Evening Post, Chicago.

Hardenbrook, Mrs. L. E. L. (see "One of Those Coincidences," under Hawthorne).

Harnack, Adolph, D.D.

Outlines of the History of Dogma ‡

Including a comprehensive discussion of "The Rise of Ecclesiastical Dogma," "The Development of Ecclesiastical Dogma," etc. Translated by Edwin Knox Mitchell, M.A. 8vo, Cloth, 567 pp., large type, marginal notes, etc. $2.50.

Prof. Mitchell's translation of Harnack's "History of Dogma" is sure to command attention. Harnack is the fourth and ablest successor of Neander in the University of Berlin, an inspiring teacher and easily the first living church historian of Germany.—Philip Schaff, D.D., LL.D.

It is hardly possible to speak too highly of it. —The Northwestern Congregationalist, Minneapolis, Minn.

Harnack's "Outlines of Dogma" is a work remarkably compendious without loss of clearness.—Wm. F. Warren, President Boston University.

As an aid to classes and the private student, this volume will be very helpful.—The Gospel Banner, Augusta, Me.

We commend these outlines to scholarly interest and use.—The Watchman, Boston.

Harsha, Wm. J.

A Timid Brave

The story of an Indian uprising portraying the wrongs of the Indians. 12mo, Cloth, 148 pp., 75 cents; Paper, 15 cents.

Hastings, Rev. Frederick

Back Streets and London Slums ‡

A vivid description of the Whitechapel District. 12mo, Paper, 128 pp. 25 cents.

Obscure Characters and Minor Lights of Scripture ‡

A book of suggestive and interesting sketches of persons in Scripture History whose records, tho less conspicuous than the prominent and better-known characters of the Bible, are worthy of careful study, because of the light they throw upon the Bible. 12mo, Cloth, 292 pp. $1.00.

It can not fail to prove an interesting volume. There are a freshness and vigor in the sketches that hold the attention of the reader.—The Reformed Quarterly Review, Philadelphia.

The author treats the characters with freshness and suggestiveness, and he has a useful book.—Sunday School World, Philadelphia.

Haweis, Rev. H. R., A.M.

American Humorists ‡

Essays on Washington Irving, Oliver Wendell Holmes, James Russell Lowell, Artemus Ward, Mark Twain, and Bret Harte. With anecdotes, specimens of wit, etc. 12mo, Cloth, 180 pp., 75 cents; Paper, 15 cents.

The book is unusually interesting from first to last.—The Commercial Gazette, Cincinnati.

A most delightful book.—Current Literature.

Strong in appreciative sense and in intelligent analysis, in the latter quality being original and clear.—Boston Globe.

My Musical Memories ‡

A volume of reminiscences, including chapters on early life and recollections, hearing music, old violins, Paganini, Wagner, Wagner's Operas, and Liszt. 12mo, Cloth, 283 pp., $1.00; Paper, 25 cents.

Those who know the charm and clearness of Mr. Haweis's style in descriptive musical essays will need no commendation of these "Memories," which are not only vivid but critical.—The Public Ledger, Philadelphia.

Of all Mr. Haweis's contributions to musical literature, none is richer or more readable. It is a treasury of musical intelligence such as only a critical taste and an almost infallible instinct could have gathered.—Musical Herald, Boston.

Parsifal (see under "Hour-Glass Stories").

Hawley, Giles P.

Wit, Wisdom, and Philosophy (see Richter).

Hawthorne, Julian

Archibald Malmaison

An exciting story. 12mo, Cloth, 265 pp., cover design. Illustrated by Freeland A. Carter. $1.25.

Full of thrilling situations, and unusual blending of the weird and the actual.—Evening Traveler, Boston.

After perusal of this weird, fantastic tale, it must be admitted that upon the shoulders of Julian Hawthorne has descended in no small degree the mantle of his illustrious father. The climax is so terrible, and so dramatic in its intensity, that it is impossible to class it with any situation of modern fiction.—The London Times.

It is a powerful story, original in plot and strong in literary skill.—Sunday School Times, Philadelphia.

The whole story is told in a quaint, old-fashioned way, with many sly bits of humor thrown in here and there, while the last chapters are of a weirdly tragic character, giving opportunity for considerable dramatic effect, which the author has well improved.—Argonaut, San Francisco.

One of Those Coincidences

And other stories. A tale of the war for Cuban Independence. The book contains also the following ten complete stories by popular writers. 12mo, Cloth, 315 pp., cover design, illustrated. $1.00.

THE STRANGE CASE OF ESTHER ATKINS, by Mrs. L. E. L. Hardenbrook.
THE EASTER OF LA MERCEDES, by Mary C. Francis.
THE ROMANCE OF A TIN ROOF AND A FIRE-ESCAPE, by Myrta L. Avary.

A collection of very readable short stories, which will appeal to varied tastes, and which can be taken up and enjoyed whenever the fortunate possessor has half an hour to spare. The reader can safely pick out any tale at random and be certain of an intellectual feast.—The Standard-Union, Brooklyn, N. Y.

This attractive collection of short stories will appeal to many readers who seek literary entertainment for brief moments. The story from which the book takes its title is a characteristic tale from the pen of Julian Hawthorne. The stories are illustrated by several artists of reputation, and the book is sure of a welcome far and wide.—Baltimore Methodist.

Every one will find something to his taste, if that taste be a healthy one.—The Churchman, New York.

The eleven tales may be said to be representative of the best grade of the modern short story. —The International Magazine, Chicago.

Prince Saroni's Wife

And The Pearl-Shell Necklace. Two novels. In one volume. 12mo, Cloth, 117 pp., 75 cents; Paper, 15 cents.

Stands quite alone for subtle blending of individual and general human interest, poetic and psychologic suggestion, and rare humor.—Contemporary Review, London.

The Trial of Gideon

And The Countess Almara's Murder. Two novels. In one volume. 12mo, Cloth, 96 pp., 75 cents; Paper, 15 cents.

Julian Hawthorne has a more powerful imagination than any contemporary writer of fiction.—The London Academy.

Headley, Rev. P. C.

The Reaper and His Harvest (see Hammond).

Heath, Lilian M.

Platform Pearls

These are choice specimens of the finest pieces of oratory the world has ever heard. A fine index places the contents of this casket of cut diamonds at the easy command of any public speaker.—Christian Guide, Louisville, Ky.

Henry, Matthew

Commentary on the Bible ‡

Matthew Henry's Commentary has been before the Christian world for 200 years. It has become a standard work in theology with the friends of evangelical religion of every denomination. Many other commentaries have been given to the world since this was first edited, but this one has never lost its value. Complete in six 8vo volumes, Cloth, 4,310 pp., illustrated. $18.00.

A brief summary of the contents precedes each chapter; the sacred text is inserted in distinct paragraphs set in brevier type; the pith of each paragraph is given with profuse illustrations, remarks, observations, etc. For expositional work this commentary is considered by many to be unrivaled. The clearness, consistency, and fulness are marked. The contents of each chapter are suggestive of a homily on the same. In Matthew Henry's Commentary the absence of all critical exegetical matter sustains its purity. The commentary is for all denominations, and suitable alike for the home or the pastor's study.

For those who desire a common-sense, pithy, reverent, uplifting commentary on the Bible, nothing is better than Matthew Henry.—George Dana Boardman, D.D.

There is nothing to be compared with Matthew Henry's Commentary for pungent and practical application and teachings of the text.—The Sunday School Times.

For clear, evangelical, spiritual, and practical Biblical exposition there has been nothing better than this old standard.—Bishop John H. Vincent.

Matthew Henry's Commentaries will prove, in all the ages to come, to be a perfect mine of gold for laymen.—R. S. MacArthur, D.D.

It is the product of a diligent mind and a devout heart joined in a loving study of the Word of God. Henry's English is simple and vigorous, and has a quaint originality.—Bishop John F. Hurst.

Matthew Henry's Commentary holds its ground to this day as the best practical and devotional commentary for English readers.—Dr. Philip Schaff.

Matthew Henry's unsectarian but warmly evangelical commentary has for generations been justly prized as a rich, practical, and devotional exposition of the Word of God. It is juicy, cheerful, judicious, experimental, and spiritual. I wish that it were in every Christian's library. The unlettered will find it instructive, quickening, and comforting in the way of life, and the most learned may use it to edification.—S. J. McPherson, D.D., Chicago.

The earnest and devotional spirit by which the work is characterized adapts it admirably to the uses of the home, and its sincere loyalty to the Bible as the Word of God makes it safe at a time when there is a predisposition toward questioning and distrust.—C. H. Parkhurst, D.D.

I regard Matthew Henry's as one of the very best and greatest commentaries ever written. Its merit lies in its spiritual and deeply evangelical character.—A. J. Gordon, D.D., Boston.

Many Bible students and preachers will be surprised to find the ample treasure of exposition and instruction in a work which has been held to be the standard Protestant commentary in the English tongue.—Bishop F. D. Huntington.

Biblical students who are most familiar with the very best commentaries of this generation are most able to appreciate the unfading freshness, the clear analysis, the spiritual force, the quaint humor, and the evangelical richness of Matthew Henry's.—New York Observer.

For the devotional study of the sacred text his work has been and is likely to remain unequaled. —Talbot W. Chambers, D.D., New York.

The Commentary of Matthew Henry is lifted above the reach of our applause by the unanimous approval of the people of God. . . . This venerable exposition of the Word will be a welcome gift to all the households of faith.—B. M. Palmer, D.D., New Orleans.

In these times when expositors are engaged with critical questions which gender strife rather than godly edifying in the faith, it is a matter for thanksgiving to Divine Providence that our Christian homes can secure at a very moderate figure a commentary on the entire Scriptures which does not cover up saving truth under the ice of speculative criticism, but which has aided millions in drinking more deeply from the divine fountain, and by the use of which the greatest preachers of two centuries, Whitfield and Spurgeon, were powerfully aided in drawing from the depths of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God which are contained in the Holy Scriptures.—E. J. Wolf, D.D.

Taking it as a whole, and as adapted to every class of readers, this commentary may be said to combine more excellence than any work of the kind which was ever written in any language.—Archibald Alexander, D.D.

Hervey, Rev. G. W., A.M.

Manual of Revivals

Practical hints and suggestions from the histories of revivals and biographies of revivalists, with themes for the use of pastors, including texts, subjects, and outlines of the sermons of many distinguished evangelists. 12mo, Cloth, 360 pp. $1.25.

This work is very useful. The author speaks most judiciously and instructively.—Rev. C. H. Spurgeon.

Not the least striking feature of the book is its sterling common sense. It is evidently the result of wide observation and the importance of revivals; their relations to other church work are clearly and forcibly presented.—Christian Work, New York.

Hexaglot Bible, The

Comprising the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments in the original tongues. The work presents the Scriptures of the Old Testament in six languages, the Hebrew, Greek, Latin, English, German, and French, and the New Testament in Greek, Syriac, Latin, English, German, and French. The texts are conveniently arranged in six parallel columns, three columns on each of two opposite pages. Edited by the Rev. Edward Riches De Levante, M.A., Ph.D. Assisted by competent Biblical scholars. Six volumes, quarto, Cloth. $40.00.

The texts are those of the highest authorities. The Hebrew is that of Van der Hooght, carefully revised. The Greek in the Old Testament is Dr. Tischendorf's latest edition, with gaps supplied in brackets, from various sources, and in the New Testament, Dr. Tischendorf's eighth edition similarly supplemented. The Latin of the Old Testament is the Clementine edition of the Vulgate, and in the New Testament, Dr. Tischendorf's edition of the Codex Amiatinus, with gaps supplied in brackets, from the Clementine edition. The Syriac (in the New Testament only) is based on the noted "Biblia Sacra Polyglotta." The English is the Authorized Version; the German, Martin Luther's translation, and the French is the translation by David Martin with revisions.

It is not only a sumptuous book for a library, but is also a book of comparative versions which will be of incalculable convenience and value. . . . Each version has been committed to a scholar specially qualified for editing it, and the whole has been produced in a style of printing which places the work at the head of the Biblical texts of this country.—British Quarterly Review.

Will be of much use to us. The work is beautifully printed.—The Rt. Rev. the Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, Pres. of the New Testament Revising Company.

It seems to me to be a very valuable work, and is edited competently and correctly. The arrangement of the New Testament is excellent, and gives us every version of primary importance as well as the original Greek.—The Very Rev. the Dean of Canterbury.

I have satisfied myself that "The Hexaglot Bible" is useful to students.—His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

We have tested its accuracy in several passages, and certainly with gratification and success. It is clear that no pains and no expense have been spared on the production of this work, which does infinite credit to the enterprise and good taste of the publishers. It is a marvel of accurate and beautiful typography.—The Evening Standard.

A more seasonable, more accurate, or more elegant Bible of languages has never been published. . . . As a volume of instant reference and comparison, of unique size and of excellency of typography, this latest Polyglot of the Holy Scriptures has no compeer.—The Brighton Daily News.

Hill, Royal

The Stars and Constellations

A simple and practical guide-book of the heavens intended specially for those who are not proficient in astronomy. It gives easy helps with charts which will enable any one to learn the names and positions of all the important stars and constellations. The zodiacal charts show the relative size and the exact position of each star visible to the naked eye. The path of the sun is also indicated so that its precise location for any day in the year can be instantly ascertained. It includes a perpetual astronomical time-table. Large 4to, Cloth, 32 pp. $1.00.

It is all that is needed to identify easily all the leading stars and constellations.—Prof. C. A. Young, Princeton University.

We regard the idea on which the plan is based as a sound one.—Popular Science Monthly, New York.

Hillquit, Morris

History of Socialism in the United States **

A complete exposition of socialism in the United States, treating the circumstances of its origin, the manner of its growth, and the tendencies of its future development, with chapters on Sectarian Communities, The Owenite Period, The Fourieristic Period, The Icarian Communities, Ante-Bellum Period, Period of Organization, Period of the Socialist Labor Party, The Socialist Labor Party in Politics, and Present-Day Socialism. 8vo, Cloth, 371 pp. $1.50, net; by mail, $1.67.

This is not only a clear and well-ordered compendium of what has heretofore been a scattered and voluminous literature on the subject of communistic experiments in America, but it is also a new and original account of the rise and present political status of what is officially known as the Socialist party of the United States, written by one who has long been in the councils of the party. It is a serious and important work.—Springfield Republican.

Hinton, Col. Richard J.

John Brown and His Men

Volume XII. of "American Reformers" Series. With 22 portraits. 12mo, Cloth, 752 pp. $1.50.

The volume contains considerable matter never before published, is full of fascinating reading, and is of inestimable historic value.—The Commercial Gazette, Cincinnati.

A romance of American history told by a participant. Should be in the hands of every one who aims to be well informed.—The Times, Philadelphia.

Poems by Richard Realf

More than one hundred and fifty stirring lyrics and songs and sonnets. There are spirited songs of war and tender poems of love and pathos. With a memoir of Richard Realf by the editor, Col. Hinton. 12mo, Cloth, 345 pp., deckle edges, gilt top, cover design. $2.50.

Richard Realf's genius was of remarkable quality. Patriotism fairly blazed in many of his lyrics; his love of freedom was an imperious passion, which gives a trumpet strain to his war poems and kindred pieces and sets him high among our most vigorous singers.—The Independent, New York.

Richard Realf had in him a kind of composite spirit that suggested a blend of General Massey with Robert Burns. He wrote always with fluency and fire, and there was such a fresh and felicitous touch at his command that he rarely failed to hit a high mark.—The Times, New York.

Hints on Early Education

And Nursery Discipline. 12mo, Cloth, 96 pp. 60 cents.

A better book has seldom been published than this.—Chicago Journal.

Hirsch, Rabbi Samson Raphael

The Nineteen Letters of Ben Uziel

A presentation of the principles of Judaism with a biographical sketch of Rabbi Hirsch by the translator. Translated by Bernard Drachman, Ph.D. 12mo, Cloth, 259 pp., cover design. Portrait of author. $1.00.

His rendering is in pure, idiomatic, and classic English, and reproduces well the beauty and eloquence, the lofty idealism, ethical sublimity, and philosophic profundity, of the original.—Washington Post.

Hirsh, Hugo

Tabulated Digest of Divorce Laws *

A folding chart showing at a glance in tabulated form the divorce laws of every state in the United States, including all of the latest revisions to date. Cloth Cover. $1.50, net.

It can not but prove a great saving of time and trouble.—Rufus William Peckham, Justice United States Supreme Court.

It must be of great use to lawyers.—Willard Bartlett, Supreme Court, New York.

The new edition shall find a place in my own library.—Judge Alton B. Parker.

Hobbes, John Oliver (Mrs. Craigie)

Love and the Soul Hunters ‡

A novel which is considered to be one of the most successful literary achievements of this gifted author. The world in which it moves is the world of high aristocracy and high finance. It gives vignettes of the people who live in these high circles, their characters, their manners, and their mode of life. The book touches the notes of luxury, materialism, rank, and immense wealth, and is a brilliant picture of that modern society in which the royalty and pride of birth of the Old World clash with the wealth, enterprise, and liberal ideas of the New. 12mo, Cloth, 343 pp., ornamental cover. $1.50.

The daintiness and sparkle of her work are indisputable.—The New York Times.

Every page is rich in these little touches, the little half-lights and suggestions which reflect not so much the practised as the instinctively skilful hand.—The New York Tribune.

Here is the touch of the artist, nervous, brilliant, at once delicate and strong. . . . Every speech lives and glows.—The London Times.

There is hardly a page that does not sparkle with at least one clever saying. You can not skip it, because you read with enjoyment.—Morning Post.

All the characters are drawn with master strokes, and they are many and diversified.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Mrs. Craigie is at her cleverest in plot and characterization in this story.—The Bookseller, Chicago.

Holland, Frederic May

Frederick Douglass: The Colored Orator

Volume IV. of "American Reformers" Series. With portrait. 12mo, Cloth, 428 pp. $1.50.

The book is extremely and strangely interesting.—Christian Endeavor World, Boston.

This biography is markedly superior. . . . Its cultivated style and its evidences of laborious research among the sources especially distinguish it.—The Nation, New York.

A charming volume. . . . Issues of national import are here discussed incident to Mr. Douglass's personnel, which are far reaching and whose trend will be part of the twentieth-century interests for the world.—Post-Express, Rochester.

Accurate and valuable.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Holley, H. W.

Random Shots at Living Targets

Illustrating and elaborating in prose and in rime the elements involved in temperance reform. 12mo, Cloth, 228 pp. $1.00.

It illustrates and elaborates with great vigor the elements involved in the temperance reform.—News, Baltimore.

Holley, Marietta (Josiah Allen's Wife).

Poems ‡

A volume of poetry. Illustrated by W. Hamilton Gibson and other artists. 12mo, Cloth, 216 pp., cover design. $2.00.

Will win for her a title to an honorable place among American poets.—Chicago Standard.

Miss Holley has here more than sustained her high literary reputation.—Interior, Chicago.

As a whole there is a naturalness, a delicacy and sweetness of sentiment, and a touching pathos pervading it that can not fail to commend it to all lovers of poetry.—Central Baptist, St. Louis.

A rich, rare gift-book for every occasion and every end.—Herald of Gospel Liberty, Dayton, O.

Samantha Among the Brethren ‡

A characteristic story incidentally containing an argument for woman's vote in church government and other matters. Illustrated. 12mo, Cloth, 452 pp. $2.50.

It is irresistibly humorous and true.—Bishop John P. Newman.

It is as full of meat as an egg. . . . Calculated to do immense good in that department of woman's rights which relates to her participation in the great work of the Church of Christ, beyond the scrubbing and papering of the meeting-house.—Ex-Judge Noah Davis.

Samantha at the World's Fair ‡

Samantha's adventures at the Columbian Exposition. Illustrated by Baron C. De Grimm. 8vo, Cloth, 700 pp., cover design, $2.50; Half Russia, gilt edges, $4.00.

Full of human nature and exceedingly droll.—Boston Times.

This is, indeed, a book able to remove the traces of care from the sad countenance and illumine it with the broadest of healthy smiles.—Detroit Journal.

Samantha in Europe

Samantha and Josiah's experiences abroad. Illustrated by Baron C. De Grimm. 8vo, Cloth, 727 pp., cover design, $2.50; Half Russia, gilt edges, $4.00.

This book is the best book of travels since Mark Twain's "Innocents Abroad."—The Boston Times.

. . . Smiles and tears come from the same sentence, and it is so skillfully written that a proper equilibrium is maintained.—Christian Guide, Louisville.

Sweet Cicely ‡

Or Josiah Allen as a Politician. A temperance story. 12mo, Cloth, 390 pp., cover design. Illustrated. $2.00.

The interest of the book is intense. . . . Alongside of the fun are genuine eloquence and profound pathos; we scarcely know which is the more delightful.—The Literary World, London.

In "Sweet Cicely" there is the ever-present thorn of startling truth sticking in the side that aches with laughter.—The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette.

Hollister, O. J.

Life of Schuyler Colfax

The story of his early life and his political career. 8vo, Cloth, 535 pp. $2.50.

Another important part of the history of this country is written in "The Life of Schuyler Colfax," by his old friend and associate O. J. Hollister. It is perspicuously, compactly, succinctly, and admirably written and handsomely printed. —The Post, Washington.

The history of his life is more romantic than any fiction, and the pictures which the author paints of the scenes through which the patriot passed are thrilling.—The Financier, New York.

One of the ablest biographies of the day.—Journal of Education, Boston.

It will be found satisfactory by thousands of friends, political and personal, who will prize the story of the life of the man they respected, admired, and loved.—The Inter Ocean, Chicago.

From beginning to end it is an interesting history, and one that will be warmly received and highly valued.—The Interior, Chicago.

Holloway, Laura C.

Adelaide Neilson

A souvenir biography. Eight photographs by Sarony. Ribbon-tied, 58 pp. $2.00.

Charlotte Bronté

An hour with Charlotte Bronté; or, Flowers from a Yorkshire Moor. 12mo, Cloth, 144 pp., with portrait, 75 cents; Paper, 15 cents.

There are at times flights of eloquence that rise to grandeur.—New York Herald.

Howard

The Christian Hero. A biography of Maj.-Gen. O. O. Howard, illustrating his career as a Christian soldier. 12mo, Cloth, 235 pp., $1.00; Paper, 25 cents.

This volume presents a highly interesting account of his military and philanthropic career.—Lutheran Observer, Philadelphia.

The Home in Poetry

A collection of English and American verse on the home. 12mo, Cloth, 244 pp., $1.00; Paper, 25 cents.

The compiler has shown excellent judgment in the selections, and book skill in the orderly arrangement of the work.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Holy-Days and Holidays

This is an exhaustive cyclopedia of inspiring thoughts from the great poets, authors, preachers, statesmen, and others on the important days of the ecclesiastical calendar and the leading secular holidays. The holy-days are those which are commemorative of the most significant facts and principles of the Christian faith. The holidays are those most widely observed in the United States, Great Britain, Ireland, and Canada. The contents include sermons and outlines, poetry, historical data, illustrations, descriptive data, etc. The contents are arranged in the most convenient and accessible form, and the volume includes an exhaustive bibliography, a topical index, index to authors, and index to texts. Compiled by Edward M. Deems, A.M., Ph.D. 8vo, Cloth, 768 pp. $5.00.

The book is a treasury, with its contents so thoroughly indexed that anything in it can be found with perfect ease. Every literary worker will want it not on his library shelf, but right at his hand.—The Christian Observer, Louisville, Ky.

The preacher will find it a veritable mine of good things.—The Christian Guardian, Toronto.

The book is admirably arranged and will inevitably prove of great assistance to scholars and others.—The St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A book to be largely welcomed by every preacher and public speaker.—Epworth Herald, Chicago.

The vast amount of labor put into this work by the compiler will save a vast deal of work in the aggregate to those who use the book.—The Watchman, Boston.

It will be cherished in the scholar's library, the office, and the household as a valuable work of reference.—The Religious Telescope, Dayton, Ohio.

Here are gathered the treasures of a wide and varied literature, grouped around those special occasions that are endeared to millions of men by festive and hallowed associations.—Zion's Herald, Boston.

The material is not hackneyed, but taken from up-to-date sources.—Christian Endeavor World.

Homiletic Monthly, The

Devoted to homiletics, Biblical literature, discussion of living issues and applied Christianity. Edited by I. K. Funk, D.D., LL.D. Vols. I. and II. (see METROPOLITAN PULPIT); Vols. III., IV., V., VI., VII., 8vo, each, $3.00; Vol. VIII. (enlarged), $3.50; single numbers, 25 cents; Vol. IX. (see HOMILETIC REVIEW).

Homiletic Review, The

An International Undenominational Magazine devoted to an exposition and discussion of living issues and subjects related to all branches of religious and pulpit activity. Issued monthly. 8vo, 80 pp. Subscription per year, $3.00; to clergymen and theological students, in advance, $2.50; single copies, 30 cents. Vols. I. and II. (see METROPOLITAN PULPIT); Vols. III.–VIII. (see HOMILETIC MONTHLY); Vols. IX.–XLIX. (HOMILETIC REVIEW), bound in Cloth, each, $2.00. Subscribers' copies for six months (January–June or July–December) bound for 90 cents, return carriage prepaid. Covers for respective vols., suitable for regular binding, 50 cts.

THE HOMILETIC REVIEW contains discussions and information on all the important practical topics and problems in theology, religion, and pastoral work. It secures the best contributions from the leading thinkers, writers, and preachers of the Christian world. The attitude of the Church and pulpit toward all the live issues of the day receives full attention in its pages. THE REVIEW is international in its scope, and it is a practical help to ministers, theological students, and other religious workers.

REGULAR FEATURES.

EDITORIAL COMMENT discussing every subject of first importance in religion, theology, ecclesiastics, and social, ethical, and political movements as related to the minister and his thought and work.

THE REVIEW SECTION contains every month articles from distinguished authorities and of vital interest to the preacher and Christian worker.

SERMONIC CRITICISM AND SUGGESTION contains each month articles on preachers and preaching; on the manner and matter of the pulpit, and on every related theme of interest to sermon-makers and pulpit occupants.

STUDIES IN BIBLE THEMES comprises exegetical, expository, and hermeneutical articles and hints, explanations of texts, side-lights of Scripture, analytical studies of passages, and every good kind of Bible criticism and exposition.

PASTORAL HELPS AND HINTS is devoted to the work of the pastor, furnishing articles on every approved and every possible new method in the work of the Church, discussing the pastorate in all its manifold relations, and dealing with every phase of the pastor's activity.

SERMONS AND ADDRESSES presents a monthly array of the very best utterances of the modern pulpit of the world, including, as time allows, every important name in Christendom of all the Christian denominations. This department includes also a large array of SUGGESTIVE OUTLINES, sermon hints and themes for all occasions, SUGGESTIVE THEMES AND TEXTS, and a PRAYER-MEETING SERVICE in outline for each week of the year.

ILLUSTRATIONS FOR PULPIT USE supplies feathers for the preacher's arrows, all fresh, especially selected from new sources, and comprising in the course of the year nearly a new cyclopedia of homiletic illustration.

A BULLETIN OF RECENT BOOKS gives the preacher a summary account of the best books as they appear, and furnishes him a guide to his reading.

I have always found THE REVIEW stimulating and helpful.—A. J. F. Behrends, D.D., LL.D.

The very best of its kind published for preachers.—Newell Dwight Hillis, D.D., successor of Henry Ward Beecher as Pastor of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn.

It represents the best pulpit talent of the two continents.—The Christian Intelligencer, New York.

I am persuaded there is no more valuable publication for the minister.—Wayland Hoyt, D.D.

It is packed full of suggestion, wise, varied, helpful.—Prof. Herrick Johnson, D.D., LL.D., McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago.

It stands at the head of magazines devoted to current religious thought and sermonic literature. There has been no let-down from the high ideal at which its publishers have aimed, and by the hope of attaining which they have been inspired. —The Christian Intelligencer.

Homiletic Review, Comprehensive Index to The

A practical and exhaustive index, including every article in forty-two volumes of THE HOMILETIC REVIEW. All the wealth of homiletical information contained in THE REVIEW is now placed within easy reach by this complete, practical, and exhaustive index. Each alternate page is left blank for the owner to fill with subjects treated in succeeding volumes of THE REVIEW. The owner can use the blank pages for an index to subjects in his whole library. The volume is divided into two comprehensive indexes: first, an Index of Authors and Subjects—alphabetical, analytical, and topical, with full cross-references; second, a Complete Index of Texts. Volume I., covering the first thirty volumes of THE REVIEW, 8vo, Cloth, 532 pp. $3.00. Volume II., covering the twelve volumes of THE REVIEW issued since the first index volume was published, 8vo, Cloth. $2.00.

Hood, E. Paxton

Oliver Cromwell ‡

His Life, Times, Battlefields, and Contemporaries. 12mo, Cloth, 286 pp., $1.00; Paper, 25 cents.

Mr. Hood's biography is a positive boon to the mass of readers, because it presents a more correct view of the great soldier than any of the shorter lives published.—The Sun, New York.

Scottish Characteristics ‡

Will stir the heart of any pastor and awaken an earnest desire to meet more adequately the solemn claims of his office.—Zion's Herald, Boston.

Hour-Glass Stories, The

I. The Courtship of Sweet Anne Page

A brisk little love story incidental to "The Merry Wives of Windsor," telling of the Courtship of Sweet Anne Page by the three lovers: Abraham Slender, the gawk chosen by her father; Dr. Caius, the garlic-scented favorite of her mother; and "gallant Fenton," the choice of her own wilful self. By Ellen V. Talbot. Small 12mo, Cloth, 91 pp., illustrated. 40 cents.

The diction has a true Elizabethan flavor, and the humor possesses all the wit of that period.—Washington Post.

A delightful and most readable novel, full of wit and brightness, keeping close to its subject and ending happily.—Baltimore Methodist.

II. The Sandals

An idyl of sacred story about the sandals of Christ. It tells of their wanderings and who were their wearers, from the time that they fell to the lot of a Roman soldier when Christ's garments were parted among his crucifiers to the day when they came back to Mary. By Rev. Zelotes Grenell. Small 12mo, Cloth, 59 pp., illustrated. 40 cents.

The story is told in exquisite fashion, and is one to be enjoyed.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

It is a charming prose poem. There is a little love story, sweetly told.—The Milwaukee Journal.

III. The Transfiguration of Miss Philura

A story based on the theory that every physical need and every desire of the heart can be claimed and received from the "Encircling Good" by the true believer. Miss Philura is enchanted with this creed, adopts it literally, and obtains thereby blessings of particular value to a timid spinster, including a husband. By Florence Morse Kingsley. Small 12mo, Cloth, 81 pp., illustrated. 40 cents.

Very clear, original, bright, and captivating.—Brooklyn Eagle.

IV. The Herr Doctor

A vivacious story of two American women traveling in Germany, telling of their unexpected meeting with a nobleman and the interesting complications resulting from this romantic situation. By Robert Macdonald. Small 12mo, Cloth, 138 pp., illustrated. 40 cents.

A crisp, dainty story which rustles of feminine draperies so much that one can hardly believe a man wrote it. It fairly overflows with the schemes and pretty wiles by which a traveling American heiress woos and wins a German nobleman.—Minneapolis Times.

V. Esarhaddon, King of Assyria, and Other Stories ‡

It contains three stories, "Esarhaddon," an allegorical tale of a cruel king who was made to feel and understand the sufferings of one of his captives and to repent his own cruelty; "Work, Death, and Sickness," an Indian legend showing the three means God took to make men more brotherly; "Three Questions," a folk-lore story answering the three important questions of life. By Count Leo Tolstoy. Small 12mo, Cloth, 64 pp., illustrated. 40 cents.

VI. Parsifal ‡

An intimate and appreciative description and consideration of this famous masterpiece. The author, who heard and studied the opera at its home in Baireuth, is exceptionally well qualified to interpret it for American music lovers. By H. R. Haweis. Small 12mo, Cloth, 68 pp., illustrated. 40 cents.

The performance at Baireuth is described in a most captivating manner.—St. Paul Dispatch.

VII. The Trouble Woman

In this story the author presents an actual experience coming under her own observation. The "Trouble Woman's" uniform remark over the misfortunes of her neighbors to whose assistance she was the first to come, "Do you call that trouble? Well, I don't!" has already become a proverb in many households where the story, in its original magazine form, has been read. By Clara Morris. Small 12mo, 60 pp., illustrated. 40 cents.

One of the two or three short stories which have caught my heart as in a trap.—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

How to Organize a Prohibition Club

A practical manual. 16mo, Cloth, 31 pp. 25 cents.

Howard, Major-General O. O.

Isabella of Castile

A story of her life, including a narrative of the three wars with which her life was intimately connected. Illustrated with seven full-page photogravures; text illustrations by F. A. Carter. 12mo, Cloth, 349 pp., with map. $1.50.

Should find a place in all public and private libraries, and in every American home.—The Christian Statesman, Pittsburg.

The story of the great queen is told in a clear and interesting style, and the illustrations are of genuine artistic merit.—Morning Star, Boston.

Hoyt, J. K.

The Cyclopedia of Practical Quotations *

Over thirty thousand choice quotations, embracing a comprehensive field of subjects, with eighty-six thousand lines of concordance; also an appendix containing proverbs from the modern foreign languages, Latin law terms, etc. 8vo, Buckram, 1,205 pp., $6.00; Law Sheep, $8.00; Half Morocco, $10.00; Full Morocco, $12.00. Patent thumb-index, 75 cents extra. (All net.)

It has been the aim in the cyclopedia to embrace every familiar phrase and sentence that has general currency in the English language. Special attention has been paid to the accuracy and authority. Not only are the authors of the quotations given, but the book, page, and line from which they are taken are always indicated. The appendix contains a list of the authors quoted, with full names, nationality, dates, etc. The appendix also contains a large list of proverbs from the Latin, French, German, and other modern foreign languages, accompanied by English translations; and a full list of Latin law terms (with translations). Three distinct reference keys are afforded: the topics, the entry of each significant word in the concordance, and the name of the author with the numbers of the pages containing his quotations.

A work which will commend itself to all scholars. No library will be complete without it.—Hon. Horace Porter.

I have always found this cyclopedia the most complete and useful book of the kind ever published.—Hon. Joseph H. Choate.

It has been to me a practical help.—Gen. Stewart L. Woodford.

The cyclopedia will be of great value and usefulness to many persons.—Ex-Pres. Benjamin Harrison.

It is the best work of the kind with which I am acquainted.—Hon. Geo. F. Edmunds.

By far the most complete and satisfactory work of its class.—W. J. Rolfe, M.A., D.L.

The work is indispensable to the scholar and the author.—Hon. Abram S. Hewitt.

It is the very fullest, the most accurate, and therefore the best.—The Bookman, New York.

The claim to a novelty in the abundance of its matter and to be arranged on a new principle is well founded.—Goldwin Smith, D.C.L., LL.D.

The cyclopedia is absolutely indispensable. We rejoice in it.—Springfield Republican.

Exhaustive and satisfactory. Immeasurably the best book of quotations.—Boston Traveler.

By long odds the best book of quotations.—New York Herald.

Indispensable to men of letters; should be in the library of every reader.—The Boston Globe.

This work is one of the best reference helps that we have seen.—San Francisco Chronicle.

The most complete collection of quotations in print.—Minneapolis Journal.

Nothing of the kind so perfect and accurate has ever come to our notice.—The Interior, Chicago.

This cyclopedia stands very near the head of its class.—Journal of Commerce, N. Y.

Ethical Teachings in Old English Literature

The book contains 24 papers designed to emphasize the ethical and Christian element in our Old English authors. 12mo, Cloth, 385 pp., gilt top. $1.25.

A most interesting, learned, and instructive work.—Standard-Union, Brooklyn.

Hyde, Henry M.

The Buccaneers **

A story of the black flag in business. The action moves rapidly, and the tale gives with ruthless candor a picture of modern corporation methods in dealing with business rivals. A love story plays an important part. 12mo, Cloth. Frontispiece by Bert Knight. $1.20, net; by mail, $1.31.

The story is breezy in the extreme, every chapter pulsating with vitality.—Philadelphia Item.

Jacobs, Henry E., D.D.

Commentary on Galatians-Ephesians; Commentary on Revelation (see Meyer's Commentary).

Jacobs, Joseph

As Others Saw Him ‡

A retrospect, A.D. 54. This volume is in a measure a Jewish life of Jesus, written as if by one of the members of the Sanhedrin who condemned Jesus to death. Two sermons of Jesus are included, made up of sayings of his that do not occur in the Gospels, but which have been extracted from the church fathers. The volume includes also a Jewish catechism from which it is claimed Jesus acquired the fundamental principles of his teachings. 12mo, Cloth, 230 pp. $1.25.

It is a most beautiful work, and, I trust, will be widely circulated; for it can not fail to do good wherever it goes, whether among Israelites or Christians. It has given me a new point of view from which to look at the series of events to which it is devoted, and at the same time has increased my hope that a not distant future will see such increase of kindly feeling between men of various religions as has hardly hitherto been dreamed of.—Hon. Andrew D. White.

James, Croake

Curiosities of Law and Lawyers ‡

Bright sayings, interesting facts, anecdotes about lawyers, curious legal cases and documents, jokes between counsel, client, etc. 8vo, Cloth, 798 pp. $3.00.

Innumerable good things relating to the legal profession. ..... We know of no volume better adapted to amuse and edify both the lawyer and the layman.—Green Bag, Boston.

Jeffersonian Cyclopedia, The

Including the important writings and utterances of Thomas Jefferson, conveniently arranged under topics in alphabetical order and thoroughly indexed. The contents include Jefferson's theories on government, politics, law, education, commerce, agriculture, manufacturers, finance, science, art, literature, religious freedom, morals, and other topics. The cyclopedia contains 9,228 extracts, besides an appendix including a number of historical documents, chronology of Jefferson's life, etc. With ten illustrations. Edited by John P. Foley. 8vo, 1,031 pp., Cloth, $7.50; Sheep, $10.00; Half Morocco, $12.50; Full Morocco, $15.00, net.

This is an exceptionally fine work. The cyclopedia is a model of selection and classification. Jefferson's noblest thoughts and most convincing arguments will be found in this volume.—The Sun, Baltimore.

Not only a compendium of Jefferson's writings but a manual of Jeffersonian doctrine, accurate, complete, and impartial, giving Jefferson's views, theories, and ideas in his own words. Mr. Foley has done his work sympathetically and well. The cyclopedic form is admirably suited to this preparation as being the most convenient possible for reference. Naturally the work as thus presented has peculiar interest at this moment when so many new international questions confront the United States.—Philadelphia Times.

There has been nothing like "The Jeffersonian Cyclopedia." Altogether it is such a presentation of the thoughts of Jefferson as we remember to have been equaled in the case of no other person outside of sacred history.—Buffalo Express.

The text has been done with care and discrimination. The respectable but handy volume, in so far as it is representative of the opinions of the statesman, is an admirable substitute for his entire works. And for purposes of quick reference it is of course superior. And those whose acquaintance with his works is slight will get a very good idea of the extent of his wisdom and experience by turning over these pages. The work is so satisfactory that it makes one wonder why it was not done before.—The Evening Sun, N. Y.

Jenkins, Burris A.

Heroes of Faith

Simple studies in New Testament Greek, based on the celebrated eleventh chapter of Hebrews. Its aims are to present a helpful plan for making a critical study of the New Testament, and to offer facilities for acquiring a general elementary knowledge of the Greek text—its literal translation and its form when put into the Old Version and the New Revision of the English Bible. It gives a brief survey of the history, geography, and literature of the Old Testament. 8vo, Cloth, 64 pp., 75 cents; Paper, 50 cents.

It is much to be ushered into the glorious assembly of these heroes of faith.—Religious Telescope.

A valuable little book.—Methodist Times, London.

The method of treatment is very suggestive and instructive, and any student will receive from it a mental and moral stimulus of special value.—Lutheran Observer.

Jesus in the Vedas

The testimony of Hindu scriptures in corroboration of the rudiments of Christian doctrine. The book will be found suggestive as a contribution to the literature of comparative religions. By a native Indian missionary. 12mo, Leatherette, 61 pp. 35 cents.

It will interest and surprise many.—Episcopal Methodist, Baltimore, Md.

Sleep and Dreams; Also, the Analogy of Insanity to Sleep and Dreams

From the German of Dr. Friedrich Scholz, director of the Bremen Insane Asylum. A scientific popular dissertation, including interesting discussions on sleep and its causes, dreams, sleeplessness and its prevention, etc., etc. Also in same volume "The Analogy of Insanity to Sleep and Dreams," by Milo A. Jewett, M.D. 12mo, Cloth, 148 pp. 75 cents.

It is a decidedly interesting and valuable volume. . . . We have ourselves taken great pleasure in the book, and cheerfully commend it as full of important matter.—The New York Herald.

This volume is an exceedingly interesting one, . . . gives, besides, much that is useful to those troubled with insomnia.—The New York Times.

Is especially valuable for its admirable chapter on "Sleeplessness and Its Prevention."—The Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

The chapter on "Dreams" is full of suggestions.—The Christian Advocate, Nashville, Tenn.

It is full of interesting facts. . . . A sensible book for the restless and nervous.—The Christian Enquirer, New York.

Cloth, $84.00; Half Morocco, $108.00; Full Morocco, $136.00.

OUTLINE OF THE CONTENTS.

HISTORY, BIOGRAPHY, AND SOCIOLOGY—History of the Jews; general historical movements influencing Jewish history; Jewish settlements and congregations in the Old World and the New; Jewish societies; documents; civilization of the Jews, including customs, education, art; historical geography and archeology of Palestine and other countries; biography of Biblical characters and post-Biblical personages; distinguished Jewish families; accounts of prominent non-Jews; anthropology; sociology; folk-lore.

LITERATURE—The Old Testament; Hellenistic literature; Talmud and Midrash; Rabbinical literature; literature of the Middle Ages and modern times; historical and geographical literature; translations by Jews; dialect literature; periodical literature; Hebrew philology; Hebrew bibliography; history of Jewish learning and education.

THEOLOGY AND PHILOSOPHY—Doctrines of Judaism in their development from Bible times; relation of Judaism to Christianity, Islam, and other religions; Jewish religious life in home and synagogue; synagogue-liturgy, poetry and music; Jewish sects; Jewish philosophy; Jewish ethics in its historic development; homiletical literature and history of modern pulpit eloquence.

It is a work of the utmost interest and importance.—John Hay, Secretary of State.

It is appropriate that this great Jewish Encyclopedia should appear in this country—it could hardly find support in any other—and it becomes our abounding mutual religious charity that it is Christian enterprise that supplies the publishers. —New York Independent.

It proves itself indispensable.—London Chronicle.

It will appeal hardly less to Christian students than to Jewish readers. Never before has any single publication represented in a more signal manner the sympathy and fellowship of modern scholarship.—Chicago Record-Herald.

This monumental addition to the world's library of useful books . . . is as complete, thorough, and many-sided as a broad scholarship, a wide outlook, an unbiased attitude can make it. This encyclopedia will in some respects be a pioneer.—New York Mail and Express.

Not only a great but a timely book.—The Outlook, New York.

Scholars of other faiths and nationalities will find such a work of reference valuable. "Anti-Semitism" is treated in a remarkably dispassionate and temperate spirit.—London Times.

It deserves every support and should find its way into the libraries of Jewish and Christian scholars alike.—Jacob H. Schiff.

It will be of intrinsic value and can take its place by the side of the most trusted books of its kind.—Emil G. Hirsch, Ph.D.

The greatest Jewish enterprise in the last four hundred years.—Judge Mayer Sulzberger, Phila.

We can say that an examination of a considerable part of this volume has not only failed to reveal noteworthy defects, but has also left a very strong impression of its scholarship and of the good judgment of its editors.—New York Tribune.

Facts concerning Jews and Judaism in the New World are for the first time adequately presented. —Boston Transcript.

There is, without doubt, a certain magnificence in the conception of The Jewish Encyclopedia.—The Spectator, London.

Admirable alike in the scholarly fulness of its information and the lucidity of its arrangement. —London World.

Erudition in every branch of human knowledge has been asked to contribute its quota. We do not hesitate in stating that we have never seen a volume of this particular kind where so much pains has been taken with the illustrations.—New York Times.

The first systematic attempt to explain the Jew. In the sphere of theology it is likely to prove most useful and valuable.—Philadelphia Times.

It is a project colossal in scope and unique in its aim.—The New York Sun.

It will be truthful and interesting, and of much use to the public.—Archbishop John Ireland.

A work of great value to all interested in either the history of the past or the progress of the future.—Lyman Abbott, D.D., LL.D.

Johnson, Franklin, D.D.

The New Psychic Studies

These studies relate to what is commonly known as thought-transferences, somnambulism, mesmerism, clairvoyance, spiritualism, apparition of the living, haunted houses, ghosts, and Buddhistic occultism. The researches here carefully noted have been chiefly carried on under the direction of the British Society for Psychical Research. With several diagrams. 12mo, Cloth, 95 pp. 75 cents.

Brief in compass, clear in thought, and simple in language, it is a book to attract attention and excite inquiry. . . . The book can not fail to stimulate inquiry.—The Standard, Chicago.

The work is instructive and suggestive, giving in a comprehensive form the processes and present results of psychic investigations.—The Christian Herald, Detroit.

Johnson, Rev. John Edgar

Rock That Is Higher Than I

A volume of devout meditations, in prose and poetry, founded on selected texts of Scripture. 8vo, Cloth, 72 pp. 75 cents.

Josiah Allen's Wife (see Holley, Marietta).

Kelly, Rev. Thomas

Pulpit Trees and Homiletic Undergrowth

A volume of discourses, sermon outlines, suggestive illustrations of practical value to the homilist. 12mo, Cloth, 336 pp. $1.50.

Dr. Kelly has given most skilful plans of sermons. He is largely textual in his method, and sermon plans abound which are admirable for the forms of expression.—The Standard, Chicago.

Kendrick, A. C., D.D.

Commentary on St. John (see Meyer's Commentary).

Kennedy, William Sloane

John G. Whittier: The Poet of Freedom

Vol. IX. of "American Reformers" Series. Portrait. 12mo, Cloth, 332 pp. $1.50.

This biography is a valuable contribution to the annals of American literature and to the history of our country.—Cincinnati Commercial Gazette.

It is a book to read again and again. . . . It is both entertaining and instructive, and contains many pleasing anecdotes.—Baltimore American.

The Hermits ‡

Including St. Anthony, St. Paul, Hilarion, Arsenius, Hermits of Asia, Basil, Simon Stylites, Hermits of Europe. 4to, Paper, 54 pp. 15 cents.

Town Geology ‡

4to, Paper, 27 pp. 15 cents.

Kingsley, Florence Morse (see also "One of Those Coincidences" under Hawthorne).

The Needle's Eye

The hero of this story, born poor, comes into possession of great wealth. He conscientiously and under stress of temptation to take a contrary course devotes his millions to the good of his less fortunate fellow men, and the author has shown the exaltation of such a course and deepens the interest in her story by telling how Immanuel won his unsympathetic wife to his life of sacrifice. The scenes, many of which are dramatic, alternate between country and city. The situations sparkle with humor and glow with pathos. 12mo, Cloth, 386 pp., ornamental covers, illustrated. $1.50.

The story is full of the power and charm of true fiction, having a strong heart interest, and a plot of subtle and convincing character. It is finely written, too.—Philadelphia Item.

It is written with a peculiar magnetic power which holds the reader so long as the story's current flows.—The St. Paul Pioneer-Press.

This is a pure, wholesome story written in a simple style. It is permeated by a noble spirit, and its teachings are the highest.—The Arena, New York.

Mrs. Kingsley is a most fascinating story-teller, and her book has many interesting characters and dramatic scenes.—The Epworth Herald, Chicago.

The Transfiguration of Miss Philura (see Hour-Glass Series.)

This clever story is based on the theory that every physical need and every desire of the heart can be claimed and received from the "Encircling Good" by the true believer. Miss Philura is enchanted with this creed, adopts it literally, and obtains thereby various blessings of particular value to a timid spinster, including a husband. Small 12mo, Cloth, 81 pp., Hour-Glass Series edition. 40 cents.

It is a dainty little story, and quite out of the common.—Daily Evening Telegraph, Phila.

Very bright and captivating.—Brooklyn Eagle.

The story is very bright, cheery, and original. —Presbyter-Herald, Cincinnati, O.

A precious little story that leaves a pleasant memory.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

It is delicious reading. A delicate and demure humor is its dominant characteristic.—St. Louis Republic.

This delightful little book ought to be read aloud that it may contribute to the common enjoyment of the family. It is too good to be enjoyed selfishly alone.—Christian Register, Boston.

Memories of My Exile

Translated by Ferencz Jausz. Two vols. 4to, Paper. Each, 20 cents.

Kurtz, Prof. John H.

Church History ‡

Translated and edited by Rev. John Macpherson, M.A., and specially revised by the author. In three volumes. 12mo, Cloth, 1,650 pp. $2.00 per volume.

Kurtz's "Church History" is a work of high scholarship, thorough grasp of details, and especially adapted as a text-book for historical students.—Prof. Henry A. Buttz, D.D., Pres. Drew Theological Seminary.

It is the one book of the kind adapted for present use. It is not meant for the general reader, who needs to be interested, but for the student, who desires information, and is glad to have it in the most compressed form, and he who goes to it with this aim will not be disappointed. He will find the chief events of each age, its chief writers, the list of their works, the changes in doctrine and discipline, the developments of ritual.—The Spectator, London.

Kuyper, Abraham, D.D., LL.D., M.P.

The Work of the Holy Spirit

This work practically constitutes an encyclopedia of inspiration and discussion on the Holy Spirit. It embraces a comprehensive survey of the entire system of Christian faith and teaching. It emphasizes the immense importance and the personal efficacy of the work of the Holy Spirit, and points out that this is the heart and soul of the Church. While the subject is a profound and philosophical one, the book is written in clear and simple language, easily comprehensible to both laity and clergy. The discussion is sincere and direct. Translated by Rev. Henri de Vries. Introduction by Prof. B. B. Warfield. 8vo, Cloth, 703 pp. $3.00.

It is abreast of the latest discussions in both exegetical and philosophical fields of research and thought. It breathes everywhere the upper ozone of spiritual life.—Joseph Cook, D.D., LL.D.

No other work more timely and none so complete on the subject has been issued in this country.—S. M. Woodbridge, D.D., LL.D., Ref. Theol. Sem., New Brunswick, N. J.

Its fulness of treatment, careful analysis, and a deep spiritual insight make it invaluable in the promotion of the Christian life.—Pres. Henry A. Buttz, D.D., LL.D., Drew Theol. Sem.

I consider this the most important work which has appeared in the line of evangelical orthodox religion for a quarter of a century.—Prof. Jacob Cooper, D.D., LL.D., Rutgers College.

Laidlaw, John, D.D.

The Miracles of Our Lord ‡

The story of the miracles, their relations to one another, and the lessons to be derived from them as a whole. 8vo, Cloth, 384 pp. $1.75.

It is for directly practical uses, giving new insight, throwing new lights, and calculated to quicken faith and devotion.—The Mid-Continent, St. Louis.

Wall Street in History

Its history from 1647 down to the present with chapters on: Original Site; Gradual Development, 1647–1774; Revolution; Political, Social Importance, 1774–1830; The Great Money Center, 1830–present times. 4to, Cloth, 95 pp., illustrated. $2.00.

This book gives in concise, popular, and authentic form the most notable events which from colonial times have made this locality famous.—The Christian Advocate, New York.

Lancaster, A. E. (see Vincent and Lancaster).

Lathbury, Clarence

The Being with the Upturned Face

The author's purpose is to present man in his true nature as a being transitional between the animal and the spiritual. Insistence is made that man is fundamentally, because physically, an animal; but that he has a face upturned to the Infinite. 12mo, Cloth, 197 pp., uncut edges, gilt top. $1.00.

It is a book for those who think and feel. It is written with rare insight and a fine freshness of phrase. It is a book of common sense, inspiration, and vision.—Edwin Markham.

Lathrop, George Parsons

True

And Other Stories. 12mo, Cloth, 270 pp., $1.00; Paper, 25 cents.

Mr. Lathrop has woven a tale of abiding interest and of much dramatic power. The story is simple, but romantic. The narrative is well sustained, the incidents exciting.—The Washington Post.

Lefroy, William, D.D.

The Christian Ministry ‡

Lectures delivered before the University of Dublin on the origin, constitution, nature, and work of the Christian ministry. 8vo, Cloth, 583 pp. $3.00.

. . . These discourses show ripe scholarship, and a thorough mastery of materials by which a judgment is to be formed.—The Scotsman.

Leland, Charles Godfrey, Hon. F.R.S.L., M.A.

The Alternate Sex ‡

Or, The Female Intellect in Man, and the Masculine in Woman. The theory of the work is that the fundamental intelligence of the two sexes is radically different or corresponding to their physical creation and development, and the author argues that, while man could not write anything "truly original" or beautifully varied without something feminine in his nature, woman could not "create mentally and vigorously" without something masculine in hers. 12mo, Cloth, $1.00.

It is excellent reading, full of the fruits of keen observation.—Evening Sun, New York.

A most quaint book is this. . . . It is charming.—The Minneapolis Times.

Leland, Charles Godfrey, Hon. F.R.S.L., M.A., and Prince, John Dyneley, Ph.D.

Kuloskap, the Master, with Other Algonkin Legends and Poems

Indian legends and stories of fairies, witches, animals, love, the hunt, and nature, told in epic and lyric form, and full of imagination, quaint philosophy, and nature description. Profusely illustrated with half-tones by F. Berkeley Smith, ten birch-bark tracings by Prof. Leland after Indian designs, and a frontispiece in color by Edwin Willard Deming. 12mo, Cloth, 370 pp., ornamental covers. $2.00.

Nothing more fascinating has come out of bookland this season than "Kuloskap." It is the most novel book of the season, and one of the most entertaining. Its appeal is universal. Children will like it; so will grown men and women. It is destined to become one of the classics of the land.—The Cleveland Leader.

The legends collectively may be regarded as an epic, a grand Indian poem, embodying the religious system of the Algonkins, their ideas of the Deity, of the creation of the world and its inhabitants, both men and beasts, of the cosmic struggle between light and darkness, between good and evil, between the gods and the devils, between Kuloskap, the Master, and Masulum, the spirit of evil.—The Philadelphia Evening Telegraph.

Too much praise can not be accorded to Mr. Leland for his services in rescuing from too nearly complete oblivion the legends of the American Indians. The field is most rich and of an engrossing interest.—The Brooklyn Times.

A fascinating book.—The Chicago Daily News.

Lovers of folk-lore and students of our own Indian legends in particular will find a treasure in this book. Apart from its interest as a contribution to our knowledge of Indian folk-lore, this book deserves notice for the genuine poetic value of the stories it contains.—Mail and Express, New York.

This is an exceedingly interesting book. It is the American Indian's "King Arthur's Round Table," "Robin Hood," and "The Arabian Nights." I am glad that Mr. Leland has found some one to put his legends in lasting form.—Dan Beard.

My feeling to the authors for this work is the same as it would be toward some heroic fireman who had rushed to the burning Louvre and, at the last moment, rescued the Mona Lisa, the Gobelin Boarhunt, or the Man with the Glove; but for him the world would have lost something priceless, unique, and irreplaceable.—Ernest Thompson Seton, the eminent artist and author of animal stories.

Leonard, Rev. D. L.

A Hundred Years of Missions (Revised Edition).

A complete history of the incidents and lessons of missions and missionary work in every land since Carey began his labors. 12mo, Cloth, 455 pp. $1.20.

The book should go into every Sunday-school and church library, and many a home will also welcome it.—The Congregationalist, Boston.

It is a complete, adequate, and invigorating review of the history from the first, without overlooking those fundamental principles which are the inspiring philosophy of the whole. It is just the book to place in the hands of young Christians, and for use in Christian Endeavor meetings and the monthly concert.—The Independent, New York.

The pages glow with the descriptions of the advancing kingdom and the glory of the Lord.—Zion's Herald, Boston.

To all who wish a comprehensive survey of the mission field, to all individuals and classes and societies that are making systematic studies along this line, and to all lovers of the kingdom of God and the heroic in men this book is most emphatically and cordially recommended.—Christian Endeavor World, Boston.

Letters from Heaven ‡

Companion to "Letters from Hell." Supposed to have been written by a mother in heaven to her son on earth. 12mo, Cloth, 272 pp. $1.00.

The style accomplished, the pictures are beautifully drawn.—Scotsman, Edinburgh.

Letters from Hell ‡

Letters supposed to have been written by a man of the world in hell to those on earth. With a preface by George MacDonald, LL.D. 12mo, Cloth, 360 pp. $1.00.

A remarkable writing in the vividness of its pictures and descriptions.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

The Royal Houses of Israel and Judah

It is the first and only interwoven history of this period, containing all of the two Kings, the two Samuels, and the two Chronicles (except Genealogies in I. Chronicles), and parts of four other books arranged in one comprehensive story of the Hebrew monarchy. It is the only harmony of parallel passages arranged in parallel columns line by line, showing to the eye, by blank spaces and parentheses, the omissions, variations, and disagreements of the different accounts. It is the first and only combination of interwoven history and harmony on opposite pages corresponding to each other line for line. The student can, by glancing at the opposite page, substantiate and verify the history that is interwoven from the variant sources in each separate paragraph or sentence. 8vo, Cloth, 355 pp. $3.00.

The general arrangement of the book will make it especially valuable to all Biblical students, as well as interesting for the general reader.—Brooklyn Eagle.

The volume altogether is an important contribution to Biblical literature.—The Presbyterian, Philadelphia.

This is a really valuable work to any one that wishes to get a clear idea of the period of Bible history which it covers.—Pittsburg Christian Advocate.

It seems to me that such a work as this is as helpful to the study of the Old Testament as the harmony of the Gospels is to the study of the New Testament.—G. L. Chamberlin, Secretary of the American Institute of Sacred Literature.

It will be very helpful in the understanding of an era of history greatly bejumbled in the minds of many.—The Christian Advocate, Detroit, Mich.

Loisette, Prof. A.

Assimilative Memory; or, How to Attend and Never Forget *

The complete Loisette memory system is embraced in this volume. This system has been indorsed by prominent educators and by professional, scientific, and business men in all parts of the world. Its aim is to increase the power of memory in much the same proportion as the power of the eye for vision is increased by means of the microscope and telescope. 12mo, Cloth, 170 pp. $2.50, net.

I have no hesitation in commending Professor Loisette's system to all who are in earnest in wishing to train their memories effectively.—Richard A. Proctor, the Eminent Astronomer.

Professor Loisette's system is, in all its essential features, entirely original. I consider it to be a new departure in the education of the memory and attention, and of very great value.—Dr. W. A. Hammond, Specialist in Brain Diseases.

Professor Loisette greatly strengthened my natural memory. . . . —William Waldorf Astor.

You have taught me how to memorize at a single perusal what I formerly could only learn by a series of endless repetitions.—Francis Wilson, the Actor.

Thanks to your method, I learned the signification of about 2,000 English words in less than a month!—Don Luis, Villaverde, Havana, Cuba.

Lombroso, Prof. Cesare (see "Criminology," under MacDonald, Arthur).

Long, Rev. J.

Eastern Proverbs and Emblems

Moral and religious proverbs and emblems illustrating old truths. 8vo, Cloth, 294 pp., $1.00; Paper, 50 cents.

The proverbs are well chosen, and are of decided value. They are wonderful condensations of wisdom.—The Christian Advocate, New York.

Lossing, Benson J., LL.D.

Hours with Living Men and Women of the Revolution

Chats on the incidents and people of the American Revolution. Illustrated. 12mo, Cloth, 247 pp. $1.50.

A valuable contribution to the history of the Revolution.—The Sun, New York.

The Empire State

A history of the Commonwealth of New York. 335 Illustrations. 8vo, Cloth, 638 pp., $5.00; Sheep, $6.50.

Love, William De Loss

Future Probation Examined

An exhaustive discussion of the subject. 12mo, Cloth, 333 pp. $1.50.

This is a volume of distinct and very great value.—The Advance, Chicago.

Luckenbach, W. H., D.D.

Song Stories for Little People

A collection of poetry for young folks. 12mo, Cloth, 300 pp. $1.00.

MacAlpine, Avery

Teresa Itasca ‡

And other stories. Bound in a novel binding. 12mo, Cloth, 289 pp. $1.00.

It is a tragic tale, touchingly and pathetically told.—London Times.

MacArthur, R. S., D.D.

Calvary Pulpit

Or Christ, and Him Crucified; a volume of sermons. 12mo, Cloth, 294 pp. $1.00.

Will be welcome to Christians of different denominations.—The Cincinnati Enquirer.

Macaulay, Thomas B.

Essays ‡

Eight essays by Lord Macaulay, including Milton, Dryden, the Athenian Orators, History, Johnson (2 essays), Bunyan, Montgomery's Poems. 4to, Paper, 64 pp. 15 cents.

McCarthy, Justin

Ireland and Her Story ‡

In his concise, graceful style the gifted author tells the complete story of the Irish people from the earliest traditions of their origin to the present day. It is a story throbbing with human passions, narrating the hatreds, sufferings, oppressions, and struggles of centuries, yet always preserving a fair, unprejudiced attitude toward the conflicting forces. 16mo, Cloth, 190 pp., with map. $1.00.

His story is as fascinating as a novel; it has the sweep of history and the actuality of good newspaper work. And this is done—a graphic illuminated history of Ireland given—in less than 200 pages.—The Cleveland Leader.

A model of lucid condensation. . . . This little volume contains all—literally all—the information that the average man needs to acquire a thorough knowledge of the history of Ireland.—Mail and Express, New York.

McCray, Florine Thayer

The Life Work of the Author of Uncle Tom's Cabin

Written by permission of Mrs. Stowe, with assistance of her son, Rev. C. E. Stowe. Illustrated. 12mo, Cloth, 450 pp. $2.00.

It contains much curious and valuable information now published for the first time, and is written in an easy and popular style that makes it especially entertaining.—Times-Star, Cincinnati.

MacDonald, Arthur

Criminology

This work presents a psychological and scientific study of criminals with relation to psychical and physical types, and deduces practical conclusions. The volume contains an extensive bibliography of books and articles, in the several languages, on crime. With introduction by Prof. Cesare Lombroso, of the University of Turin. 12mo, Cloth, 416 pp. $2.00.

This work is thoroughly readable and instructive. All classes of professional men may read and study it with profit.—Christian Standard, Cincinnati.

Scientific in its exactness and order, but not technical in its manner of addressing the reader. All classes of students and inquirers must be interested.—The Brooklyn Times, N. Y.

I am using it in my class for a work of reference.—Chas. Richmond Henderson, Recorder, University of Chicago.

The volume is to such an extent popular in treatment that it will appeal to the layman as well as to the student.—The Boston Times.

We have read the book with profit.—New York Herald.

It is not only a recital, a classification, and investigation of crime in a remarkably lucid order, but virtually a deep insight into human nature. It is at once a manual for freshest reference and food for soberest thought.—The Apostolic Guide, Louisville, Ky.

MacDonald, George, LL.D. (see also "Letters from Hell").

God's Words to His Children ‡

A volume of sermons. 12mo, Cloth, 292 pp. $1.50.

They flow sweetly along, as crystal streams from a full fountain, and the reader is borne along irresistibly but pleasantly onward from beginning to end, and closes the volume having stamped in his memory many a thing of beauty to be a joy forever.—National Baptist, Phila.

The author is one of the most independent of thinkers, and he evidently purposes to set his readers thinking for themselves rather than to insist that they adopt his conclusions.—Congregationalist, Boston.

One is struck by the fine-fibered common sense and the pictorial and reasoning power.—The Advance, Chicago.

MacDonald, Robert

The Herr Doctor (see "Hour-Glass Stories").

McElrath, Frances

The Rustler

This is a story of ranch life, full of dash and adventure of cowboy exploits, and giving a graphic picture of scenes on the range. Illustrated. 12mo, Cloth, 425 pp. $1.20.

In its sweeping breeziness it suggests Bret Harte. There is sentiment without sentimentality; there is romance, but it is romance amid the clang of labor.—The Christian Guardian, Toronto.

Maclaren, Alexander, D.D. (see also under Carlile).

Sermons ‡

Dr. Maclaren is considered to be the most eminent pulpit orator in England, and as to the character of his preaching so eminent an authority as Rev. Hugh Price Hughes declares him to be "supreme as the highest exponent from the pulpit of the spoken word." This work includes: The Victor's Crowns; Triumphant Certainties; Christ in the Heart; A Year's Ministry (First Series); A Year's Ministry (Second Series); Manchester Sermons (First Series); Manchester Sermons (Second Series); Manchester Sermons (Third Series); The Secret of Power; Week-Day Evening Addresses. 8vo, Cloth, 10 volumes. $1.50 per volume.

To praise his sermons is like applauding a sunset.—Arthur T. Pierson, D.D.

There are much freshness and suggestiveness in these pages. Dr. Maclaren has studied the art of compression with great success.—The Glasgow Herald.

Dr. Maclaren's charming pages furnish a most fruitful field of study alike for those whose chief aim is personal edification and for those who are in quest of suggestions in the mind of ministerial service.—United Presbyterian Magazine.

MacManus, Anna (Ethna Carbery) (Wife of Seumas MacManus)

In the Celtic Past ‡

A book dealing with Irish mythology and folk-lore, and which recounts the wonderful and chivalrous doings of ancient kings and warriors of Ireland; magic swords, the miraculous "quicken-tree" grown from a fairy seed, and many other wonderful things are to be found here. 12mo, Cloth. 75 cents.

The stories glow with warm color and throb with chivalrous action and exciting adventure.—Examiner, Chicago.

The Four Winds of Eirinn ‡

A dainty volume of verse that has received most enthusiastic commendation from critics. As a minstrel of the Irish race Miss Carbery ranks almost in the same class with Mr. Yeats and "A. E." Her poems lie close to the heart, and lift the veil of Irish sorrow only to reveal the rainbow gleam of Irish hope. 12mo, Cloth. 75 cents.

From first to last there is in it the Gaelic note so distinctive from any other note; here Ethna Carbery is Irish in a sense in which the other women poets of her hour and nation can not claim to be.—Fortnightly Review, London.

It is not easy to name a new or a late poet—and perhaps none since Jean Ingelow—whose verse is so essentially melodious as Ethna Carbery's.—New York Times.

The Passionate Hearts ‡

Six beautiful Irish love stories including: "The Passionate Hearts of Inisgloir"; "The Men of the Music"; "The Wee Gray Woman"; "The Singing Women of Tory"; "Sorcha Ruadh's Troubles," and "By the Misty Burn." 12mo, Cloth, 127 pp. 75 cents.

Tenderness and intense love are everywhere apparent in her stories.—Daily Chronicle, London.

It is magically appealing.—Morning Advertiser.

Every page reveals the tender touches, the subtle sympathy characteristic of all her work.—Donahoe's Magazine.

MacManus, Seumas

The Red Poocher ‡

In a story bubbling over with genuine Irish wit are told the varied experiences of an ingenious poacher who succeeded in boldly hoodwinking four gamekeepers and shooting over the same estate as many different seasons. 12mo, Cloth, 130 pp., ornamental cover, frontispiece. 75 cents.

The interest is aroused alike by the ingenuity and boldness of the depredator and by the naïveté and humor of the victimized gamekeeper.—Baltimore American.

The poacher is a real genius of a daredevil, and these rollicking tales, each with a surprise at the end like the snap of a steel spring, are well worth reading.—Pittsburg Gazette.

Magnus, Dr. Hugo

Superstition in Medicine **

Translated from the German by Dr. Julius L. Salinger. Gives a history of the erroneous ideas and fanciful beliefs that have prevailed in the world with regard to sickness and its cure. Instructive and abounds in curious information. 12mo, Cloth. $1.00, net; by mail, $1.10.

Martyn, Carlos, D.D.

"American Reformers" Series, The (for titles of the series see page 1)

Christian Citizenship

Practical talks on the great issues of citizenship which especially command present thought and attention. With an appendix containing a collection of corroborative material. 12mo, Cloth, 224 pp., 75 cents; Paper, 25 cents.

It deals with the deep, vital issues which confront us to-day as a people and as a nation. Not a word is wasted; not a sentence that is not straight to the point.—Methodist Recorder.

The book impresses one as a careful and thoughtful work, and its views are worthy the attention of all, and will find thousands of hearty supporters.—Hartford Post.

John B. Gough: The Apostle of Cold Water

Vol. XI. of "American Reformers" Series. Portrait. 12mo, Cloth, 336 pp. $1.50.

There is not a dull, uninteresting thought throughout the book.—Baltimore American.

His life story has a peculiar interest in itself.—Zion's Herald, Boston.

Wendell Phillips: The Agitator

Vol. I. of "American Reformers" Series. With an appendix containing three of Mr. Phillips' most eloquent speeches. 12mo, Cloth, 600 pp., with portrait. $1.50.

Such a book ought to kindle every manly heart into a fresher endeavor of devotion to all noble efforts for his country and his fellow men.—Hon. Wm. M. Evarts.

A very discriminating study of the most eloquent man produced in this country in a century. —Chauncey M. Depew.

William E. Dodge: The Christian Merchant

Vol. III. of "American Reformers" Series. Portrait. 12mo, Cloth, 349 pp. $1.50.

Sparkling and inviting from beginning to end. . . . Reads like a romance.—The Mid-Continent.

There is not a dull page in it nor is it extravagant.—The Congregationalist, Boston.

Mathews, Frances Aymar

The Marquise's Millions **

This new novel by the author of "My Lady Peggy Goes to Town" tells an amusing story of Americans in France. The plot is sparkling, the situations well developed and unique, and it has pronounced originality. 12mo, Cloth, frontispiece. $1.00, net; by mail, $1.09.

Maude, Aylmer (see also under Tolstoy, Count Leo)

A Peculiar People—The Doukhobors ‡

The author in this volume gives for the first time a full and impartial history and description of this remarkable people. The illustrations are made from photographs taken among the Doukhobors. Crown 8vo, Cloth, 338 pp., 15 full-page half-tone illustrations, 2 maps. $1.50, net; by mail, $1.67.

An extremely interesting study of what may be emphatically called . . . "a peculiar people."—The Outlook, New York.

Tolstoy and His Problems ‡

Each essay in this volume expresses, in one form or other, Tolstoy's view of life; and the main object of the book is not to praise his views, but to explain them. Being the only Englishman who, in recent years, has had the advantage of intimate personal intercourse, continued over a period of some years, with Tolstoy, Mr. Maude is well qualified for his present work. 12mo, Cloth, 226 pp. $1.00.

I very much approve of it. It is admirably constructed, and what is most important is given.—Leo Tolstoy (of the first essay, a short biography of himself).

Maybrick, Florence Elizabeth

Mrs. Maybrick's Own Story **

This book, written by Mrs. Maybrick's own hand, contains the first and only complete account of the awful fifteen years' suffering endured by her in an English prison. It gives an account of her trial, of what preceded her trial, her family life, and her experience in prison. The book is of thrilling interest. 12mo, Cloth. 16 half-tone illustrations. $1.20, net; by mail, $1.31. Subscription edition, handsomely bound, wide margins, photogravure portrait of Mrs. Maybrick; each copy signed separately by her with her own hand. $2.00.

I was in London during Mrs. Maybrick's trial, and I followed it closely as reported in the papers. I did not believe her guilty. I think her case most pitiable. I now order from you six copies of her book in advance.—Rev. Minot J. Savage, D.D., New York.

Of fascinating interest.—St. Louis Star.

Mazzini, Joseph

The Duties of Man

A reprint of the great Italian patriot's essay, treating the ethics of labor, addressed by the author to workingmen. Manila covers. 12mo, 145 pp. 15 cents.

A mine of suggestion for writers and speakers on the ethics of labor.—Religious Telescope, Dayton.

Full of thought and suggestion.—Christian Advocate, Raleigh.

Missions, The New Encyclopedia of **

Twelve years ago we published the Encyclopedia of Missions, and it was immediately accepted as the most useful authority on this subject in existence. So rapid and remarkable have been the changes in the vast enterprise of missions that this work is now lacking in a vast quantity of valuable material and is out of date. The New Encyclopedia provides in compact and accessible form all the essential facts on the history of missions, past and present; the climate, features, etc., of every mission field on the globe; full information on the races and tribes reached by present-day missionary enterprise—their customs, languages, religious beliefs, and observances—the modern improvements in missionary methods, and the ever-widening indirect relations and results of missions. It was prepared under the direction of the Bureau of Missions: H. O. Dwight, LL.D., Editor-in-Chief; H. Allen Tupper, Jr., D.D., and E. M. Bliss, D.D., Associate Editors. Special articles on different phases of the mission movement have been prepared by many distinguished and widely known experts on the subject. One substantial volume. Cloth, 865 pp., $6.00, net; Half Leather, $10.00, net; post-paid, 50c. extra.

It is absolutely indispensable to every student of missions, and this should include every pastor.—Luther D. Wishard (late Agent of the American Board).

There is no other encyclopedic work on missions that can begin to compare with it.—Harlan P. Beach, Secretary Student Volunteer Movement for Foreign Missions.

Missionary Review of the World, The

An illustrated monthly magazine furnishing an attractive and authentic record of the progress, stirring events, striking incidents, and statistics of the world's missions. Editor-in-Chief, Arthur T. Pierson, D.D.; Associate Editors, J. T. Gracey, D.D., President of the International Missionary Union, N. Y.; D. L. Leonard, D.D., Author of "A Hundred Years of Missions," etc.; Rev. F. B. Meyer, London, England; Rev. Henry Otis Dwight, LL.D.; Rev. H. Allen Tupper, D.D.; and Rev. Wm. I. Haven, D.D., of the Bureau of Missions; Managing Editor, D. L. Pierson. 8vo, 80 pp. Subscription, $2.50 per year; $2.00 in clubs of 10 or more. Single copies, 25 cents. Bound volumes for 1888–1893, $2.50 each; volumes for 1894–1904, $3.00 each. Covers for binding, 50 cents each.

THE MISSIONARY REVIEW has staff correspondents in every field of missionary activity. Its aim is to provide the best records of mission achievements, the strongest motives to all Christian work, and the ripest opinion on missionary topics. All vital features of home and foreign missions receive full and prompt attention in its pages, with illustrated articles from well-known authorities. It is undenominational and is issued monthly.

No one who desires to hold in bird's-eye view the movement which the militant Church at large is making upon the enemy's territory can afford to dispense with THE MISSIONARY REVIEW OF THE WORLD.—Charles H. Parkhurst, D.D., N. Y.

There is nothing equal to it within my knowledge in the entire field of missions.—Herrick Johnson, D.D., President McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago.

Missionary Picture Postal Cards

A set of 32 handsomely illustrated Picture Postals showing curious and interesting scenes from the far corners of the world. These cards will be found a popular novelty for arousing interest in mission work. Space is left on each card for a personal or printed message or announcement. It abounds in anecdote and description and is fully illustrated.—Detroit Free Press.

Moon, Geo. Washington, F.R.S.L.

The Reviser's English ‡

A series of criticisms, showing the reviser's violation of the laws of the language. 12mo, Paper, 96 pp. 20 cents.

This pungent volume is by one of the keenest and most accurate of critics. He scarcely makes a point that is not well taken.—The Christian Guardian, Toronto.

Morel, Edmund D. ("E. D. M.")

King Leopold's Rule in Africa ‡

Within the covers of this book is one of the most terrible indictments of so-called civilization ever presented to the world. The workings of the new slave-trade system are laid bare. As the New York Evening Post says, "The mass of evidence the author has accumulated is simply appalling in its implications. Only a part of it, when brought out in a debate in the House of Commons, was enough to cause the adoption of a resolution that the fearful abuses in the Congo Free State ought to be inquired into by civilized nations. To promote and make effective such an inquiry is the great aim of this book. It is a perfect arsenal of weapons against the exploiters and enslavers and torturers and murderers of the natives along the Congo." Large 8vo, Cloth, 490 pp., photogravure frontispiece, 26 half-tone illustrations, 2 maps. $3.75, net; by mail, $3.91.

A trenchant, powerful, and impressive indictment.—The Liverpool Courier.

If ever a book called for an answer, it is this.—The Sunday Times, London.

Will have its effect upon public opinion and upon our government.—Manchester Guardian.

It is time for civilization to interfere.—The Spectator.

Morgan, Rev. Vyrnwy

The Cambro-American Pulpit

Thirty-two sermons from representative Welsh-American preachers, with portraits and biographies. 8vo, Cloth, 611 pp., rough edges, gilt top. $2.00.

No other Cambro-American book has been issued equally well in style and letters.—Unity, Chicago.

India; What Can It Teach Us? ‡

A course of lectures delivered before the University of Cambridge. Text and footnotes complete. 12mo, Cloth, 282 pp., $1.00; Paper, 25 cents.

A vast storehouse of information on the ancient history of India and its people.—The Interior, Chicago.

Murphy, James G., D.D.

Commentary on Exodus ‡

Critical and exegetical, with a new translation. Unabridged edition, with preface and notes by John Hall, D.D. 233 pp., 1 vol., Cloth, $1.50; 2 vols., Paper, $1.00.

Thus far nothing has appeared for half a century on the Pentateuch so valuable as the present volume (on Exodus). His style is lucid, animated, and often eloquent. His pages afford golden suggestions and key-thoughts. . . .—Methodist Quarterly Review, New York.

Musick, John R.

Hawaii: Our New Possessions

A description of the people, customs, institutions, education, trade, natural wonders, history, etc., of the Hawaiian Islands. 100 half-tone illustrations. Border decorations by Philip E. Flintoff, pen sketches by Freeland A. Carter. 8vo, Cloth, cover design, 546 pp., $2.75; Half Morocco, gilt edges, $4.00.

From the descriptions and beautiful illustrations one seems transported to the shores of sweet breezes and lofty peaks—the paradise of the Pacific.—The Record, Philadelphia.

The volume gives the reader a better idea of Hawaii than any before published. Superb illustrations almost tell the story without the aid of the entertaining text.—The Inter Ocean, Chicago.

"The Columbian Historical Novels" are really one of the most beautiful productions of the American press I have seen. The idea in writing them is certainly a most patriotic one. . . . A pleasure conferred upon those who may be so fortunate as to possess the work.—William McKinley, Late President of the United States.

May I also express my appreciation of "The Columbian Historical Novels." I have been much interested in the volumes. The author seems to me to have accomplished his purpose very successfully.—Timothy Dwight, D.D., LL.D.

Breathe with life and fascinating interest.—Methodist Review, Pittsburg.

They possess universal interest, and they tell the story of the New World in a unique, pleasant, and instructive manner.—Hon. Levi P. Morton.

Imagination enters into the narrative, and reports conversations at courts, at convents, and on shipboard, but it plays no pranks with biography and history, and it takes no liberties with accepted facts.—Home Journal, New York.

We recommend these books to teachers of American history.—Review of Reviews, N. Y.

Full of stir and movement.—N. Y. Tribune.

Myers, Rev. Cortland

The Lost Wedding Ring

Nine heart-to-heart talks on the beauties and possibilities of married life, and also on its snares and pitfalls, frank, common-sense, breezy. 16mo, Cloth, 181 pp. 75 cents.

It abounds in interesting word-pictures, in perfect keeping with the sacredness and beauty of the theme.—The Watchword, Dayton, Ohio.

The whole subject of marriage is discussed in a most practical and helpful manner.—Pittsburg Christian Advocate.

Why Men Do Not Go to Church

A discussion of the causes for non-churchgoing from the standpoints of the Church, the man, and society. 16mo, Cloth, 160 pp. 60 cents.

The author has made an earnest study of this important subject, and he treats it with courage and directness.—Lutheran Observer, Phila.

The arraignment of the faults of the church is frank and candid and all too pertinent.—Detroit Free Press.

Or, Facts That Are Not Fictions in the Life of an Unknown. By "A Nobody." A treatise, under guise of fiction, on applied Christianity. 12mo, Cloth, 290 pp. $1.25.

O'Donovan, Edmond

Story of the Merv ‡

A story of adventures and captivity, epitomized from "The Merv Oasis." 12mo, Cloth, 313 pp., $1.00; Paper, 25 cents.

Places the author in the very front rank of explorers, who to indomitable pluck adds the invaluable gift of brilliant literary powers.—The Standard, London.

Oehler, Dr. Gustav Friedrich

Theology of the Old Testament ‡

A scholarly and comprehensive exposition. Edited by Prof. Geo. E. Day, D.D., of Yale University. 8vo, Cloth, 613 pp. $3.00.

Oehler's "Theology of the Old Testament" has for a generation been considered as at the head of all treatises on the subject—a subject which just now has assumed unusual prominence, especially to those who are persuaded that the Old Testament and the New stand or fall together.—T. W. Chambers, D.D.

Oehler represents the best results of the study of "Progress of Doctrine in the Old Testament," and prepares the way for the construction of Biblical theology proper, in the unity of a system founded on theological principles, viz.: the relations of divine self-manifestations, and communications, and operations throughout the period of the history of revelation to the ends of revelation.—Joseph T. Duryea, D.D., Boston.

This elaborate work of Dr. Oehler is one of the most valuable in modern theological literature, and is frequently cited as a standard of the highest authority.—The Lutheran Observer, Philadelphia.

In this volume the author has gathered the best results of the studies of this generation on the doctrinal teaching of the Old Testament.—The Central Christian Advocate, St. Louis.

Ohnet, Georges

In Deep Abyss ‡

A story the scenes of which are laid in Paris, San Francisco, London, and elsewhere. The plot of the story reveals a sensational instance of legal error. Translated by Fred. Rothwell. 12mo, Cloth, 421 pp., frontispiece. $1.20.

No work in recent years surpasses this story in intense dramatic interest.—The Springfield Union.

Older, Mrs. Fremont

The Socialist and the Prince

A powerful and dramatic story of California life during the seventies. Frontispiece by Harrison Fisher. 12mo, Cloth, 309 pp. $1.50.

It is new in conception, dramatic in incident, and tense in feeling and expression.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Ormiston, Wm., D.D.

Commentary on the Acts of the Apostles (see Meyer's Commentary).

Padovan, Adolfo

The Sons of Glory ‡

A study of genius as manifested in the world's greatest poets, artists, philosophers, prophets, scientists, and explorers. Translated from the Italian by Duchess Litta Visconti Avese. 12mo, Cloth, 306 pp. $1.50.

The volume is fascinating.—Toledo Blade.

Palmer, John Williamson

For Charlie's Sake, and Other Lyrics and Ballads

Sixteen poems embracing lyrics of pathos and sentiment and ballads of war. Notable among them are For Charlie's Sake, The Maryland Battalion, Theodosia Burr, Reid at Fayal, The Fight at the San Jacinto, Stonewall Jackson's Way, Oranje Boven, The Christmas Child, A Song for a Lamb, A Ballad of Injin Ink. 12mo, Cloth, deckle edges, gilt top, 95 pp., ornamental cover. $1.00.

Dr. Palmer, as a balladist, shines with a brilliance not excelled by any ballad-writer of our time—good, straight, strong ballad-writing, the sort of thing that sets the blood of man tingling, and makes him think that it is good to be an American.—N. Y. Times Saturday Review.

Parker, Joseph, D.D.

Ingersoll Answered ‡

"What must I do to be saved?" 8vo, Paper, 28 pp. 15 cents.

One of the most valuable productions in answer to Ingersoll.—Northwestern Christian Advocate.

Job's Comforters ‡

Or, Scientific Sympathy. A religious satire on Huxley, Mill, and Tyndall. 12mo, Paper, 21 pp. 10 cents.

Studies in Texts ‡

Six volumes containing new sermons, outlines, suggestions, etc., designed to be of value to preachers, Bible students, teachers, and other active religious workers, and useful for home and family readings. 6 vols., 12mo, Cloth. $1.50 per vol.

They are marked by all the doctor's originality, his fine spiritual insight, majesty of expression, wealth of illustration, and forcefulness of application. Preachers of the gospel can not do better than add this book to their libraries.—Primitive Methodist.

The secret of Dr. Parker's success as a preacher appears plainly in these simple and direct studies.—The Academy.

They are varied in subject and length of treatment; they are such as to stir the reader's soul; they abound in points which are strong in the author.—Local Preachers' Magazine.

The peculiar merits of the great preacher, his grand outspokenness, and his width and depth of thought are manifest here as elsewhere.—Irish Presbyterian.

The People's Bible ‡

A distinctly pastoral exposition, analyzing and applying the spiritual significance of the Scriptures, and aiming to fortify its readers with the Bible's choicest wisdom. Each volume complete in itself. In 28 volumes. 8vo, Cloth. $1.50 per vol.

FEATURES OF THE WORK AND ARRANGEMENT OF THE VOLUMES.

In the ordinary sense of the term the "People's Bible" is not a Biblical Commentary. The scope is broader. It is a work not only for the minister and student, but for the people. It is not intended to take the place of verbal or critical commentaries. It is not a series of sermons. There are no sermons, as such, in the entire work. The volumes are arranged as follows: 1. Genesis; 2. Exodus; 3. Leviticus–Numbers, xxv.; 4. Numbers, xxvi.–Deuteronomy; 5. Joshua–Judges, v.; 6. Judges, vi.–I Samuel, xvii.; 7. I. Samuel, xviii.–I. Kings, xiii.; 8. I. Kings, xv.–I. Chronicles, ix.; 9. I. Chronicles, x.–II. Chronicles, xx.; 10. II. Chronicles, xxi.–Esther; 11. Job; 12. The Psalms; 13. Proverbs; 14. Ecclesiastes–Isaiah, xxvi.; 15. Isaiah, xxvii.–Jeremiah, xix.; 16. Jeremiah, xx.–Daniel; 17. Hosea–Malachi; 18, 19, 20. Matthew; 21. Mark–Luke; 22. John; 23, 24, 25. The Acts; 26. Romans–Corinthians–Galatians; 27. Ephesians–Revelation; 28. Index Volume to the entire work.

This work will prove a treasury for sermon-makers.—The Churchman, New York.

New glimpses of truth will delight the reader in every section of the work.—The Congregationalist.

Almost every sentence in this great work glows with intense spiritual light, and burns its way to the very center of life.—The Reformed Church Messenger, Philadelphia.

The work is not laid out on the plan of other Bible interpreters. . . . His teaching is at times thrilling by his graphic delineations.—The Outlook, New York.

His track is his own, and the jewels which he lets fall in his progress are from his own caskets; this will give a permanent value to his works, when the production of copyists will be forgotten.—Rev. C. H. Spurgeon.

The homiletic value of this monumental work grows on the reader with each volume.—The Presbyterian Journal, Philadelphia.

It might almost be called a pictorial Bible; each chapter is characterized by vivid verbal pictures, profuseness of illustration, literally orientalizing the orientalisms of the Scriptures. —New York Observer.

The Pulpit Bible ‡

The entire text of the Bible is printed in large clear type with bright and suggestive illustrations in an ample margin opposite each significant verse. The author's notes alone run to over 750,000 words. The notes are all original and they indicate the special pulpit use of each verse (where available) in the Bible. Each note is thus a suggestion for a sermon. Where space has not permitted a sufficient treatment of any passage, a copious and most carefully detailed Index indicates in which of Dr. Parker's other books the particular interpretation is provided. Quarto, Full Morocco, 1,351 pp., one volume. $15.00.

Dr. Joseph Parker is distinguished immeasurably by a distinct and unapproached style of interpretation which opens up to homiletic use vast sections of revelation which have hitherto lain unused.—The Christian Endeavor World, Boston.

Every passage starts a train of copious and picturesque suggestions.—The Advance, Chicago.

Dr. Parker is always fresh and suggestive. To the clergyman these volumes are of almost incalculable value.—Zion's Herald, Boston.

A page of Parker is worth a whole volume of some sermons that we have seen in print, and the preacher who studies him and makes an honest adaptation of his pungent expositions can not fail to make himself a more interesting and profitable teacher of the Word.—The New York Observer.

Since Matthew Henry no one has arisen with the same qualifications for the work.—The Christian Leader, London.

Partridge, William Ordway

Nathan Hale, the Ideal Patriot

A graphic narrative of the events in Hale's life, leading up to his sacrifice and death, and also a study of his character, and a comparison of Hale and Andre. It is not a conventional biography with a dull array of historical data, but rather an appreciative estimate of Nathan Hale's spirit and personality, emphasizing the inspirations of his career to the present generation of Americans. 12mo, Cloth, 134 pp., deckle edges, gilt top, cover design in gold. Photogravure frontispiece and 12 full-page half-tone illustrations, including drawings by W. R. Leigh. $1.00.

The book is in the nature of a sacred tribute to one who has aroused the enthusiasm of schoolboys and men for more than a century. It throws much light upon the character of the man whom Americans have ever delighted to honor.—The Philadelphia Inquirer.

The little book glows with intelligence and appreciative patriotism, and is thoroughly admirable.—The Hartford Courant.

It is an inspiring book for Americans to read. —The Sun, New York.

The book recalls two of the most interesting episodes of the Revolution.—The Pittsburg Post.

Patterson, Charles Brodie

The Measure of a Man **

In this volume Mr. Patterson discusses first the "natural," the "rational," the "psychic," and the "spiritual" man. In Part 2 he considers the Son of Man "as man," "as idealist," "as teacher," and "as healer," in the last division giving the philosophy of "mental healing" and something of its therapy. The desire uppermost in the mind of the author is to carry a word of hope to those who feel their need of greater life and light. 8vo, Cloth, 297 pp. $1.20, net; by mail, $1.32.

Throughout he is buoyantly optimistic and helpful to courageous and wholesome living.—Outlook, New York.

Patton, William W., D.D., LL.D.

Prayer and Its Remarkable Answers

Being a statement of facts in the light of reason and revelation. Remarkable facts and incidents demonstrating the power of prayer and confirming Christian faith. 12mo, Cloth, 456 pp., $1.00; Paper, 50 cents.

Violet Gray

Or, From Ambition to Success. 12mo, Cloth, 288 pp., $1.00; Paper, 25 cents.

Pick, Bernhard, Ph.D., D.D.

The Extra-Canonical Life of Christ

In this work Dr. Pick has gathered together every record of the acts and sayings of Jesus of Nazareth which is found in uninspired writings and can not be traced to a canonical source. This material is presented without any theological bias or purpose other than that of pure scholarship. Readers whose previous ideas about the character and extent of the New Testament Apocrypha have been obtained from reading extracts from the so-called "spurious gospels" will be surprised at the extent and value of the present collection. 12mo, Cloth, 320 pp. $1.20.

It should prove of the greatest interest and assistance to students of Biblical law, so admirable is its form.—The Item, Philadelphia.

Pierson, Arthur T., D.D. (see also Missionary Review of the World).

Catharine of Siena

A life story of this wonderful woman of the fourteenth century. 12mo, Cloth, cover design, 68 pp. 50 cents.

The modern woman striving for nobler things will be helped by this sketch.—The Boston Times.

Forward Movements of the Last Half Century

A description of the conspicuous philanthropic, missionary, and spiritual movements of the past fifty years intended to be an aid and inspiration for future efforts in the service of God and man. 12mo, Cloth, 428 pp. $1.50.

No romance is more fascinating to the student of social and religious life. The reader is borne along by the writer's enthusiasm as down the current of a swift river. The intense earnestness of the man carries the weight of conviction with it.—New York Times Saturday Review.

In Christ Jesus

Or the Sphere of the Believer's Life. It seeks to demonstrate the range, scope, and applications of the phrase which forms its title. The particular application of this phrase is considered separately as it occurs in Paul's epistles. 12mo, Cloth, 197 pp., with 8 illustrative charts. 60 cents.

A very suggestive little doctrinal study on the salvation which is in Christ, illuminated with Dr. Pierson's remarkable power of statement and illustration.—The Advance, Chicago.

Seed Thoughts for Public Speakers

Over five hundred suggestive and illustrative paragraphs for the use of preachers and other public speakers. 12mo, Cloth, 361 pp. $1.50.

Throughout there is a pleasing variety of wit, humor, historical fact, anecdote, and wise sayings. —The New York Press.

The Gordian Knot, or the Problem Which Baffles Infidelity

The book is addressed to candid seekers after truth, and answers such questions as: Is there a God? Is the universe the work of a personal Creator? Whence came the order and perfection of the universe, instinct in animals, intelligence and conscience in man? How can we account for the Bible and Jesus Christ, and is there a life beyond? 12mo, Cloth, 265 pp. 60 cents.

The chapters cover a wide range of problems, and are written in Dr. Pierson's strong, enthusiastic style, which goes far to carry conviction.—The Watchman, Boston.

The Keswick Movement

In Precept and Practise. The book briefly traces the history of the Keswick Convention in England from its beginning through the more than quarter century of its recurrence, and besides presenting a clear and concise history of the origin and development of the Keswick teaching, it seeks to give an exposition of the principles and practises for which "Keswick" stands. 16mo, Cloth, 130 pp. 50 cents.

The Miracles of Missions (First, Second, Third, and Fourth Series).

Or Modern Marvels in the History of Missionary Enterprise. Four volumes containing records of wonderful results in mission work, and of missionary heroism throughout the world. Four separate volumes. 12mo, Cloth, illustrated. First series, 183 pp.; Second series, 223 pp.; Third series, 274 pp.; Fourth series, 250 pp. Price, per volume, $1.00; Paper, per volume, 35 cents.

There is nothing better than this to enlighten and arouse the interest of those ignorant or skeptical as to missions.—The Advance, Chicago.

He remains the most sharply defined personality in our literary history. . . . Both his verse and his prose have a place by themselves in the literature of the world. The pure spirit of art, moving like the wind where it listeth, and, like the wind, dying into silence again—this magic was in Poe, and its record remains, and will remain, one of our most precious literary possessions.—Hamilton W. Mabie.

Poe stands as much alone among verse-writers as Salvator Rosa among painters.—The London Spectator.

On the roll of our literature Poe's name is inscribed with the few foremost, and in the world at large his genius is established as valid among all men.—Prof. G. E. Woodbury, Columbia University.

Pomeroy, H. S., A.M., M.D.

Is Man Too Prolific?

This is a scientific and logical argument disproving the Malthusian theory that population increases faster than means of subsistence. 12mo, Leatherette, 64 pp. 35 cents.

The Ethics of Marriage

Frank and earnest discussions of the present abuses of marriage and parenthood, with helpful advice and suggestions for the integrity, purity, and happiness of married life, with a prefatory note by Thomas A. Emmet, M.D., LL.D., and an introduction by Rev. J. T. Duryea, D.D. With an appendix showing the laws of most of the states concerning certain forms of crime. 12mo, Cloth, 197 pp. $1.00.

I have read your book with deep interest, and heartily concur in the opinions therein expressed. May God bless your words.—Elizabeth A. Tobey, Pres. Mass. W. C. T. U.

The Life of Saint Paul Harmonized in Scripture Language

This work gives the full text in a harmonious chronological arrangement of whatever in the Scriptures relates to Paul's life and work at any one time or place. The plan has been to construct, after the inductive method, a complete Scriptural life of St. Paul. 12mo, Cloth, 246 pp. 75 cents.

The work is one which any learner can use and any teacher will find valuable.—The Evangelist, St. Paul.

Preacher's Complete Homiletic Commentary on the Old and the New Testament, The

With Critical and Exegetical Notes. This commentary, consisting of thirty-two royal octavo volumes (Old Testament 21 volumes, New Testament 11 volumes), and having over eighteen thousand pages, contains an exposition, wholly in English, on every paragraph or verse of the entire Bible that can be used to advantage in the preparation of sermons. With copious indexes to each volume and an index volume to the entire series. Among the contributors are: Rev. J. S. Exell, M.A.; Rev. W. Burrows, B.A.; Thomas Robinson, D.D.; Rev. J. W. Harris; Rev. D. G. Watt, M.A.; Rev. Geo. Barlow; Rev. Robert Tuck; Thomas Whitelaw, D.D.; Rev. Henry J. Foster, etc.

Preacher's Complete Homiletic Commentary on the Old Testament ‡

By twenty distinguished homilists. 8vo, Cloth, over 12,000 pp., 20 vols. (and index volume), complete, $60.00; per vol., $3.00.

Preacher's Complete Homiletic Commentary on the New Testament

Uniform size and style with the Homiletic Commentary on the Old Testament. Cloth, 10 vols. (and index volume), 6,000 pp., $30.00; per vol., $3.00.

FEATURES OF THE CONTENTS.

IT BRINGS TO THE PREACHER'S ATTENTION hundreds of texts heretofore almost wholly passed over by the pulpit. Spurgeon, in his Commenting and Commentaries, says: "We have next to nothing on Kings." In the Homiletic Commentary we have on Kings alone 743 treatments of texts. The same is true of other books, as Jeremiah. New expositions, critical notes, illustrations, etc., are poured in upon neglected texts, and additional light thrown upon old texts.

IT IS THE ONLY COMMENTARY that supplies a sermonic treatment of homiletic suggestion on every verse of both the Old and New Testaments that can be used to advantage as a sermon text.

IT CONCENTRATES THE LIGHT of all ages and of all countries on the text.

IT IS WHOLLY FREE FROM DENOMINATIONAL BIAS, being strictly evangelical.

IT SUGGESTS THOUSANDS OF THEMES AND ILLUSTRATIONS for sermons, also many hundreds of useful illustrations.

IT THROWS NEW LIGHT upon the present controversies over the Old Testament.

THE COMMENTARY IS WHOLLY IN ENGLISH, avoiding Hebrew and Greek, except here and there in the critical notes.

Prescott, William Hickling, LL.D., The Works of ‡

A complete and uniform edition of this well-known author's works. Titles: Conquest of Mexico, two volumes; Conquest of Peru, two volumes; Philip the Second, three volumes; Ferdinand and Isabella, two volumes; Charles the Fifth, two volumes; Biographical and Critical, Miscellaneous, one volume. 8vo, 12 vols., Half Leather, full gilt cover design, tinted top, rough edges, illustrated with steel and photogravure portraits and maps. 6x9 inches. $3.00 per volume.

The "History of Ferdinand and Isabella" is a work that unites the fascination of romantic fiction with the grave interest of authentic events. —H. T. Tuckerman: Sketch of American Literature.

The genius of Mr. Prescott as a historian has never been exhibited to better advantage than in this very remarkable volume ("Philip the Second"), which is grounded on varied and ample authority. It marches like a cavalry squadron; it is swift, animated, glittering; it is radiant, pictorial, and flushed, as tho the writer were exulting in his amplitude of materials and perfect mastery of details.—Lord Macaulay.

So long as in ages far distant, and not only in countries now refined and polished, but in those not yet brought into the domain of civilization, the remarkable epoch which he has described shall attract the attention of men; so long as the consolidation of the Spanish monarchy, and the expulsion of the Moors, the mighty theme of the discovery of America, the sorrowful glories of Columbus, the mail-clad forms of Cortez and Pizarro and the other grim conquistadores, trampling new-found empires under the hoofs of their cavalry, shall be subjects of literary interest; so long as the blood shall curdle at the cruelties of Alva, and the fierce struggle of the Moslem in the East—so long will the writings of William H. Prescott be read.—Edward Everett.

Prevention of Disease, The ‡

It furnishes the latest and most conclusively demonstrated facts and expert opinions on the prevention of every form of human disease. It is the first work in the English language by eminent specialists of international reputation to provide research on this entire vast subject. The prophylactic methods of all nations are considered and explained. The history and growth of preventive measures are thoroughly yet concisely set forth. Each of the separate organs, systems, and tissues of the body is systematically treated. Among the subjects are: The History of the Prevention of Disease; General Prophylaxis; Internal Diseases; Diseases of the Blood; Diseases of Metabolism; Infectious Diseases; Diseases of the Lungs; Diseases of the Heart; Diseases of the Digestive Organs; Surgery; Diseases of Women; Midwifery; Diseases of Children; Diseases of the Nervous System; Mental Diseases; Diseases of the Eye; Diseases of the Ear; Diseases of the Teeth and Mouth; Diseases of the Throat and Nose; Diseases of the Urinary Organs and of the Male Generative Organs, and Venereal Diseases and Diseases of the Skin. The great scope which exists for preventive measures and the vast amount of working material provided in this work will be apparent to all who avail themselves of its instructive contents. Introduction by H. Timbrell Bulstrode, M.A., M.D., Cantab., D.P.H. Translated from the German by Wilmot Evans. Two volumes. 8vo, Cloth, 1,081 pp., $3.75 per volume; $7.50 per set.

The work is a distinctly valuable one. Those consulting the different sections will seldom fail to discover matter of interest and practical utility.—British Medical Journal.

Many will be both astonished and delighted at the very broad sense in which the term preventive medicine is used.—Medical Record, New York.

Rightly used, "The Pulpit Commentary" can not fail to be a rich resource for both intellectual and spiritual stimulation and culture to any student.—Prof. W. C. Wilkinson, D.D., University of Chicago.

The exposition is scholarly, without the slightest trace of pedantry, and is characterized not only by great historical knowledge, but by considerable freshness of treatment and spiritual insight.—The Literary World, London, Eng.

The volumes of this commentary complete an immense work; they are the ripe fruit of leading scholars and homilists. This commentary will be one of the greatest achievements of sanctified learning in the closing years of the nineteenth century. They admirably combine exegetical skill and homiletical application. One is filled with admiration at the wealth of sermonic material furnished in these remarkable volumes.—R. S. MacArthur, D.D., New York.

"The Pulpit Commentary" has the merit of giving, in advance of its homiletical suggestions, a thorough exegetical and expository treatment of the text, furnishing to the honest sermon-maker all the material for an independent outline, which he may afterward improve by comparison with the methods of other men as given in the homiletical section.—T. D. Witherspoon, D.D., Louisville Presbyterian Theol. Seminary.

Of all distinctly homiletical commentaries on the Holy Scriptures that I have examined, this is the most complete and thoroughly elaborated. —William F. Warren, D.D., President of the Boston University.

Exceedingly valuable helps to a clergyman.—James O. Murray, D.D., Dean of Princeton University.

I have no hesitancy in saying that the "Pulpit Commentary" is probably the best investment for the cost which ordinary clergymen can make in the line of commentaries. — G. Frederick Wright, D.D., LL.D., Professor, Oberlin, Ohio.

Among the multiplying exegetical and critical works having the same general character, this one has the specific merit and value of rendering assistance and fruitful suggestion to the preacher and teacher.—Bishop F. D. Huntington, of the Diocese of Central New York [Episcopal].

It is worthy of the largest circulation, and will do good wherever it is read. It is eminently fitted for the use of pastors of churches.—Howard Osgood, D.D., Rochester Theological Seminary.

It would not be easy to find within the same compass a discussion at once so full of knowledge and learning, so lucid and terse.—The Spectator, England.

Pusey, Edward B., D.D.

Daniel, the Prophet

An exhaustive commentary. One volume. 8vo, Cloth, 619 pp. $3.00.

Characterized by all the wealth of learning and keenness of all argument for which the writer is so famous. A contribution to the literature of the Book of Daniel whose value can not be overestimated.—The Interior, Chicago.

The profound and extensive research of the eminent author has been made tributary to the single aim of preparing an explanatory and practical commentary. Dr. Pusey has rendered a service of lasting value to the world.—Alabama Baptist.

It is surprising that so much matter is to be found in so small a compass.—The Occident, San Francisco.

The Minor Prophets

Vol. I., Hosea, Joel, Amos, Obadiah, Jonah, 427 pp. Vol. II., Micah, Nahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah, Haggai, Zechariah, Malachi, 504 pp. 8vo, Cloth. $3.00 per volume.

It is the most learned, able, and instructive commentary on that portion of the Scriptures.—Prof. Henry Green, Princeton Seminary.

It is the best exposition known to me of that section of the Sacred Scriptures. Pusey's Hebrew scholarship was undoubted; his learning was extensive; his acquaintance, particularly with patristic literature, was very large, and his heart was especially devout.—William M. Taylor, D.D.

Putnam, Israel

Daniel Everton

This is a story of love and soldier adventure in the Philippines. It throws into bold relief the intelligent native planters and the ignorant insurgent class, and draws the contrasting charms of an impulsive Filipino beauty and a New York girl of aristocratic reserve and culture. 12mo, Cloth, 407 pp., illustrated. $1.20.

In it are found all the ingredients necessary to a successful literary achievement, and the mixing is thoroughly good. Not only a well-told story, but a veritable well-spring of information pertaining to the Philippines.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

His characters are all human—so human that they do natural and mistaken things.—The New York Press.

It is instinct with the dramatic timbre of life.—Boston Daily Advertiser.

Martin Luther

Based upon Kostlin's "Life of Luther," translated by Rev. G. H. Behringer. 12mo, Cloth, 219 pp. $1.00.

We greatly err if it does not prove to be the best popular life of the great reformer ever printed in the English language.—Herald and Presbyter, Cincinnati.

It fittingly supplies in popular, clear, and attractive style an unbiased record—not estimate—of the man as he spoke and acted.—The Religious Telescope, Dayton, Ohio.

Religion in Common Life

Or, Topics of the Day Regarded from a Christian Standpoint ‡

Seventeen sermons delivered in London by representative Church of England clergymen. Among the authors are Archdeacon Farrar, Dean Pigou, Archdeacon Sinclair, Canon Browne, and Rev. J. F. Kitto. 12mo, Cloth, 168 pp. $1.00.

Tho written for English audiences these sermons have many valuable lessons for Americans as well, in attacking the problems which we have in common.—Public Opinion, New York.

Sermons in Songs

Sermons on the Psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, including "The 'Magnificat' of Mary," "The 'Benedictus' of Zacharias," "The Gloria in Excelsis," "The 'Nunc Dimittis' of Simeon," etc. 12mo, Cloth, 322 pp. $1.25.

Robson, John, D.D.

The Holy Spirit. The Paraclete ‡

A study of the work of the Holy Spirit in man. 12mo, Cloth, 262 pp. $1.50.

The author treats the subject with great fulness. . . . This treatise of Dr. Robson will prove of great value.—Christian Work, New York.

This is a careful and discriminating study of the work of the Holy Spirit in man, and it discusses some of the most difficult questions and problems involved in the subject. . . . The author finds a solution of these and other problems in the work of the Holy Spirit in Christ and presents this view with clearness and force.—Lutheran Observer, Philadelphia.

The author of this book makes proper distinction between regeneration and conversion, and he properly emphasizes the need of studying the work of the Holy Spirit in conjunction with the study of the work of Christ, since without the cooperation of the Spirit the work of the Son would have failed of effectiveness.—Journal and Messenger, Cincinnati.

This is a good book. . . . This work may recall some to a better way of thinking.—Observer, New York.

The book is carefully written from an exegetical point of view, and the treatment is candid and judicious.—Sunday School Times, Philadelphia.

The book, on the whole, is valuable for thoroughness, candor, intelligence, and reverence of tone.—The Watchman, Boston.

Rose, Dr. Achilles (see also Physician vs. Bacteriologist).

Atonia Gastrica **

Atonia gastrica, by which term is understood abdominal relaxation and ptosis of the viscera, is a subject of vast importance, as has been proved by the avalanche of literature it has caused during the last decade. The relation of some ailments to abdominal relaxation has only been recognized since the author's method of abdominal strapping has been adopted and extensively practised. This book gives in attractive form all we know in regard to the etiology of the subject; it describes and treats of the significance of the plaster strapping as the most rational therapeutic measure. The illustrations given with the description will prove of much practical value to those who wish to give the method a trial, but who have not had the opportunity to see the Rose belt applied. 12mo, Cloth. $1.00, net; by mail, $1.10.

Rosenbach, Prof. O., M.D.

Physician vs. Bacteriologist **

Rosenbach has published a large number of clinical, experimental, and critical papers on diagnostic, therapeutic, hygienic, and general pathological questions. One of his works, forming part of Nothnagel's great encyclopedia, has already appeared in English translation. Among the prominent men of the medical profession of to-day Rosenbach is certainly, more than any other, an original thinker, observer, and investigator, who makes no concessions to the extravagant fashions in medicine at the present time. His aim is to place medicine on a rational basis, whence bacteriological aberrations have been endeavoring to banish it. This book treats on morbid proliferation of specialism in medicine and a one-sided organotherapy; it opposes unjustified and unwarranted claims of the bacteriologist, aiming at tuberculin and the legion of serums. Translated from the German by Dr. Achilles Rose. 12mo, Cloth, 455 pp. $1.50, net; by mail, $1.68.

The thorough and comprehensive manner in which the author has examined and discussed the subject can not fail to be of very great interest, if not enlightenment, to the medical profession.—The Medical Summary, Philadelphia.

It is a book which furnishes much food for thought and should be read by every physician and surgeon.—St. Louis Medical and Surgical Reporter.

It is a rich storehouse for every physician and will give much food for thought.—The Post-Graduate, New York.

Every physician, and particularly every eclectic practitioner, should have a copy.—Eclectic Review, New York.

It is entertaining reading, and the author has the ability to make his reader think.—Medical World, Philadelphia.

Rosenthal, Dr. Richard S.

The Rosenthal Practical Linguistry System in French, German, and Spanish

This system has met with world-wide success because it is the natural method of learning a language. It commences by associating words with ideas. The student begins to use the language itself at once. Thus it is learned without effort, and almost unconsciously. Supplied in three languages, French, German, Spanish. 12mo. Per set, $6.00.

I can not tell you how delighted I am with your new method.—Archduchess Isabella of Australia.

Dr. Rosenthal has no peer. He is the foremost teacher of his age, and one of the most eminent linguists in the world.—Prince Bismarck.

It is destined to create an entire revolution in the study and teaching of foreign languages.—Review of Reviews, London.

I admire not only the painstaking industry which you have brought to bear upon your work, but thoroughly approve of its great practical value.—Cardinal Gibbons.

No other system can be compared with yours.—Prof. Charles H. Sykes.

Dr. Rosenthal is the foremost teacher of his age.—Le Figaro, Paris.

Rothe, Richard

Still Hours ‡

Selections from the writings of Richard Rothe. Translated by Jane T. Stoddard. Introduction by John Macpherson, M.A. Crown 8vo, Cloth, 425 pp. $2.00.

It is a book of the first order, full of Rothe himself, and of which one wearies as little as of the face of a friend.—British Weekly.

Rouse, Adelaide L.

Under My Own Roof

A restful, refreshing story of a bachelor woman, who, after enduring years of miserable existence in boarding-houses and flats, satisfies a yearning for her own home, and plans and builds an ideal suburban house, leads a care-free life under her own vine and fig-tree, and finally renews an old love. 12mo, Cloth, 291 pp., illustrated. $1.20.

It has been some time since we have seen a book with such delicate style, such purling, sunny humor, such sound-hearted wholesomeness of sentiment as will surely give "Under My Own Roof" permanency in good literature.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Sanborn, Hon. F. B.

Dr. S. G. Howe: The Philanthropist

Vol. VI. of "American Reformers" Series. With Portrait. 12mo, Cloth, 370 pp. $1.50.

This volume of 370 pages can be marked as among the most interesting and instructive biographies of the year.—The Inter Ocean, Chicago.

In this biography we have a volume of interest, information, and inspiration.—Christian Evangelist, St. Louis.

The author has told the story of Dr. Howe with the affection of a friend and admirer and the sympathy of a fellow philanthropist.—National Baptist, Philadelphia.

A volume of interest, information, and inspiration.—The Call, San Francisco.

Sanborn, Kate

The Wit of Women

A collection of witty and humorous sayings of women, including anecdotes and mirthful extracts from books and poems. 12mo, Cloth, 215 pp. $1.50.

The book is charmingly gotten up and picturesquely pretty in every detail.—The Burlington (Vt.) Free Press.

Miss Sanborn displays both judicial fairness and literary discrimination in her selections.—The Troy Times.

No woman can bring higher ability to such a task than Miss Sanborn.—The Call, Newark, N. J.

It is rich in fancy, in antitheses, and in brilliant flashes of epigrammatic wit and the subtle play of delicate humor.—Demorest's Monthly, New York.

The absurd statement has more than once been made that woman lacks humor. Any one who has any doubts as to the possession of the gift of humor by women will do well to run through this book.—The Outlook, New York.

Sarles, John W., D.D.

Man's Peerless Destiny in Christ

The keynote of the volume is God's love for man. Inseparable from this is the beneficent result to the soul. In the treatment of the theme there is developed the thought of the exalted height for which the soul in its noblest moments yearns and for which it is destined. 12mo, Cloth, 230 pp. 90 cents.

The author has illuminated a great and inspiring subject. I am sure that it will enthuse all readers with the true dignity of the believer's standing and calling in Christ.—Rev. C. Woelfkin, D.D.

I am more than pleased with its scope and execution. The exalted theme has been dealt with Scripturally, lucidly, and eloquently.—The late Geo. C. Lorimer, LL.D.

Sayward, William H.

Thoughts on the Relations of Employer and Workman

A lecture. 8vo, Paper, 16 pp. 10 cents; per hundred, $7.00.

Through this essay, which outlines the evolution of industry, he does not lose sight of his principles; namely, that labor and capital are but equivalents of each other; that the sum of the labor problem is the discovery of the just terms on which the exchange should be made; that the employer has failed to pay proper attention to the labor problem of to-day; that the workmen have studied the problem and have discovered means for the betterment of their own condition.—Current Literature, New York.

Schaff, Philip, D.D., LL.D.

Oldest Church Manual

The teaching of the Twelve Apostles. The Didache and kindred documents in the original, with translations and discussions of post-apostolic teaching, baptism, worship, and discipline. Revised edition. 8vo, Cloth, 337 pp., illustrated. $2.50.

A most scholarly, candid, and comprehensive treatise.—The Congregationalist, Boston.

The Schaff-Herzog Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge

The object of the encyclopedia is to give in alphabetical order a summary of the most important information on all branches and topics of theological learning—exegetical, historical, biographical, doctrinal, etc.—for the use of ministers, students, and laymen. The encyclopedia is based on the celebrated German Herzog Encyclopedia. Its compilers include distinguished authorities in the United States and Europe. This edition includes the "Encyclopedia of Living Divines and Christian Workers." Four volumes, 8vo, 2,980 pp. (separate volumes, sold in cloth binding only, $5.00 each), Cloth, $20.00; Sheep, $26.00; Half Morocco, $32.00; Full Morocco, $44.00.

The Schaff-Herzog is the very best encyclopedia published in any language. I am acquainted with no other work that equals it.—Prof. Roswell D. Hitchcock, D.D.

It is a very great advance beyond any other similar publication hitherto made in America.—Howard Osgood, D.D., Rochester Theological Seminary.

There is no other work in our language or in any language that combines so many points of excellence.—The Philadelphia Times.

With six or seven encyclopedias within arm's length, we find ourselves more often taking down this than any other, and in no single instance do we remember to have been disappointed in our inquiries among its pages. Where a minister can have but one such work, it is our impression that, on the whole, whether for comprehensiveness or cheapness, the Schaff-Herzog is best.—The Congregationalist, Boston.

Will rank for fulness, comprehensiveness, and accuracy as the best ever published.—Boston Daily Globe.

Schaff, Philip, D.D., and Arthur Gilman, M.A.

Library of Religious Poetry

A collection of the best poetry of all ages and lands, including 1,888 poems, and representing 716 authors. The work includes poems on nature; poems based on historical characters and events; poems of country, patriotism, home; poems relating to Scriptural places, scenes, characters, the seasons; poems on life, God and the Trinity, praise, prayer, the Bible, Crucifixion, the Resurrection, death, judgment, hell, heaven, etc. Fifteen portraits. Royal 8vo, Cloth, 1,049 pp. Indexes of authors, subjects, and first lines. $6.00.

The editing has been done with skill, large knowledge, faithful diligence, and fine judgment, as was to be expected in a work of this sort from editors of such high character and accomplished scholarship.—The Evening Post, New York.

I have examined it with great delight. It was a very happy thought to glean from all lands and times and creeds the choicest specimens of Christian song, and very happily has the purpose been executed.—George D. Boardman, D.D.

Schenck, Ferdinand S., D.D.

Modern Practical Theology

A manual of homiletics, liturgics, poimenics, archagics, pedagogy, sociology, and the English Bible, for the use of preachers, instructors, and students. In each main division of the subject, reference-books and practical studies for students are indicated, the main object of the book being to put theories into practise. 12mo, Cloth, 330 pp. $1.00.

Its theme is all-important. Its plan is simple, and the execution of the plan is painstaking and skilful. Professor Schenck is reverent and by no means revolutionary. He is as orthodox as the Bible and the Synod of Dort.—Presbyterian Witness, Halifax, N. S.

The Ten Commandments and the Lord's Prayer: A Sociological Study

These are striking applications of the everlasting truths contained in the Commandments and the Lord's Prayer. In an original treatment of the great maxims of civilization, the author has been successful in attaining the medium between overstraining a statute and abating its force. 12mo, Cloth. $1.00.

His positive opinions with the closeness of his applications chain the interest of the reader. This little volume is a book for the times; it can not fail to do good.—The Watchman, Boston.

Schleiermacher, Friedrich Ernst

Selected Sermons ‡

Twenty-seven selected sermons of the great German preacher. Translated from the latest Authorized Edition. 12mo, Cloth, 459 pp. $2.00.

Their good taste and sound judgment are manifest in every page.—John G. Whittier.

Schmitt, Gustav, M.D.

A Brief of Necroscopy and Its Medico-Legal Relation

A trustworthy manual of medical information on post-mortem examinations, practically adapted to the requirements of coroners and physicians, and of important assistance to lawyers or medical experts engaged in the detection of crime. 12mo, Flexible Leather, 186 pp. $1.00.

It is a very handy and convenient as well as accurate book.—John C. Spencer, M.D., University of California.

It is an excellent little work, and I shall recommend it to my students this fall.—J. Carlisle De Vries, M.D., Prof. of Pathology, Med. Dept., National University, Washington.

Dr. Schmitt's manual will be an important guide to lawyers in cross-examining expert witnesses, and particularly in cases where poisoning is charged.—Judge Simeon E. Baldwin, Supreme Court of Errors, State of Connecticut.

It is reliable and instructive. Any physician called upon to make an examination that has legal significance, or even in ordinary cases, will do well to peruse this work.—Medical Recorder, Chicago.

Schofield, Alfred T., M.D., M.R.C.S.E.

Nerves in Disorder ‡

This work aims to dispel ignorance regarding all functional nervous diseases and to set forth scientific principles for successfully treating these troubles, not only by physicians, but also by the sufferers themselves. The author shows how to find out the causes of this wear and tear of the nerves. He cites many cases of sufferers; he explains some remarkable cures. 12mo, Cloth, 218 pp. $1.50.

It is fitted to prove a stimulus to thought on a subject of much importance to the medical profession.—Scottish Medical and Surgical Journal.

The book is eminently sane, moderate, and thoroughly scientific in tone. We unhesitatingly recommend it.—Health Culture, New York.

Nerves in Order ‡

Dr. Schofield's books are always welcomed by medical men and laymen. This new volume is a companion to his former work "Nerves in Disorder," presenting the opposite side of the subject, and to all who prefer the ounce of prevention to the pound of cure the book must prove invaluable. 12mo, Cloth. $1.50.

The Force of Mind, or the Mental Factor in Medicine ‡

The action of the mind in the cause and cure of many disorders is considered from new and scientific standpoints in this work, with suggestions for the practical use of this knowledge by physicians and laymen. The author shows that the mental factor is the one out of many ever present in some form in all disease and how this information can be used by physicians and patients. The various systems of faith cures, quack medicines, and the like are considered, and a plea is entered for the physician to study men as men and master the combined intricacies of spirit, soul, and body. 12mo, Cloth, 347 pp. $2.00.

There can be no doubt that the reforms advocated are much needed.—Nature, London.

It is an exceedingly able treatise on a much-neglected subject.—The Queen, London.

The Springs of Character ‡

A study of the scientific sources and qualities of character, the object being to show the transcendent importance of character, and the soundest principles for development and improvement. The reader is taken into the realms of psychology, education, ethics, and mental physiology. All that concerns the training of the young and the perfecting of our own lives in every-day professional or business life is treated by the author. 8vo, Cloth, 259 pp., topical index and list of books on the subject. $1.50.

This is the special merit of the book, that while the moral side of character formation is not minimized, the physical is given its fair share in the process.—James J. Walsh, M.D., LL.D.

All the subtle and occult as well as educational and outside agencies that tell upon the developing character are exhaustively considered.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Unconscious Mind ‡

Its object is to establish the fact of an unconscious mind in man, and to trace in brief some of its powers and the various ways in which they are exhibited. The work seeks to show that this mind is the seat of character and of conscience and spirit-life, and a most important factor in psychical and physical life. The subjects of habit, memory, muscular action, therapeutics, education, sensation, disease, character, sex, etc., are discussed in their relation to the unconscious mind. 8vo, Cloth, 451 pp. With diagrams. $2.00.

Parents, teachers, physicians, lawyers, judges, and legislators can not afford to remain in ignorance of this theory, which lays its preemption upon the very foundations of physical health, mind, and character.—D. E. Merwin, Kansas City, Mo.

It contains the summum bonum in psychological literature up to date. The student will find in it a résumé of the writings of the foremost psychologists, and the educator will be the better equipped for having perused it.—J. A. Hagemann, D.D., Pittsburg, Pa.

Seaman, Hervey J.

The Expert Cleaner

A handbook of practical information for the housewife. Including hints, suggestions, and recipes for cleaning every article in and about the house, besides general household suggestions. 16mo, Flexible Cloth, 286 pp. 75 cents.

It covers every particular of household cleaning, and the author states that the information given is systematized from notes which have been gathered during a long period, from the experience of a number of successful housekeepers known to him.—American Kitchen Magazine, Boston.

Useful suggestions, too, not exactly in the cleaning line, are here for remedying the trifling ailments of house and furnishings, so that an inexperienced housekeeper may find the book a helpful lubricant for the domestic machinery.—The Nation, New York.

Sermon Bible, The ‡

A sermon library, containing 4,800 sermon outlines with more than 24,000 homiletical references and embracing the whole of the Sacred Scriptures. It gives the essence of the very best homiletic literature of the present generation, and it is a source of inexhaustible help to the preacher, student, or other Christian worker. In 12 volumes. 12mo, Cloth. $1.50 per volume; $18.00 per set.

FEATURES OF THE CONTENTS.

The plan of the work, in general, gives under each text, each being in its consecutive order from Genesis to Revelation: (1) Outline of important sermons by eminent preachers which exist only in manuscript or periodicals, and are thus inaccessible; or, (2) less full outlines of sermons which have appeared in volumes that are not well known or easily obtained; or, (3) reference to or very brief outlines of sermons which appear in popular volumes such as are likely to be in a preacher's library; and (4) full references to theological treatises, commentaries, etc., where any help is given to the elucidation of the text. Thus the preacher, having chosen his text, has only to refer to the Sermon Bible to find some of the best outlines and suggestions on it and very helpful references to all the aids available. Blank pages are bound in the end of each volume for manuscript notes.

ARRANGEMENT OF THE VOLUMES.

The Unheeding God ‡

And other sermons. 8vo, Cloth, 384 pp. $2.00.

No more timely discourses than these could possibly be preached.—The Spectator, London.

Such a volume as this—strong in thought, apt in illustration, eloquent and persuasive—will be received with thankfulness by all who value good homiletic literature.—The Freeman, London.

Seward, Theodore F.

How to Get Acquainted with God, the Meaning of the Christian Science Movement

This work treats of the laws of the Divine Immanence, or "God with us." The author's answer to the question "How can we become acquainted with God?" is: "By becoming acquainted with love. Only through the manifestation of love toward our fellow men can we understand the ways of God's love toward us." 16mo, Cloth, 147 pp. 50 cents.

It should be read and circulated as widely as possible.—The Daily Evening Telegraph, Philadelphia.

His profound, even passionate, sense of the divine love and the results of that love when once it possesses a human soul is very attractive. —The Christian Intelligencer.

As a brief compendium of the Christian Science doctrine, this volume is highly satisfactory. —Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Spiritual Knowing, or Bible Sunshine

The spiritual gospel of Jesus the Christ. This is an effective interpretation of the religious ideas and impulses that are finding expression in the various movements known as Christian Science, Divine Healing, and Mental Healing. 12mo, Cloth, 116 pp. $1.00.

An excellent book.—Zion's Herald, Boston.

I doubt not that many a sad soul will be brightened by this "Bible Sunshine."—Philip Moxom, D.D., Springfield, Mass.

Contains much truth.—Religious Telescope, Dayton, O.

It is full of inspiring thoughts.—Prof. John Fiske, Harvard University.

Culture and Religion in Some of Their Relations

8vo, Paper, 85 pp. 15 cents.

Shakespeare, William (see also "Bell's Reader's Shakespeare," under Bell).

Complete Plays ‡

A facsimile of the first folio edition with an introduction by J. O. Halliwell Phillips, the celebrated English archeologist and biographer of Shakespeare. This is the only facsimile edition of the famous First Folio Edition of Shakespeare's Works which was published in 1623. The edition of which this is a facsimile is the sole authority for the texts of the most important Shakespearian plays, and upon it are founded the celebrated Donnelly ciphers. For purposes of study or critical investigation it serves the same purpose as the original folio. 8vo, Cloth, over 1,000 pp. $2.50.

This book will prove a boon to the Shakespearian scholar.—The Sun, New York.

All young students of Shakespeare should have it; literarians would not part with it after examining it; many general readers will want it.—The Standard, Chicago.

Before an Audience

Or, The Use of the Will in Public Speaking. This is not a book on elocution, but treats, in a new and original way, public speaking. The author devotes particular attention to the use of the will on the platform, and emphasizes creative rather than imitative delivery. 12mo, Cloth, 152 pp. 75 cents.

We advise every public speaker to read at least the opening chapter of this book; the rest will follow.—The Literary World, Boston.

He writes in a pungent and sometimes colloquial style, and illustrates his ideas by an abundance of anecdotes.—The Sun, New York.

He does not teach elocution, but the art of public speaking.—Pittsburg Chronicle.

Sichel, Walter

Disraeli: A Study in Personality and Ideas ‡

The utterances of Disraeli in his books and in his speeches, with the striking events in his life, private as well as public, form the basis of this study of the man and his message. His personality, the underlying principles of his brilliant statesmanship, his enduring theories on labor, church, monarchy, foreign policy, empire, society, literature, and many other subjects so full of light and guidance for to-day's problems are given clear and scholarly explanation. 8vo, Cloth, illustrated, 335 pp. $2.50, net; by mail, $2.63.

The life-work of Benjamin Disraeli in literature, equally as in politics, is one of the most wondrous tales which sober truth has ever told. —John Morley.

The author has gone seriously into his subject, making a well-sustained effort to interpret Disraeli as a man and as a great public figure. He enriches it, we may add, by many apt bits of personalia, giving color and animation to his work.—New York Tribune.

The book abounds in interesting and humorous anecdotes—some old, some new—and quotations from its subject's writings and speeches, which illustrate both his remarkable literary gift of expression and his statesmanlike views and ideals.—Chicago Tribune.

The work as a whole gives one a broader and more intelligent appreciation than ever before of the strong, far-seeing, and commanding genius of the man, at the same time doing substantial justice to the statesmanship and great genius of his great rival, Gladstone, so far as it treats of him.—The Nashville American.

This is a book that every admirer of the great man and every student of modern English politics must read. That Disraeli was a great admirer of the United States was well known, but this writer devotes an interesting chapter to explaining just what his views were at various times.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

The volume is one of the few important biographies of the year.—The World Today, Chicago.

Sinclair, Upton

King Midas

A story. 12mo, Cloth, 388 pp., illustrated. $1.20.

The book shows gleams of rare power. I shall present a copy of it to Harvard Library.—Prof. Charles Eliot Norton.

Singer, Dr. Isidore (see also Jewish Encyclopedia, The)

Russia at the Bar of the American People

To all students of the Jewish problem in Russia its contents will prove of great helpfulness and value. Here the reader will find the speeches and other utterances of scores of eminent men, among whom are ex-President Grover Cleveland and many authorities in the Protestant and Roman Catholic churches. The book includes the history of the Kishinef petition, together with the addresses of President Roosevelt and John Hay. 12mo, Cloth. $1.50.

From what I know of the author's work I am satisfied that no one living is better able to present the subject in its proper bearings to the American people than he is.—Dr. Walter Kempster.

Sleight, Mary B.

The Flag on the Mill

A story. Five full-page drawings. 12mo, Cloth, 434 pp. $1.50.

The story is simple, pure, and sweet.—The Southern Presbyterian Review.

How Paris Amuses Itself

This jolly, handsome book is the very incarnation of that spirit of amusement which reigns supreme in the capital of the world's fun. The author unites the graphic skill of the artist, the infectious enthusiasm of the lover of fun and gaiety, and the intimate personal knowledge of the long-time resident in this great playground of the world. In spirit the reader can visit with a delightful comrade all the nooks of jollity known only to the initiated, and enjoy all the sparkle and glitter of that ever-moving panorama of gaiety. 135 illustrations, six in colors, 16 full-page half-tone inserts, 58 full-page text drawings, 55 half-page and smaller text drawings by the author and several French artists. 12mo, Cloth, ornamental cover, 334 pp. $1.50.

If you wish to thoroughly soak yourself with the concentrated essence of enjoyment, read this book quickly. It is too good to miss.—Phila. Item.

Few men since Thackeray have succeeded in making Bohemian Paris such a living, breathing thing.—Baltimore Herald.

Parisians Out of Doors **

It is said of the French that they live out of doors, and Mr. Smith in this book gives a true picture of this real life of the Parisian. On the land and on the water, in the gardens, the parks, at the summer resorts in the mountains and at the seashore, the automobile trips, the reader mingles with the throng of pleasure-seekers, of dilettanti, of workers. 12mo, Cloth, water-color frontispiece by F. Hopkinson Smith, and numerous drawings and photographs by the author. $1.50, net; by mail, $1.65.

The Real Latin Quarter

Racy sketches of the life and characters of the famous Bohemia of Paris. So real are its descriptions that the reader feels that he has taken an actual trip through the Quarter, enjoyed the good cheer at Lavenue's, listened to the chansons at Marcel Legay's, looked down upon the giddy whirl of the Bal Bullier, peeped into studios, chatted with models, and seen every nook and corner of this celebrated community. With 100 drawings and camera snap shots by the author, two caricatures in color by the French caricaturist Sancha, and water-color frontispiece by F. Hopkinson Smith. 12mo, Cloth, 205 pp. $1.20.

It is like a trip to Paris.—Charles D. Gibson.

You have left nothing undone.—Frederic Remington.

When you have read this book you know the "Real Latin Quarter" as well as you will ever come to know it without living there yourself.—The Mail and Express, New York.

Smith, Goldwin, D.C.L., LL.D.

The Moral Crusader: William Lloyd Garrison

A biographical essay, founded on "The Story of Garrison's Life, Told by His Children." With Portrait. 12mo, Cloth, 200 pp. $1.00.

Each year brings a new book about William Lloyd Garrison, but one of the best stories comes to us from a foreign pen—that of Goldwin Smith.—New York Herald.

This essay is worthy of a place in every American library.—Morning Star, Boston.

It presents him as he was, indomitable, persevering, careless of the opinion of others, believing in the one cause to which he was devoted, and fighting on in immovable self-confidence until the day of his triumph came, and slavery was abolished throughout the land.—The Presbyterian, Philadelphia.

Spear, Samuel T., D.D.

Meditations on the Bible Heaven

A careful collection of revealed truth regarding the Scriptural heavens. 12mo, Cloth, 403 pp. $1.50.

The reader will be surprised at the extent of the information which the Bible gives upon this subject when a common-sense construction is given to its language.—Methodist Recorder, Pittsburg.

Social Reforms, Encyclopedia of *

This work supplies facts and expert opinions on sociology and all topics directly or indirectly allied or involved. It contains the latest opinions, statistics, and other information on sociology, political economy, political science, wealth, industrial conditions and institutions, and on all the great problems of modern civilization. The most eminent authorities in the various schools of economy and social thought have set forth their pleas, enabling the reader to compare, weigh, and judge their respective claims. Edited by William D. P. Bliss. Large 8vo, 1,447 pp., Cloth, $7.50; Sheep, $9.50; Half Morocco, $12.00; Full Morocco, $14.00, all net.

The Encyclopedia puts side by side in authoritative statements the views, theories, and utterances of all schools of sociological and economic thought. Thus the reader is enabled closely and clearly to analyze both sides of all the important topics treated. It is largely the work of the highest authorities, and thus brings together a wider collection of accurate facts than have ever before been concentrated on questions of social reform. Biographical portions are limited to authorities having national recognition. Among its compilers are: E. B. Andrews, D.D., LL.D.; Rachel Foster Avery; Prof. E. W. Bemis, Ph.D.; Edward Bellamy; John Storer Cobb; Col. Albert Clarke; Rev. S. W. Dike, LL.D.; Prof. R. P. Falkner, Ph.D.; Wm. D. McCrackan; George E. McNeill; A. A. Miner, D.D.; Edward R. Pease; A. M. Powell, D.D.; James B. Reynolds, Ph.D.; Henry George; Thomas G. Shearman; Sidney Webb; Joseph D. Weeks; Arthur B. Woodford, Ph.D.; Robert A. Woods; Carroll D. Wright, and many others. Its appendix contains a complete chronology of Social Reforms by subjects and countries, charts showing distribution of wealth in the United States; wages and hours of labor in Great Britain; rise and fall of wages in the United States; platforms of political parties, etc.

I have read through many of the important articles, and am struck with their excellence and completeness. The plan adopted of setting forth the case from both sides has been admirably carried out.—Benjamin Kidd.

The work is one of very great value, filling a place hitherto unoccupied.—Franklin H. Giddings, Ph.D.

The facts ought to be weapons ready for the hands of those who would fight for a cleaner, sweeter, happier earth.—Minot J. Savage, D.D.

It is an invaluable contribution to the literature of social science.—Gen. William Booth.

This work is a necessity in any well-appointed library.—The New York Times.

It will stand in years to come as an epitome of social and economic conditions and the state of human progress in the last decade of the nineteenth century.—Col. Albert Shaw.

To general workers and students of social reform who are not specialists this book will be a boon.—Journal of Political Economy, Chicago.

Spence, Exell, and Neil

Thirty Thousand Thoughts ‡

Thirty thousand choice illustrations, gathered from the best literature of all ages and all countries. For enforcing and enlivening written or spoken words this work aims to be useful to all classes of writers or speakers. Edited by the Very Rev. H. D. M. Spence, D.D.; Rev. Joseph Exell, M.A.; and Rev. Charles Neil, M.A., with introduction by Rev. Dean Howson, D.D., assisted by a large corps of collaborators. In six volumes. Royal 8vo, Cloth, 3,230 pp., per volume, $3.50; per set, $20.00; Sheep, per set, $30.00.

FEATURES OF THE CONTENTS.

This Cyclopedia of Illustrations supplies material found in no other reference or other work. It has placed the entire range of literature under contribution. The volumes contain an immense variety of illustrative extracts and quotations, choice and carefully selected literary gleanings of the highest order, anecdotes aiding to define moral and religious truths; historical parallel similitudes—in brief, useful and suggestive thoughts gathered from the best available sources, on all subjects. THE CHURCH.—Church Seasons, Hymns, Ascriptions, Canticles, Sermons, Beatitudes, Commandments, etc. MAN AND HIS LAWS.—His Nature, Constitution, Character, Actions, Influences, Ethics, Sociology, Philosophy, etc. SCRIPTURE.—Bible History, Biography, Geography, Natural History, Ceremonies, Laws, Times, Seasons, Events, etc. THEOLOGY.—Christians, Dogmatics, Prophetics, Miracles, Superstitions, Saints, Divine Attributes, etc.

It contains the best intellectual tissues of the church of all ages.—The Evangelist, New York.

It is a veritable thesaurus of valuable information and beautifully expressed thought.—The Interior, Chicago.

It is the most elaborate encyclopedia of illustrations ever attempted.—S. S. Times, Phila.

At once the largest, the most comprehensive, and the most scientifically arranged epitome of ideas on theology, Scriptural and ecclesiastical history and Christian ethics to be found in our language.—The Scotsman, Edinburgh.

We can only repeat our words of praise for this excellent compendium of the best thoughts of the best men of all ages on all manner of important topics.—New York Observer.

No description which can be given can convey anything like a clear view of their intrinsic richness.—Northern Christian Advocate.

It is impossible to take any section as it stands. Admirable hints as to form are given in some of the homiletical arrangements, but the thoughts, coming as they do from such varied sources, will have to be passed through the preacher's own crucible.—The Methodist Recorder.

Sprecher, Samuel P., D.D.

Infidelity Refuted by Infidels

A presentation of arguments, condemning infidelity from its own premises. 12mo, Paper, 92 pp. 25 cents.

It is a most valuable and interesting contribution to the literature on Christian evidences, and should have a wide circulation.—Christian Intelligencer, New York.

Spurgeon, Charles Haddon

According to Promise ‡

Or, The Lord's Method of Dealing with His Chosen People. A companion volume to "All of Grace." 12mo, Cloth, 130 pp. 75 cents.

They are characterized by directness and plain speaking, and carry both comfort and strength to those who heed his spiritual teachings.—Journal of Education, Boston.

Illustrations and Meditations ‡

Or, Flowers from a Puritan's Garden. 12mo, Cloth, 285 pp., $1.00; Paper, 25 cents.

Mr. Spurgeon has selected the most striking and epigrammatic passages of his writings and appended to each a "meditation."—The Philadelphia Ledger.

This little volume is a rich treasure. It is a bouquet of sweets culled from twenty-two volumes of that good Puritan Thomas Manton. The result is a collection of figures rich in thought and fertile in illustration.—Christian Secretary, Hartford.

John Ploughman's Pictures ‡

Or, More of His Plain Talk for Plain People. 4to, Paper, 27 pp., 39 illustrations. 15 cents.

Each sentence is a cluster of diamonds, some rough, but all of them real. It is the very quintessence of common sense; or, perhaps, uncommon sense. Every page is worth a mint of money if only its keen hints are laid down as rules of conduct.—The Christian, London.

John Ploughman's Talk ‡

Or, Plain Advice to Plain People containing: To the Idle; Good Nature; Firmness; Patience; Seizing Opportunities; Faults; Debts; Home; Spending, etc. Bound in the same volume, "On the Choice of Books" and "Death of Rev. Edward Irving," by Thomas Carlyle. 4to, Paper, 32 pp. 12 cents.

My Sermon Notes ‡

A selection from outlines of discourses delivered at the Metropolitan Tabernacle. In four volumes. Vol. I., Genesis to Proverbs, 298 pp.; Vol. II., Ecclesiastes to Malachi, 388 pp.; Volume III., Matthew to The Acts, 392 pp.; Vol. IV., Romans to Revelation, 408 pp. 12mo, Cloth. $1.00 each.

The study of these "Notes" is an education as to methods of analyzing a text and of applying it for instruction, exhortation, comfort, or reproof; . . . ought to be a sine qua non in every library.—The Christian, London, England.

Sermons ‡

Nineteen volumes, containing 402 sermons preached from 1856 to 1889, inclusive. 12mo, Cloth. $1.00 per volume.

He was a Scriptural preacher, a textual preacher. This century has not heard a voice raised for Christ with so complete a mastery of Scripture, thought, and language as was exhibited by Spurgeon.—The Churchman, New York.

It is not too much to say that, as sermons, they stand alone, combining with their pure evangelical doctrine a directness, a simplicity, a transparency, and an effectiveness of style unequaled by any other published sermons by men now in the pulpit or by those of other generations.—The Standard, Chicago.

Talks to Farmers

Containing "The Sluggard's Farm," "Parable of the Sower," "In the Hay Field," "Wheat in the Barn," "Spiritual Gleaning," etc. 12mo, Cloth, 307 pp. $1.00.

There is not a dry, uninteresting line in the book.—Christian Monitor, St. Louis.

The Bible and the Newspaper ‡

Or, How to Garner Bible Truths from the Newspaper. Containing: Conscientious Separation; A Fox in the Pulpit; Tempting Temptation; Fickleness of Mankind; Exposing Others to Peril; Want of Light; Withering Unbelief, etc. 4to, Paper, 23 pp. 15 cents.

I read the newspaper that I may see how my Heavenly Father governs the world.—John Newton.

The Clew of the Maze ‡

Or, Modern Infidelity and How to Meet It. Containing chapters on: Doubt Sterile; Self-Reliance; Faith in the Unseen; Cause of Non-Belief; God's Method of Mercy; Enthusiasm for the Person of Jesus; Reliance on God; Our Chosen Principle, etc. Also bound in the same volume a series of non-religious papers, "The Spare Half Hour." 12mo, Cloth, 190 pp., 75 cents; Paper, 15 cents.

"The Clew of the Maze" means, with Mr. Spurgeon, the interpretation which every believer in the Bible can find in its pages for the perplexities of life.—The Brooklyn Eagle.

The Greatest Fight in the World ‡

A brilliant conference address, combating the prevalent anti-Biblical spirit and illustrating with great power the inspiration of the Scriptures. From the text "Fight the Good Fight of Faith"—1 Tim. vi. 12. 12mo, Leatherette, 64 pp. 35 cents.

It is a discourse of remarkable power, and maintains the plenary inspiration of the Bible from beginning to end. It will serve as an admirable tonic to all ministers and Christians generally, and especially to any who have had their faith shaken by theories of modern critics.—Lutheran Observer, Philadelphia.

The Salt-Cellars ‡

A selected collection of the best proverbs and quaint sayings with homely notes thereon, collected for twenty years from ancient and modern literature and folk-lore. Chosen and preserved with a view to their usefulness to teachers and speakers in giving point and force to moral lessons. 8vo, Cloth, 733 pp. $2.25.

The Salt of Proverbs is of great service if discreetly used in sermons and addresses; and I have hoped that these "Salt-Cellars" of mine may be resorted to by teachers and speakers, and that they may find them helpful.—Spurgeon in his Preface.

The Spare Half Hour ‡ (see "The Clew of the Maze").

Containing among other papers the following: Honeywood Park; Voices from Pompeii; Christ's Hospital; Ghost Stories for Christmas; St. Brelade's Bay; Sundew—a Strange Plant. (For price, etc., see "The Clew of the Maze.")

The Treasury of David ‡

An original exposition of the book of Psalms, containing also a collection of illustrative extracts from the entire range of literature, a series of homiletic hints upon almost every verse, and a reference list of writers upon each verse. Complete in seven volumes. 8vo, Cloth, per volume, $2.50; per set, $17.50. Sheep, per volume, $3.25; per set, $22.75. Sold separately (in Cloth binding only) or in the set.

Bible Selections for Daily Devotion

Its aim has been to bring together such devotional passages as will form a volume that can be opened at any place with the assurance that any and every passage will be found suited in character and length for readings before the home circle and other general gatherings. The contents comprise about one-third of the contents of the entire Bible. Appropriate readings are afforded for marriages, deaths, Christmas, Easter, Thanksgiving, etc. 12mo, Cloth, 686 pp. $1.00. Presentation Edition, bound in full Flexible Morocco, divinity circuit, gold on red edges. $2.50.

Any one who has felt the need of a volume that can be opened at any point with the assurance of finding a well-selected passage of Scripture suited in length and character for devotional reading will greatly appreciate this valuable and helpful book.—Christian Leader, Cincinnati.

The only book of its kind published, and of great value.—Herald and Presbyter, Cincinnati.

This volume meets a felt want among good people generally, who look with great apprehension upon the apparent decay of daily family worship.—The Lutheran Observer.

The work has been done with care, and will commend itself to those who think that such compilations are superior to the Bible itself.—The Congregationalist, Boston.

Five-Minute Object Sermons to Children

Mind and heart talks for children, presenting goodness to them in an attractive and winning manner. 12mo, Cloth, 256 pp. $1.00.

Sermonettes such as children are sure to appreciate.—The Christian Inquirer, New York.

They are unique, and will prove richly suggestive and helpful.—The Baptist, Baltimore.

We commend the book to all pastors and Sunday-school superintendents as a most valuable practical help in their work.—The Lutheran Observer, Philadelphia.

The book deserves a wide circulation, and will suggest to pastors a method of work that will bring the children into a closer relation to the services of the Sabbath.—The Christian Secretary, Hartford, Conn.

They are delightful and helpful beyond expression.—Herald of Gospel Liberty, Dayton, Ohio.

Methods of Church Work

Suggestions for the successful management of the church—religious, financial, social—for preachers of all denominations. The contents include practical helps for organization, saving the young, religious meetings, revivals, social meetings, pastors' aids, financial questions, benevolent work, etc., etc. 8vo, Cloth, 304 pp. $1.50.

It is stimulating, helpful, and worth its weight in gold to any minister who wishes to accomplish anything for the kingdom of Christ.—New York Christian Intelligencer.

There is hardly a phase of Christian labor within the limits of church development which does not find adequate and intelligent treatment.—The Outlook, New York.

It wastes no space in discussing the need of work in the perfecting of the Christian character; that it takes for granted. After spending but a few pages in enforcing the need of some real method in arrangement of church work, and in a second chapter discussing the value of the pulpit, pastoral work, praying bands, cards, etc., etc., in stirring a church into activity, our author plunges boldly into the practical work. . . . We heartily commend this book. It is clearly written. It is practical. It is rich in answers to questions occurring to every active pastor, as well as to every one interested in the active work and prosperity of God's cause.—Church Press, New York.

It covers all of the religious, social, and financial relations that are necessary to be provided for and met understandingly to build the Church firmly from the foundation, and maintain it in growing prosperity. It illustrates the importance of method in saving the youth in Sabbath and week-day service, revivals, literary and social meetings, benevolent work, etc., and in all financial matters.—The Globe, Boston, Mass.

Talks to the King's Children

A companion volume to "Five-Minute Object Sermons to Children," containing a collection of lessons from familiar, every-day objects, arranged like parables and worded in simple language. For use in the home, the Sunday-school, and the minister's study. 12mo, Cloth, 249 pp. $1.00.

The impressions made are likely to be lasting.—New York Observer.

Suggestive and spiritually, as well as mentally, refreshing.—Christian Statesman, Pittsburg.

The idea is unique, and the material original and highly suggestive. Apart altogether from their special adaptation to children, they will repay perusal as studies in the art of picturing.—Toronto Globe.

Very helpful to parents for Sabbath evening readings to children.—Episcopal Methodist, Baltimore.

Dr. Stall has found the right key to the situation.—Messiah's Herald, Boston.

There are simple, beautiful illustrations in this volume sufficient to last a preacher a whole year.—The Christian Leader, Cincinnati.

Standard Dictionary, The Funk & Wagnalls *

Is the result of the highest scholarship and expert skill of more than two hundred and fifty of the world's most distinguished scholars and specialists in all departments of knowledge. One hundred universities and colleges and twenty government experts are represented among its compilers. It contains 317,000 vocabulary terms (nearly 100,000 more than any other), 125,000 synonyms, 45,000 quotations, and an appendix of 225 pages. It cost nearly $1,100,000 to produce. It is recognized throughout the world as the dictionary which combines in the fullest degree both quality and quantity. Sheep, one volume, $12.00; indexed, $12.75. Subscription Edition: In one volume, Half Russia, $20.00; Full Russia, $23.00; Full Morocco, $27.00. In two volumes, Half Russia, $23.00; Full Russia, $27.00; Full Morocco, $31.00 (indexed), all net.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES.

COMMON MEANINGS GIVEN FIRST.—The common meaning of the word is given first, the rarer meanings and etymology afterward. This makes the Standard Dictionary easier to consult and more useful for practical purposes than any other dictionary.

DISPUTED SPELLINGS AND PRONUNCIATIONS have been dealt with more thoroughly than ever before. Not only were they referred to a committee of fifty-seven of the most eminent philologists in English, American, Canadian, Australian, and East-Indian universities for consideration, but the preferences of each member of the committee, and also of all other dictionaries, are given in a special appendix. This is an exclusive feature of the Standard Dictionary.

THE PROPER USE OF PREPOSITIONS has been explained with many illustrations throughout the Standard. This helpful feature is not equaled in other dictionaries.

A VALUABLE SYSTEM OF GROUP INDEXES is provided exclusively in the Standard Dictionary. By this system all the facts concerning important classes of words—such as coins, fruits, flowers, measures, weights, carpentry, printing, astronomy, colors, etc.—are easily ascertained.

COMPOUNDING AND SYLLABICATION OF WORDS have been, for the first time in dictionary-making, reduced to a scientific system in the Standard Dictionary.

THE PROPER USE OF CAPITAL INITIAL LETTERS is indicated throughout the vocabulary, only such words as should be written with a capital being so printed. No other dictionary is a guide in this matter.

THE SOURCES OF QUOTATIONS used to verify or illustrate the meanings of words have been fully indicated, so that any quotation can be easily found in the book or periodical from which it was taken.

THE MANY COLORED PLATES in the Standard are marvels of exquisite art work and definitive value, and far excel in number and beauty anything of the kind in other dictionaries.

THE APPENDIX, containing over 47,000 additional entries, brings together in one alphabetical order the important proper names that are pronounced and explained.

A VALUABLE DEPARTMENT OF "FAULTY DICTION" gives many examples of the wrong use of words, and corrects many common errors.

THE ATLAS OF THE WORLD, with 96 pages of the latest and best colored maps, is an extremely valuable feature of the Standard Dictionary. (In Subscription Edition Only.)

THE NEWEST WORDS INCLUDED.—Many thousands of important new words, brought into use by the various sciences, trades, etc., are exclusively recorded and defined in the Standard.

FULL LISTS OF SYNONYMS AND ANTONYMS.—To the important department of synonyms and antonyms the Standard Dictionary devotes more space than any other dictionary. The Standard is the only dictionary that gives antonyms.

PERMANENT CALENDAR; PORTRAITS OF EDITORS.—A perfect calendar for every year in the Christian era and the portraits of the staff of editors and specialists engaged in preparing the Standard Dictionary are provided. (In Subscription Edition Only.)

It passes the wit of man to suggest anything which ought to have been done that has not been done to make it a success.—Sir J. Norman Lockyer.

I regard it as a monumental work—a work perfect of its kind.—Hon. Justin McCarthy, M.P., famous Irish Historian.

In thoroughness, completeness, accuracy, typography, style, and illustration, it challenges criticism and commands admiration.—The Journal of Education, Boston.

It is the most perfect dictionary ever made in any language, and I have them and consult them in six different languages almost daily.—A. G. Wilkinson, Ph.D., Principal Examiner in the U. S. Patent Office.

The great value and importance of the work are apparent at the first glance.—Hon. John Hay, Secretary of State, Washington, D. C.

Clear, concise, accurate, comprehensive; at once scholarly and popular; admirably arranged, easy to consult; a delight to the eye and to the mind.—Prof. A. M. Wheeler, Yale University.

It is a triumph in the art of publication. It is the most satisfactory and most complete dictionary yet published.—The New York Herald.

I find the definitions not only correct, but wonderfully clear and terse.—Hon. Carroll D. Wright, U. S. Bureau of Statistics, Washington.

It is a noble example in which the modern tendency to popularize knowledge has risen to the highest level yet reached.—The Independent, New York.

Large 8vo, Cloth, Leather Back, 923 pp., $2.50. Full Leather, $4.00. Patent Thumb-Index, 50 cents extra, all net.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES.

COMPREHENSIVE VOCABULARY.—The vocabulary, which includes 62,284 terms, is of unusual scope, richness, and convenient arrangement.

SIMPLE PRONUNCIATION SYSTEM.—The system of pronunciation is simple and easily understood.

ACCURATE ILLUSTRATIONS.—Over 1,225 tasteful illustrations of high definitive value.

COMPOUNDING FEATURE.—The difference between compound words and broken words at ends of lines is invariably indicated.

APPENDIX FEATURES.—The Appendix embraces: Proper names in Biography, Fiction, History, Geography, etc.; Foreign Words and Phrases; Faulty Diction; Disputed Pronunciations; Chemical Elements; Titles and Degrees; Weights and Measures; Historical Data; Signs and Symbols; Common and Metric Systems, etc.

CAPITALIZATION FEATURE.—Only such words as require capital initial letters are capitalized, thus providing a sure guide for capitalization.

FULL AND EXACT DEFINITIONS.—The definitions are comprehensive, exact, and clear.

CLEAR ETYMOLOGIES.—All etymologies are traced back in direct line, there being no guesses or incursions into cognate languages.

PREPOSITIONS, SYNONYMS, AND ANTONYMS.—It provides over 1,000 prepositions, illustrating their correct use, and furnishes 8,000 synonyms and antonyms.

ENGLISH CLASSICS FEATURE.—Meanings of all words in the sixty volumes of Classics selected by the Commission of Colleges for Study preparatory to admission to the leading colleges and universities are included.

The most reliable, comprehensive, and convenient.—President D. H. Cochran, Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute.

It is to be preferred to all other dictionaries meant for office and desk use, and for scholars in high schools and academies.—Boston Herald.

Standard Dictionary, The Grammar-School * (Educational Series).

Standard Dictionary, The Comprehensive * (Commercial Series).

Abridged from the Funk & Wagnalls Standard Dictionary. A convenient and comprehensive dictionary for use in the intermediate school or for handy reference on the desk. It contains many exclusive advantages and gives in compact form the orthography, pronunciation, definition, and etymology of over 38,000 words and phrases. 800 pictorial illustrations. James C. Fernald, editor. 8vo, Cloth, 541 pp. $1.00. Patent Thumb-Index, 35 cents extra, net.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES.

A BROAD VOCABULARY including 38,000 terms specially arranged to meet the needs of teachers and students.

PRECISE INCLUSIVE DEFINITIONS.—The definitions are clear, exact, and inclusive, embracing the most recent meanings and distinctions.

ETYMOLOGIES GIVEN.—Etymologies are given in clear and simple form.

SPELLINGS AND PRONUNCIATIONS conform to those adopted by the best philologists.

CAPITALIZATION.—It capitalizes only such words as require capital initial letters.

THE COMPOUNDING SYSTEM invariably indicates the difference between hyphenated compounds and close compounds.

DEFINITIVE ILLUSTRATIONS.—Introduced for a purpose and highly definitive.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES are entered in tabular statement in their appropriate places; also a condensed exposition of the Metric System.

The vocabulary supplies all the needs that will arise in the public schools. The definitions alone make the dictionary superiory to those commonly used. There are no such disappointing features as the ordinary dictionary presents.—Boston Journal, Mass.

I deem your Standard Grammar-School Dictionary superior to any similar volume that has yet come under my notice. I fail to see any feature of the work that can not be commended. —Gen. James Grant Wilson, ex-President Society of American Authors.

A remarkably convenient and satisfying work. We have seen no better small dictionary of the English language than this.—The Times-Herald, Chicago.

The technical merits of the work are great, while in the vital matter of definition this dictionary is exceptionally clear and full.—Public Ledger, Philadelphia.

Shows an understanding of the requirements of the young student.—St. James's Budget, London.

This dictionary will promote and render easier the study of the English language in our schools. —The Evening Post, Chicago.

It can not fail to meet with wide acceptance. I appreciate especially the full account of derivations.—President Martin Kellogg, M.A., LL.D., University of California.

Very complete and inclusive. The definitions are vital and inspiring to new thoughts.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Standard Dictionary, The Introductory * (Educational Series).

Standard Dictionary, The Concise * (Commercial Series).

Abridged from the Funk & Wagnalls Standard Dictionary. This compact volume aims to provide an ideal concise dictionary for school or handy desk use. It gives the orthography, pronunciation, and meaning of about 28,000 words, with 500 pictorial illustrations. James C. Fernald, editor. 16mo, Cloth, 482 pp. 60 cents. Patent Thumb-Index, 35 cents extra, net.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES.

All the essential features of the Standard Dictionary and the Students' Standard Dictionary have been included in this work except the etymologies, which are necessarily omitted. Wherever possible the Standard's system of giving a definitive statement has been employed. Special care has been taken to put all definitions and statements in the simplest and clearest language possible consistent with accuracy. The appendix includes: rules for spelling; a summary of the money current in the chief countries; principles of the Scientific Alphabet; proper names; glossary of foreign words, phrases, etc., current in English literature; weights and measures; prefixes and suffixes; symbolic flowers and gems; abbreviations and contractions, etc.

Into an amazingly small space is condensed a great amount of information, useful alike in home, school, and business.—Bookseller, Newsdealer and Stationer, New York.

This is a capital little dictionary to have around the desk.—Philadelphia Press.

Every schoolboy and girl should have a copy. —The Baptist Union, Chicago.

It contains much in little. In the schoolroom or in the household, or near at hand to the student, its get-at-ableness is its best feature, for one has the assurance that its spelling and definitions are scholarly and up to date.—The Boston Times.

It has solved the problem of compressing essential information into the minimum of size. —Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Standard Family Physician, The  (ready Fall of 1905).

This work is a translation and American edition of Reissig's "Das Aerztliche Hausbuch," a work by thirty or forty leading German medical specialists. It has been edited and Americanized by equally eminent authorities in this country, including Dr. Smith Ely Jelliffe (Nervous Diseases, Professor of Pharmacognosy and Instructor in Materia Medica and Therapeutics Columbia University, Attending Neurologist City Hospital, Managing Editor Journal of Nervous and Mental Disease); Dr. Frank E. Miller (Nose and Throat, Consulting Laryngologist St. Joseph's Hospital, Consulting Laryngologist Metropolitan College of Music, Member of American Laryngological and Rhinological Association); Dr. Geo. R. Fowler (General Surgery, Consulting Surgeon St. Mary's Hospital, Surgeon Methodist Episcopal Hospital, Surgeon-in-Chief Brooklyn Hospital, Senior Surgeon German Hospital, Member American Surgical Association); Dr. Isadore Dyer (Genito-Urinary Diseases, Lecturer and Clinical Instructor in Dermatology Medical Department of Tulane University, Dermatologist to the Charity Hospital, Consulting Dermatologist Ear, Nose and Throat Hospital, Professor of Diseases of the Skin, New Orleans Polyclinic, Member of American Dermatological Association); Dr. G. R. Butler (Heart and Lungs, Attending Physician Methodist Episcopal Hospital, Author of "Diagnostics of Internal Medicine"); Dr. H. V. Wurdemann (Eye and Ear, Professor of Ophthalmology and Otology Milwaukee Medical College and Chief of Eye Clinic; Ophthalmic and Aural Surgeon Trinity Hospital, Milwaukee County Hospital, Children's Hospital, Milwaukee County Hospital for the Insane); Dr. Arthur R. Elliott (Internal Medicine); Dr. William A. White (Mental Diseases, Superintendent Government Hospital for the Insane, Washington, D. C., Professor of Nervous and Mental Diseases, Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., Professor and Clinical Professor of Mental Diseases, George Washington University, Washington, D. C.); Dr. Douglas W. Montgomery (Skin Diseases). While the text of the work is couched in clear, plain language, making it easily understood by the layman, the work is absolutely authoritative and is officially indorsed by the Congress of Physicians which recently convened at Rostock. It is the first medical book that has been compiled in a popular manner by recognized professors and physicians. It treats of the construction of the body; the origin, the diagnosis, and treatment of diseases; the relation of physician and patient. In the second part it gives in about one thousand pages alphabetically arranged all that is worth knowing about the origin, the course, treatment, and prevention of diseases; about nursing, nutrition; the several kinds of treatment (water, light, air, massage); first help in case of accident; the relation between vocation of the patient and the disease, and many other things. Nearly 500 illustrations, including 27 colored plates scientifically executed. Two volumes, Cloth. $10.00 per set, net.

Your epoch-making and excellent work has interested me so deeply that I can hardly lay it aside. . . . We were in great need of such an adviser in this country, and a long-felt want has at last been filled.—Count Douglas, Pres. of the Society for Public Hygiene, Berlin.

The book fulfils its purpose in a most excellent manner. It has been compiled by very able men, chiefly prominent experts. The contents are arranged in a practical manner. A great number of superior and instructive illustrations facilitate the comprehension and add to the explicitness.—Privy Councilor Prof. A. von Strümpell, M.D., Director of the Medical Clinic in Breslau.

Standard First Reader, The (see also under "Teachers' Manual").

This is the first book of the Funk & Wagnalls Standard Reader Series, and is the result of many years of careful labor and of consultation with prominent educators both in America and in England. Throughout the making of this Reader the editors have kept constantly in mind the fact that a child learns words by trying to understand or by trying to tell some thought, and that he will learn these words as readily if the thought is something worth while as if it is trivial. Of the various instructive thoughts preference is given in this Reader to those that give in-form-ation, that build character. Edited by Isaac K. Funk, LL.D. (Editor-in-Chief of the Standard Dictionary), and Montrose J. Moses, B.S. With illustrations by Charles M. Relyea, Louise L. Heustis, Harrie A. Stoner, Oliver J. Nugent, and music by Harriet Ware and Harvey Worthington Loomis. Square 12mo, Cloth, 112 pp. 35 cents.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES.

I. WORDS ARE TAUGHT IN CONNECTION WITH THOUGHT.

In teaching words to a child the words should not be separated from the thought, and the child should be kept as free as possible from self-consciousness.

II. PUPILS ARE LED TO THINK THOUGHTS THAT ARE WORTH KNOWING AND THAT BUILD CHARACTER.

It is the aim in this series of Readers to make each lesson instructive and character-building.

III. CAREFUL PROVISIONS ARE MADE FOR DRILLS IN THE VOWEL AND CONSONANT SOUNDS.

The object is to have the children, by the time they have finished the book, familiar with the sounds that make up the language.

IV. THE SCIENTIFIC ALPHABET, INVENTED AND RECOMMENDED BY THE LEADING PHILOLOGISTS OF AMERICA AND ENGLAND, IS USED FOR PRONUNCIATION PURPOSES; ONE SOUND FOR EACH SYMBOL, ONE SYMBOL FOR EACH SOUND.

This system of diacritics is superior to all other systems in simplicity, exactness, and thoroughness for training the pupils to pronounce the sounds of the language.

V. THE PUPIL IS TAUGHT TO DETECT AND PRODUCE THE SOUNDS THAT MAKE THE LANGUAGE.

Experiments made by the United States Commissioner of Education, W. T. Harris, show that reading based upon a phonetic system is more readily learned than reading taught without any phonetic system.

VI. THE AIM IS TO GET RID OF EVERYTHING THAT HINDERS CLEAR ENUNCIATION.

Effort should be made to detect and overcome every defect in the action of the organs of speech, such as drawling, stammering, and weakness of voice.

VII. THE ILLUSTRATIONS ARE BY THE VERY BEST ARTISTS, AND HELP TO EXPLAIN THE TEXT.

The aim has been to help fasten thought, not simply to make a picture.

VIII. EVERY EFFORT HAS BEEN MADE TO BRING THE CHILD IN CLOSE SYMPATHY WITH NATURE THROUGH NATURE LESSONS.

A First Reader, especially, is fatally faulty that does not smell of the earth, of the woods, of the new-mown hay, of flowers.

IX. SIX SONGS, SPECIALLY COMPOSED BY MUSICAL EXPERTS, ARE USED IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE PHONETIC DRILLS.

A staff of music is given with each lesson, and all the staves under one group of sounds make a complete song.

X. THE SCRIPT LETTERS USED ARE SO SIMILAR TO PRINT AS TO MAKE THE LEARNING OF SCRIPT INCIDENTAL; THIS LEADS TO NO CONFUSION.

XI. EFFORTS ARE MADE TO INSPIRE PATRIOTISM, HONESTY, COURAGE, CONSCIENCE, INDUSTRY, LOVE FOR FELLOWS, THE BEGINNINGS OF PUBLIC SPIRIT; TO MAKE THE PUPILS SELF-DEPENDENT AND RESOURCEFUL.

No better service can be rendered a child than to give him noble thoughts of his being and of his destiny.

XII. THE TEACHERS' MANUAL, WHICH ACCOMPANIES THE FIRST READER, PRESENTS SUGGESTIVE MATERIAL FOR ALL LESSONS.

A marvel of attractiveness and good sense. Founded upon best methods of the new education and in accord with advanced psychological theories.—The Bulletin, Norwich, Conn.

No other word than "charming" will apply to the appearance of this text-book. No other word than "admirable" will describe its methods. It should be in every school.—The Courier-Journal, Louisville, Ky.

It is the most ambitious attempt in the direction thus far noted. Every aid that it is possible to arrange and that will assist the child has been brought out, and all in a scientific manner. It is the greatest First Reader ever published, and ought to be used in the Cleveland schools.—The Daily World, Cleveland, O.

A book that ought to inspire any teacher.—The Boston Times, Boston, Mass.

It is a text-book triumph.—The Brooklyn Eagle, Brooklyn, N. Y.

At last we have the scientific, practical, pedagogical primer. . . . The book makes a distinct and new epoch in the production of primary readers.—Education, Boston, Mass.

Represents a new idea in education.—The Spy, Worcester, Mass.

If a teacher using your book and following your Manual does not accomplish as much in one year as is usually done in three, something is radically wrong with the teacher and not with the book.—Leo Elskamp, Principal, McKinley, Minn.

Standard First Reader, The

Phonetic Edition

On account of a demand for a First Reader entirely in phonetics, the Funk & Wagnalls Standard First Reader has been issued in a new form for the advocates of a phonetic system. This new edition contains all the features to be found in the common edition of the Standard First Reader with but a few changes where absolutely necessary. Adhering entirely to the phonetic idea, this edition of the Standard First Reader contains only those spellings that are in phonetic forms; but it is so arranged that the Teachers' Manual, published with the common edition of the Reader, may be used to advantage with the Phonetic Reader. 12mo, Cloth, 112 pp. 35 cents.

Standard Second Reader, The

The second book of the Funk & Wagnalls Standard Reader Series contains many distinguishing features of great practical value. It adheres to the idea that only those thoughts are worth remembering that give in-form-ation, that build character, and the editors have aimed to give unity to the entire text of the book by preparing lessons along definite lines. Edited by Isaac K. Funk, LL.D. (Editor-in-Chief of the Standard Dictionary), and Montrose J. Moses, B.S. With illustrations by Reginald B. Birch, Dan Beard, Carter Beard, Oliver J. Nugent, Charles M. Relyea, etc. 12mo, Cloth, 208 pp. 50 cents.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES.

I. The Second Reader aims to be a literary reader without confining itself entirely to literary subjects.

II. Six systematic lessons on simple subjects in science, easily demonstrated by actual experiments in the classroom, are introduced.

III. Six lessons on flowers, with full-page colored illustrations, make the pupil familiar with some of the common flowers of field and home.

IV. Six lessons dealing with trees tell in story-form and in description much about some of the most familiar trees. These lessons are accompanied by accurate pictures.

V. Six lessons introduce some of the most common animals in such a way as to give the pupil a clear idea of the difference between domestic and wild animals.

VI. In this practical age it is well for children to become familiar with some of the crafts that have entered into and furthered the progress of the nation. Six lessons dealing with crafts have been written with this idea in mind.

VII. The child of seven or eight begins to take interest in the past. Six lessons dealing with events in American history have been carefully graded.

VIII. In literature, lessons have been based upon Washington Irving and his "Knickerbocker History of New York"; Tennyson and his "Idylls of the King"; Longfellow and his stories of "Hiawatha"; Shakespeare and the story of "As You Like It" told from the nature standpoint.

IX. In the belief that where it is possible, subjects taken from literature should be told by the literary men themselves, many quotations showing the simplicity of great literary style have been taken directly from the masters; hence, quotations from Benjamin Franklin, John Ruskin, John Burroughs, and from the poets will be found throughout the book.

X. With the idea that the imagination of a child is dependent largely upon fables, many of the lessons deal with some of the most familiar legends in literature. The story of Lohengrin is told in simple language; many of Æsop's fables have been given in full, all illustrated with pictures that lend themselves readily to special talks by the teacher.

XI. Believing likewise that children enjoy reading for the mere fun of reaching quaint ideas many poems and jingles, to be read and to be memorized, are introduced throughout the book.

XII. Believing also that hands at times should be as busy as brains, a graded series of drawing lessons have been introduced dealing with the simple elements of drawing.

XIII. Each lesson has had a special illustration made for it. Carter Beard, Dan Beard, and Oliver J. Nugent have done some of the nature-drawings; Edwin Willard Deming, the famous Indian artist, has been employed for the lessons on Indian life; Reginald Birch of "Lord Fauntleroy" fame has done some of his best work for the "King Arthur" and "As You Like It" lessons. These are but a few instances to show the care with which the book, from an artistic standpoint, has been prepared.

XIV. The strong educational features so marked in the Funk & Wagnalls First Reader have been further advanced along the same lines in the second book. The Scientific Alphabet is used to a limited degree for pronunciation purposes only, and pronunciation drills and phonetic drills have been carefully mapped out.

XV. All of the lessons have been specially prepared with the idea that they are to appeal to children of a certain age. The editors believe that children will learn only so far as they become interested in a subject. They believe that a simple vocabulary should be aimed at, but that simplicity should not sink into a simpleness that makes the text stiff and artificial. Children are very susceptible to style, without knowing definitely what is meant by the word.

XVI. A Teachers' Manual has been specially prepared to go with this Reader. In it are to be found valuable suggestions regarding the manner of treatment in each lesson, with references to classroom literature, outlines of stories, outlines for lessons apart from those given in the Reader, bibliographies of nature-books, song-books, fables, etc.

Brooklyn Tabernacle

A collection of 104 sermons. In one vol., Crown 8vo, Cloth, 406 pp. $1.50.

Dr. Talmage's discourses lay hold of my inmost soul. The Lord is with this mighty man of valor. So may he ever be till the campaign closes with victory! I am indeed glad of his voice. It cheers me intensely. He loves the gospel, and believes in something, which some preachers hardly do. There are those about who use the old labels, but the articles are not the same. May the Lord win armies of souls to Jesus by this man! I am astonished when God blesses me, but somehow I should not be so much surprised if He blessed this man.—Rev. C. H. Spurgeon.

Sermons

A collection of sermons preached in the Tabernacle, Brooklyn. 12mo, Cloth, $2.00 per volume.

Vol. III.—OLD WELLS DUG OUT. Containing 24 sermons. 432 pp.

Vol. IV.—EVERY-DAY RELIGION. Containing 33 sermons. 420 pp.

These sermons I regard as among the best specimens of the simple, earnest, and pungent presentation of the solemn and precious truths of the gospel. They have a fertility of illustration that is marvelous.—E. D. G. Prime, D.D., in the New York Observer.

The Marriage Ring

A volume of 15 sermons on marriage, family ties, and duties. 12mo, Cloth, 192 pp. $1.00.

There is a solid substratum of common sense underneath these sermons, and they contain many practical suggestions, the adoption of which makes life's burdens easier, and leads to closer and more enduring family relations.—The Record, Philadelphia.

Taylor, George Lansing, D.D.

Elijah the Reformer

A ballad-epic and other sacred and religious poems. 12mo, Cloth, 281 pp. $1.50.

Their chief claims upon the general reader are the devoutness and their spirited style.—The Congregationalist, Boston.

His epic, "Elijah," is a sublime poem, exhibiting the power of a master in its high imagination and its well-sustained execution. His minor poems are gems of "sweetness and delight."—Bradford K. Pierce, D.D.

Teachers' Manuals for the Standard First and Second Readers

(Containing an Introduction for the entire Series. See also Standard First and Second Readers.)

They contain suggestive material for every lesson to be found in the Standard First and Second Readers. The material is only intended as an aid to the teacher, and is not necessarily binding in any way. References to supplementary reading and numerous ideas are presented, which the teacher may either use or discard as she sees fit. Edited by Isaac K. Funk, D.D., LL.D. (Editor-in-Chief of the Standard Dictionary), and Montrose J. Moses, B. S. 16mo, Cloth. 50 cents each.

Is replete with suggestive thought and useful information for teachers.—Education, Boston, Mass.

These outlines, if carefully followed, will entertain as well as benefit the children, and relieve the teacher of the annoyance attendant upon poorly prepared and uninteresting work. . . . Example of sound sense and good taste.—The Times-Union, Albany, N. Y.

It is very detailed and discusses pedagogically, but practically, withal, the principles which should guide the teacher in the use of the Reader. —School Journal, Denver, Col.

One is compelled to admire the remarkable quality and quantity of the work embodied in the Teachers' Manual. . . . It supplements in every way the resources of the Reader.—Ideas, Boston, Mass.

VOL. 25–26. Essays, Letters, and Short Articles.

All in all it is excellent—the edition and the remarks, and chiefly the translation, and yet more the conscientiousness with which all this has been done.—Democrat and Chronicle, Rochester.

The edition will serve an excellent purpose. It is convenient in form, and is based upon a common-sense system of translation so that the roughness of the Russian names is somewhat smoothed away.—Evening Star, Washington.

Tolstoy's Letters and Essays ‡

Containing new translations and fresh matter translated by Aylmer Maude. 12mo, Cloth, 372 pp. $1.00.

As an interpreter, Mr. Maude is excellent, and his earlier chapters have real value in establishing exactly what Tolstoy has meant by his religious speculations and his moral reforms.—The Saturday Review.

What is Art? ‡

An essay considering the important constituents, relations, and influences of true art, including, among other topics, Time and Labor Spent on Art; Does Art Compensate for so Much Evil? Is it "That Which Produces Beauty"? Summary of Various Esthetic Theories and Definitions from Baumgarten to To-day; Tolstoy's Definition of Art; The Extent and Necessity of Art; How Art for Pleasure Has Come into Esteem; Decadent Art; Counterfeits of Art; The Quality of Art; Results of the Absence and Perversion of True Art; The Connection Between Science and Art, etc. As the translator says in the introduction, "The basis on which this work rests is a perception of the meaning of human life." Translated by Aylmer Maude. Small 12mo, Cloth, 268 pp. 80 cents.

Tozier, Josephine

Dr. Wide's work should be in the library of every physician and in the hands of every layman who desires to develop himself toward physical perfection.—Health Culture, New York.

It is a very important work for the teacher of athletics and gymnastics for curative purposes. It is a good work for doctors and masseurs.—Baptist Commonwealth, Philadelphia.

Wilder, Marshall P.

The Sunny Side of the Street **

A collection of experiences, anecdotes, observations, etc., relating to the humorous and, to some extent, the pathetic in life, by the well-known "Prince of Entertainers and Entertainer of Princes"—Marshall P. Wilder. It is prefaced with an alphabetical list of about 300 notables to whom reference is made in the text. 12mo, Cloth. $1.20, net; by mail, $1.32.

Mr. Wilder has his own way of getting the greatest amount of comic capital out of his anecdotes. When he arrives at the point he gives it very quietly. . . . The line where the laugh ought to "come in" is no more strongly accentuated than its predecessors. His humor breathes of pure refinement. —The Late Clement Scott in London Daily Telegraph.

Wilkinson, Prof. William Cleaver, D.D.

A Free Lance in the Field of Life and Letters

A series of literary essays on the literary and ethical qualities of George Eliot's novels, Lowell's prose and poetry, Bryant's poetry, the character and literary influence of Erasmus, etc. 12mo, Cloth, 346 pp. $1.25.

Edwin Arnold as Poetizer and as Paganizer

Containing an examination of "The Light of Asia" for its literature and for its Buddhism. 12mo, Cloth, 177 pp., 75 cents; Paper, 15 cents.

His examination is all the better for the excellent spirit in which it is conducted, the good-natured humor and wit it brings into play, and the nice turn given to many of his hardest hits.—The Independent, New York.

Modern Masters of Pulpit Discourse **

Trenchant yet sympathetic appreciations and criticisms of many of the greatest preachers in America and England. It includes vivid descriptions of the pulpit methods and personal qualities of such men as Beecher, Liddon, and Phillips Brooks. 8vo, Cloth. $1.60, net; by mail, $1.75.

The Dance of Modern Society

The dance considered in its bearing upon health, intellectual improvement, its religious aspects, and its social tendency. 12mo, Cloth, 78 pp. 60 cents.

We know no writer who equals him in the courage with which he handles the most delicate and difficult of subjects.—Independent, New York.

The Epic of Paul

An epic poem detailing the life of Saint Paul. A companion volume, and similar in style to "The Epic of Saul." 8vo, Cloth, gilt top, 722 pp. $2.00.

The story is skilfully told, and the interest in it is never allowed to flag.—Prof. A. H. Sayce, Oxford University.

The Epic of Saul

An epic poem detailing the life of Saul of Tarsus. 8vo, Cloth, gilt top, 390 pp. $1.50. (Price of "Epic of Paul" and "Epic of Saul," if ordered together, $3.00.)

It is a poem to be read and reread—a poem that will live a century hence.—Bishop J. H. Vincent.

Wilkinson's Course of Foreign Classics

It is the aim of these books to supply a comprehensive course in classics for the many who are prevented from accomplishing a course of school or college training in this important department of education. The course is useful for those who are unfamiliar with the foreign languages and as supplementary reading for students in schools and colleges. In six volumes. 12mo, Cloth, with maps and illustrations, per vol., $1.50; per set, $9.00; Three-quarters Leather, $2.50 per vol.; $15.00 per set.

Willard, Frances E.

How to Win

Helpful talks to girls, including The New Ideal of Manhood; The Beautiful; The Decalogue of Natural Law; At What Age Shall Girls Marry? The New Ideal of Womanhood; Aimless Reveries vs. A Resolute Aim; Woman's Opportunity in Journalism; The New Profession. Introduction by Rose E. Cleveland. 12mo, Cloth, 133 pp. $1.00.

Crowded with wise counsels administered so brightly and lightly that the recipients will infallibly swallow them like bon-bons.—Frances Power Cobbe, London.

This book will be eagerly welcomed by a multitude of girls, and can not fail to do them good. —Woman's Journal, Boston.

Its tone is healthy and true.—Phillips Brooks.

Williams, W. Mattieu, F.R.A.S.

Science in Short Chapters ‡

Talks on topics of scientific interest. 12mo, Cloth, 308 pp., $1.00; Paper, 25 cents.

Written in clear and simple style.—Journal of Education, Boston.

Wilson, Andrew

Scientific Papers (see "Nature Studies").

Wilson, John Laird

John Wycliffe: Patriot and Reformer

The story of his life. 12mo, Cloth, 247 pp., $1.00; Paper, 25 cents.

This is the fullest, fairest, most accurate, and most connected memoir.—William M. Taylor, D.D.

Winks, William E.

Lives of Illustrious Shoemakers ‡

Brief biographies of the more famous of the craft, including Sir Cloudesley Shovel, Samuel Bradburn, William Gifford, Robert Bloomfield, Samuel Drew, William Carey, John Pounds, Thomas Cooper, St. Crispin, and many others. Illustrated. 12mo, Cloth, 287 pp., $1.00; Paper, 25 cents.

An exceedingly good idea, capitally worked. No better stories of real life have ever been compiled. They have life and vigor. It is a really novel and good book.—The Herald, New York.

The writer of this book well understands how to write biography.—Presbyterian Observer.

Winslow, Forbes, D.C.L.

Youthful Eccentricity a Precursor of Crime

It discusses the early causes of crime and contains expert advice for correcting prejudicial influences. The author describes the most important institutions which tend to promote criminal instincts in the minds of the young, and he points out the best ways of combating these forces. 16mo, Cloth, 103 pp. 50 cents.

The book is worth perusal by those interested in the management and education of children, especially of those children who come of neurotic families.—Lancet, London.

Winter, John Strange

The Little Vanities of Mrs. Whittaker

A captivating story by the author of "Bootle's Baby," telling in the author's lightest and brightest style the love story of Regina Whittaker—an original heroine with a bias toward independent thought and action in every sphere of life. The incidents leading her to suspect her husband's faithlessness and the complications which resulted are narrated with fine comedy and frequent touches of pathos. 12mo, Cloth, ornamental covers, 300 pp. $1.00.

Any one reading a novel by John Strange Winter can be sure of being amused with delicious satire, good-natured ridicule, and emphatically excellent character-drawing. . . . This novel of English domestic life is brisk and amusing, unobtrusively preaching some timely sermons, so plentifully coated with pleasant incidents that their morals are assimilated unconsciously. It is a very delightful picture of domestic trials and pleasures, and should be much appreciated.—Philadelphia Item.

Woolley, John G.

Seed: Number One Hard

Six temperance speeches. Introduction by Frances E. Willard and Lady Henry Somerset. 12mo, Cloth, 157 pp. $1.00.

This book is eloquent. . . . It ought to sell by the thousand.—The Religious Herald, Hartford.

The speeches will aid the cause of temperance very much.—The Cleveland Leader.

Wright, Joseph N.

The Patience of Hope

And Other Sermons. With a brief life of the author. Edited by Oliver J. Thatcher. 12mo, Cloth, 224 pp. $1.25.

These sermons are lucid, pathetic, inspiring, beautiful in diction and practical in application. —Western Recorder, Louisville, Ky.

The book is full of suggestive thought, and it is worthy of an appreciative reading.—The Christian Advocate, Nashville, Tenn.

Wright, Dr. J. T.

First Lessons in Chess

Practical Instructions on Position of the Pieces, Game Notation, Notation of Solution, the Forsyth Notation, How to Solve a Problem, Questions Answered, etc. 16mo, pamphlet. 10 cents.

Yarrow, William H.

Life and Works of Rev. C. H. Spurgeon ‡

Introduction by J. Stanford Holme, D.D. Illustrated. 8vo, Paper, 100 pp. 20 cts.

Young, Robert, LL.D.

A Concise Commentary on the Holy Bible *‡

Being a companion to the new translation of the Old and New Covenants (see "Bible Translation" below). Especially designed for those teaching the Word of God, whether preachers, catechists, Scripture readers, district visitors, Sabbath-school teachers, or heads of families. 8vo, Cloth, 802 pp. $3.00, net.

The most complete concordance in the English language.—Philip Schaff, D.D., LL.D.

It is thoroughly sound and trustworthy, showing accurate scholarship and unsparing research. —Clergyman's Magazine.

An invaluable aid to the study of the Scriptures. The volume is one which can well challenge comparison with all its competitors.—The Scotsman.

Bible Lexicons *‡

Being Hebrew-English and Greek-English lexicons to the original Scriptures of the Old and New Covenants, exhibiting all the varied renderings of each word in the English version, and the number of their occurrences; with a Romanized index; also a treatise on the idiomatic use of the Hebrew tenses, analytical surveys of the books, the facts, and the idioms of the Bible. New edition, revised and corrected throughout. Large 8vo, Cloth, 141 pp. $2.50, net.

We commend the volume to the general public but with earnest emphasis to those whose business it is to expound the Scriptures to others.—Christian World, London, England.

Those who are acquainted with the book will wonder how a student can possibly do without it.—The Christian Standard, Philadelphia.

There can be no question of the vast merits of this work. Such a work is simply indispensable, and none are worth using but the very best.—The Congregationalist, Boston.

We could give no better advice to the Bible student than to advise him to secure a copy.—The Interior, Chicago.

Bible Translation *‡

The Holy Bible, Consisting of the Old and New Covenants. Translated according to the letter and idioms of the original languages. 8vo, Cloth, 780 pp. $4.00, net. Second edition revised.

The style throughout is strikingly picturesque and frequently dramatic, while many of the emendations are peculiarly felicitous.—Rev. Adam Stuart Muir, D.D., Leith.

A translation of the Scriptures would be of invaluable use that would be an exact counterpart of the Hebrew; in a word, causing the Scriptures to present to the English reader not only the same general meaning, but even the same minute shades of thought and feeling which they present to those familiar with the original tongues. Mr. Young's translation seems to be admirably adapted to meet this want.—Rev. W. G. Blaikie, D.D.

Young, Robert, LL.D.—Continued.

Young's Analytical Concordance to the Bible *‡

Seventh edition, thoroughly revised and containing 8,000 changes. It includes 311,000 references, making 30,000 New Testament readings. It gives the original Hebrew or Greek of any word in the English Bible with the literal meaning of each, together with parallel passages. This is the only authorized edition in America. In one volume, 4to, Cloth, 1,108 pp., $5.00; Tan Sheep, $7.50; Half Morocco, $9.00; Full Morocco, $12.00, all net. With Denison Thumb-Index, 75 cents extra. With Bible Lexicon (see description, p. 100), Cloth, $6.50, net.

FEATURES OF THE CONTENTS.

ITS ANALYTICAL CHARACTER.—It gives at a glance the various shades of meaning of related words represented in the English by one word. ARRANGEMENT OF PROPER NAMES.—The proper names of all persons and places, unlike most concordances, are given in their alphabetical order with meanings. Dates and eras of all persons are also given, so that they may be distinguished from others of the same name. USEFUL FEATURES FOR STUDENTS.—It enables every student to be his own commentator even if he has no knowledge of the Greek or Hebrew languages. ESPECIALLY HELPFUL ARRANGEMENT.—Every word is given in alphabetical order, and arranged under its Hebrew or Greek original, with the literal meaning of each, and its pronunciation. VALUABLE COMPLEMENTARY ARTICLES.—Helpful supplemental articles add value to this Concordance. The Rev. Thomas Nicol, B.D., of Edinburgh, contributes "A Sketch of Recent Explorations in Bible Lands," outlining the results of recent topographical and archeological investigations in their bearing upon Scriptures. There are also 71 instructive "Hints and Helps on Bible Interpretation."

This monumental work has been made as complete and perfect as could be desired. It has stood the test of the severest criticism. It is adapted to the wants of students of every class. . . . A standard book.—The New York Observer.

Young's Concordance has been for some years a much-prized book of reference in this office, and we could ill afford to exchange it for an inferior substitute.—The Watchman, Boston.

There can be no question of the vast merits of this work. Such a work is simply indispensable, and none are worth using but the very best.—The Congregationalist, Boston.

It is unquestionably the best and most complete work of the kind ever published.—The Episcopal Recorder, Philadelphia.

Not a mere concordance—it is that and a great deal more; . . . it is a wonder how a student can possibly do without it.—Christian Standard.

It is a masterpiece of our time. Any Bible student will find it invaluable.—The Religious Telescope, Dayton, Ohio.

The most accurate, comprehensive, and best work of its kind in all respects that has ever appeared in the English language.—Lutheran Observer, Philadelphia.

Zabriskie, Francis N.

Horace Greeley: The Editor

Vol. II. of "American Reformers" Series. With portrait and copious index. 12mo, Cloth, 398 pp. $1.50.

This new biography of Greeley is worthy to stand beside the biographies of Henry Clay by Carl Schurz and of Patrick Henry by Professor Moses Coit Tyler.—The Evangelist, New York.

So vividly portrayed as to give us a striking picture of the man.—The Brooklyn Citizen.

A book which the young, especially the boys, will surely read with interest and profit.—The Chicago Post.

A very fresh, readable account of the life of this eccentric and remarkable man.—The St. Louis Central Baptist.

Zangwill, Israel

Blind Children ‡

The essentially poetic character of Mr. Zangwill's genius in his prose writings has been recognized by the critics. This volume, the first book of poems which Mr. Zangwill has published, supports the truth of this criticism in a remarkable manner. The material of the collection is largely personal, the spirit is imaginative, and the message which reaches his readers is subconscious in its revelation. 12mo, Cloth, ornamental covers, 141 pp. $1.20.

A broad intellectuality flows steadily along, absorbing little rivulets of humor, pathos, keen analysis, wholesome criticism, and practical ideas, forming a definitive connection between the apparently widely separated themes of the poems.—Philadelphia Item.

The strength and depth of their meaning will recur over and over again. . . . The material is largely personal, but wrought together with lively imagination and a subtle charm, which descends to wonderful depths without the slightest effort.—Washington Post.

Zenos, Prof. Andrew C., D.D.

The Elements of the Higher Criticism

The object of this work is not to advocate or oppose any set of theories, but to state and explain the principles and methods of the higher criticism, with reference to the large and growing periodical and book literature on the subject. 12mo, Cloth, 268 pp. $1.00.

While the work is neither a plea nor a philippic, it is eminently reassuring as to the Divine Source of the Holy Scriptures, the Bible.—Arena, Boston.

This is a book of intense interest to all religious folk.—George A. Hepworth, D.D., in the New York Herald.

Zwemer, Samuel M., D.D., F.R.G.S.

Raymund Lull

The life story of the first Christian missionary who carried the gospel to the Moslems. The record of Raymund Lull's life reads like a romance. From the dissolute life of a gay knight in the Court of King James II. of Aragon, he became a monk. So numerous were his literary productions on philosophy, sociology, logic, and theology that their number is unknown. His daring trips to Africa, his unflinching courage, his great strength of faith, his intense suffering, and his tragic death after fifty years of saintly devotion to his mission of converting the Saracens to Christianity, all form some of the most glowing pages in the lives of the world's illustrious Christian heroes. 12mo, Cloth, ornamental covers, 172 pp., 12 full-page half-tone illustrations, introduction by Robert E. Speer, complete bibliography, etc. 75 cents.

It appeals strongly to those who love the heroic, and are fascinated by a picturesque personality.—Chicago Evening Post.

The story is one of the most dramatic in the annals of missions.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Told in Dr. Zwemer's inimitable style, and with the scope and grasp supplied by his almost unequaled understanding of things Mohammedan, this little biography is sure to be of great value to the cause in behalf of which it was written.—The Mission Field.

It is with fellowship of spirit that the author introduces his readers to this hero of the thirteenth century, this little-known man who ranks among the greatest missionaries of all ages.—The Children's Missionary, Baltimore.

This admirable biography emphasizes Lull's own motto: "He who lives by the life can not die!"—Boston Times.

Trade Department

The books listed in this department are, with few exceptions, also published in school editions and described in that form in another part of this catalogue.

These books are for sale in the trade and may be had through all booksellers. Since they are expensive and are not designed or adapted for text-book use, it will be easily understood that it is not practicable to extend, in connection with these books, the usual privilege of examination copies.

IN our work of presenting the best books for the schools we have acquired a large number of standard books of the highest worth. In response to numerous suggestions, some of these books have been prepared so as to attract and satisfy the book buyer as distinguished from the teacher. The book buyer and teacher may be combined in the same individual, who, however, would choose, in buying a book for his own library or to present to a friend, whether child or adult, a different binding from that which would be preferred for the harder usage of the class room. A few books of standard quality are included which are not in our text-book catalogue, but the list is distinctly educational in the highest sense. We appeal in this department of our business to that great educational public which labors and aspires outside or beyond the confines of the schoolroom of whatever grade.

The following books are not better than our text-books, but they are just as good in a different way. Certain limitations as to price, which must always be considered in making a text-book, are not felt so keenly in a book for general sale. Hence it has been possible to employ more expensive bindings, costlier paper, in some cases, and in general more profuse illustration. In quality of contents and attractiveness of presentation the following books will, we are confident, meet the highest demands of a critical public.

THE JANE ANDREWS BOOKS

THESE famous books, which have had the unusual honor of being translated into German, Chinese, and Japanese, are among the few juvenile stories that have won a permanent place in literature.

The Seven Little Sisters Who Live on the Round Ball that Floats in the Air

By JANE ANDREWS. 12mo. Cloth. xxiv + 121 pages. 7 full-page illustrations. 60 cents net.

THE ANTIQUARY'S BOOKS.

8vo, cloth, gilt, $3.00 net per vol.

ENGLISH MONASTIC LIFE. By Abbot Gasquet, O.S.B., D.D., Ph.D., D.Litt. In these pages the daily round of the old life of English monks and nuns is fully set forth, together with interesting details as to their various officials and methods of administration. Illustrations are given of the habits of the various orders, as well as plates taken from old MSS., ground plans of important houses, and maps showing the distribution of the different monasteries. A full and accurate list of the whole of the English religious houses (including the hospitals) suppressed at the Reformation is for the first time set forth, together with indications of the cases in which there are extant remains.

REMAINS OF THE PREHISTORIC AGE IN ENGLAND. By Prof. B. C. A. Windle, D.Sc., F.R.S. This book is intended to give an account of the present state of knowledge respecting the relics of prehistoric man in this country. Though chiefly dealing with objects found in England, where necessary, descriptions have been given of discoveries made in other parts of the kingdom and of the world. The object of the writer has been to confine himself, as far as possible, to ascertained facts, and to leave theories aside, but matters of present controversy, such as the question of eoliths and that of the transition between the Palæolithic and Neolithic periods, have been fully dealt with. Lists of the most important objects of large size have been added to the chapters dealing with them, and there is also a list of museums in this country in which collections of the smaller objects are on view. The book is illustrated by nearly one hundred figures, all of which have been specially drawn for it, and most of which have not previously appeared elsewhere.

OLD SERVICE BOOKS OF THE ENGLISH CHURCH. By Christopher Wordsworth, M.A., and Henry Littlehales. A clear description of the plan and contents of all the various service-books in use in the English Church before the Reformation. The descriptions have been written mainly from the books themselves, often from those known to have been formerly in use in specified parish churches. One whole page of every important service-book is given in facsimile, and reproductions of illuminations have also been supplied, some of which depict services taking place.

CELTIC ART. By J. Romilly Allen, F.S.A. "Celtic Art" embodies the results of the most recent researches with regard to the peculiarly Celtic phases of "Hallstatt" and "La Tène" culture on the continent of Europe and their extension to Great Britain in the Ages of Bronze and Iron. An endeavor is made to show the effects produced in the art of the Celtic peoples in pagan times, by their coming in contact on the one hand with the lower culture of the Neolithic aborigines of Britain, and on the other with higher civilizations of the Mediterranean nations. Lastly, it is explained how the decorative motives which the Pagan Celt had observed from various sources were incorporated in the art of the Christian period.

ARCHAEOLOGY AND FALSE ANTIQUITIES. By Robert Munro, M.D., LL.D. The main object of this work is to show how modern methods of Comparative Archæology may be utilized as a means of detecting erroneous conclusions, whether founded on imperfect observations, false statements, or the actual forgery of objects. A brief account is given of a number of discoveries in various parts of the world which have become the subject of controversy, as well as some notable forgeries. Then follows a criticism of the so-called "idols," "totems," "churingas," etc., recently found in the Clyde valley, which are still the subject of acute controversy. The concluding chapter deals with the lessons to be derived from the above narrative of the results of ignorance, fraud, and imposture.

SHRINES OF BRITISH SAINTS. By J. Charles Wall. "Shrines of British Saints" deals with a class of monuments which, throughout the Middle Ages, was of magnetic attraction, largely governing the social and religious life of the nation, but which has all but ceased to exist in the British Isles. From illumined page and fragmentary sculpture the style and structure of shrines is here set forth. The art bestowed upon them, the influence they had upon the designs of cathedrals and great churches, and the legends surrounding them, form a subject of no mean value in the life of Englishmen.

Library of Liturgiology and Ecclesiology:

Hierurgia Anglicana. Part I.—Documents and extracts illustrative of the Ceremonial of the Anglican Church since the Reformation. A new edition of a very famous work, published by the Cambridge Camden Society in 1848, and now revised, enlarged, and classified by the Very Rev. Vernon Staley. Of the 500 extracts in Part I. of this edition, 200 are new. A copious index has been added. The matters dealt with in Part I. are: The Font—Chancels and Rood-screens—The Altar and its Ornaments—Vestments, etc. Demy 8vo, xxii. +280 pp., fourteen Illustrations *3.00

Hierurgia Anglicana. Part II.—Documents and Extracts relating to the following:—Processions—The Eastward Position of Ministers—The Position of Ministers in the Choir—Reverences—The Sign of the Cross—The Eucharistic Element—Incense—Flowers—Funeral Ceremonies—Miscellaneous Items... *3.00

Hierurgia Anglicana. Part III.—Penitential Discipline — Reconciliation of Churches—Confession and Absolution—Fasting before Communion, Fasting Days, Licenses to eat flesh on Fasting Days—Seasons for Marriage—Declaration on Sunday sports, May games, Morris dance, Dedication Feasts—Prayer for the faithful departed, Celebration of the Eucharist at Funerals, Invocations of Saints—The Healing—Prayer before and after Sermons—The Occasional Prayers—Hours of Service—the Calendar—Survival of Ancient Designations of Holy Days—Occurrence of Holy Days—Answer to Leo XIII. on English Ordination — Various Declarations—Charges against Caroline Divines—Opinions of Dr. Pusey and other theologians on Modern Roman practices, etc..... *3.00

The First Prayer Book of King Edward VI. 2.00

"This is a reprint verbatim literatim of the First English Book of Common Prayer, issued in the year 1549. There have been other reprints, some of which were marked by great carelessness. After careful collation with an original copy, we are able to say that the editing here has been done with scrupulous accuracy. The typography is admirable. In these days, when theological and ecclesiological questions pertaining to the religious disputes of the sixteenth century are again debated with so much earnestness, it will be a boon to have so trustworthy an edition ready to hand, especially as the print makes it a pleasure to turn over the pages." —Athenaeum.

FICTION

ROBERT T. BENTLEY

FORESTFIELD

A Story of the Old South

12mo, Cloth, Illustrated, $1.50

The story gives two distinct and contrasted pictures of the life in the South, one before, and the other during the Civil War; and while recalling to the mind of the passing generation things with which it was once familiar, it portrays to the present generation events which, although known only by tradition and record, will never cease to be of deep interest. "The characters and customs of the old Regime now almost gone, are vividly described."—Brooklyn Standard Union.

MELVILLE CHATER

LITTLE LOVE STORIES OF MANHATTAN

12mo, Cloth, $1.25

When these stories first appeared in the New York Sunday Herald, readers were at once so struck by their crisp, laconic style, their sparkle and individuality, their vivid reproduction of metropolitan life, that the tales continued to run uninterruptedly for five months. In response to many requests, they have been collected and are now offered to the public in permanent form. All the world loves a love-story; and these twenty-one little studies of New York City life, each a distinctive bit of local color and characterization, form a unique collection.

PHILIP CRUTCHER

WINGS AND NO EYES

A Comedy of Love

12mo, Cloth, illustrated, $1.50.

"The manœuvres of a poor book agent to marry a wealthy but eccentric novelist in order to attain independent riches present a series of situations calculated to give Mr. Crutcher ample opportunity for a play of humor, which he has taken full advantage of. The many methods and plans which the book agent employs to reach the adamantine heart of the lady of his affections are all deliciously novel and amusing."—New York Times.

WILLARD GOSS DAVENPORT

MILTON BLAIRLEE AND THE GREEN MOUNTAIN BOYS

A Story of the New Hampshire Grants

12mo, Cloth, illustrated, $1.50

This in an exceedingly good story for boys. The hero is a young lad who joins Ethan Allen's famous band of patriots. He has journeyed from Boston to Vermont, where he meets former friends, takes a brave part in the local land-grant troubles, and finally finds the parents from whom he was taken when a child at the capture of Oswego.

HENRY S. DRAYTON, M.D.

IN OUDEMON

Reminiscences of an Unknown People by an Occasional Traveler

12mo, Cloth, $1.50

This is an interesting story of experiences in a strange land, which is located by the author a the heart of South America. There is an attractive vein of romance running through the ale, which entertainingly exploits the author's ethical and sociological theories.

CHARLES B. HOLMES

ELSIEVILLE, A TALE OF YESTERDAY

12mo, Cloth $1.00

Through the medium of an amusing story of life in a country town, the author brings about a situation whereby three churches of different denominations after struggling along for years in a community only large enough to support one, find it wise to join forces. A delightful little love story runs through the volume, and the book is not only sincere and helpful by reason of its purpose, but thoroughly readable, holding the attention from beginning to end.

E. A. JOHNSON

LIGHT AHEAD FOR THE NEGRO

12mo, Cloth, $1.00 net

This is a new word on the race problem, and will be read with great interest by those who hope for a peaceful adjustment of this burning question. The author predicts its final settlement through a revolution in Southern sentiment in favor of the Negro, a sentiment founded on the Golden Rule. As Mr. Johnson's past work has been very well received, this book should have many readers. The work combines interesting romance and fiction.

AXEL JOSEPHSSON

SINGOALLA

Translated from the Swedish of Viktor Rydberg

12mo, Cloth, illustrated, $1.25 net (postage 12 cents)

"A weird and fascinating story dealing with a Swedish legend of the middle ages. The book is far out of the ordinary in its vivid pictures and beautiful language. No outline or synopsis can do justice to this remarkable tale. Its mystery and depth fascinate, its idyllic pictures of love and life in the far-off days entrance the mind."—Literary Digest.

F. STRANGE KOLLE

FIFTY AND ONE TALES OF MODERN FAIRYLAND

12mo, Cloth, 300 pages, illustrated, $1.50

These fairy stories are not only entertaining, but they are actually new. Every child in the land will want to hear over and over again about the Red Gobolink, who lives in a bottle of ink, the Tobacco Imp, the Quarrelsome Knives and their peculiar fate, the Balloon that ran away with disobedient Albert in it, the adventure of the Automobile that had a conscience, and a host of other entirely new nursery characters. These are tales of absorbing interest for children without the usual characteristics of bloodshed, love, or revenge in them.

MARY E. LORD

12mo, Cloth, frontispiece portrait, $1.00

A story of an international marriage which neither begins nor ends in the ordinary way. It is a girl's story, very charming in spirit, and will be of absorbing interest to anyone who likes to follow the ins and outs of a girl's, "Shall I, or shall I not?" and to speculate as to whether she might have done differently.

THOMAS J. L. McMANUS

THE BOY AND THE OUTLAW

A Tale of John Brown's Raid on Harper's Ferry

12mo, Cloth, illustrated in color, $1.50

A rattling good story of a Virginia boy, who, the day after John Brown's dramatic raid on Harper's Ferry, comes across a wounded mulatto on the tow-path of a canal. The wounded man proves to be one of Brown's band. At the risk of his own life this boy of fourteen decides to conceal the outlaw from the authorities of the State and Nation; with what success may be seen in the pages of this attractively gotten-up volume.

MADGE MERTON

THE CONFESSIONS OF A CHORUS GIRL

16mo, Cloth, frontispiece, 75 cents

"Swift in movement, cheerful and careless, the little sketch runs on and will charm a half hour for any one. We feel grateful to Madge Merton for her lighthearted confessions."—Critic. "There is an air of reality about the stories which will appeal alike to those who know the stage and those who would like to. Madge Merton is a lively girl and must have been a pleasant chum."—Philadelphia North American.

ADA PATTERSON and VICTORY BATEMAN

BY THE STAGE DOOR

8vo, Cloth, $1.25

"These stories of the stage are strong and true. Not once are they overdrawn. Not once is their realism sacrificed to the straining after effect too common in literature. The book is a faithful portraiture of the lights and shades of life as we players know it."—From the Introduction. "Those who know the stage best are impressed most by these vivid pictures of life thereon."—The Bookseller.. "We can recall no book of recent issuance that carries with it a stronger flavor of things theatrical."—Baltimore Sun.

WILLIAM W. PENNELL

THE BUCKEYE DOCTOR

A Tale for Physicians and Physicians' Patients

12mo, Cloth, green top, uncut, $1.50

"There are a number of clever character sketches and a lot of homely philosophy as well as some genuine dialect. The humorous and pathetic are well blended."—Standard Union, Brooklyn. "Dr. Pennell has given us a bit of the world as it is and has done his work well."—Springfield (Mass.) Union. "There is a good deal of humor at times, but the story is tragically interesting when a young man is arrested for body-snatching."—Current Literature.

HENRY PETTIT

A TWENTIETH CENTURY IDEALIST

Illustrated, 12mo, Cloth, $1.50

This is a romance of travel, symbolism and sentiment intended by the author, who has been twice around the world, to bring to Occidental readers something of the wisdom of the East. Adele Cultus, the central character, embodies the aspiration for knowledge of the mysteries; she is the chief figure in a party of Mediterranean travelers who go on to India and the Himalayas, where she enters the cathedral of nature.

HENRY WALLACE PHILLIPS

MR. SCRAGGS, MORMON

INTRODUCED BY RED SAUNDERS

Illustrated, 12mo, Cloth, $1.25

Red Saunders, whose name is affectionately remembered by a host of readers, opens this new volume by Mr. Phillips with the story of one of the many excursions into matrimony made by his friend, Ezekiel George Washington Scraggs. Mr. Scraggs relates others of his own experience, with characteristic breeziness and disregard of the conventional. This book is certainly Mr. Phillips' best work, and all who have known "Red Saunders" will want this new volume.

LAURA FITZHUGH PRESTON

UNCLE BOB

His Reminiscences

12mo, Cloth, illustrated, $1.50

"Mrs. Preston's delineation of the character and dialect of the Negro is equal to that of Thomas Nelson Page."—Charleston (W. Va.) Gazette. Uncle Bob spins yarn after yarn, ranging from some of the funniest Negro stories ever written to pathetic and even tragic episodes in the history of the old Virginia family which he has so faithfully served for nearly a century.

H. J. D. ROSS

FROM FAR DAKOTA AND OTHERWHERE

12mo, Cloth, $1.00

Mr. Ross tells of the country beyond the Red River of the North in the "seventies," with its lawlessness on the one hand, and its crude, struggling justice on the other. Canada, also, is the scene of some of the stories. Mr. Ross writes from his own personal knowledge of these places and times, and has given his tales a strength and vigor that make them most realistic.

VIKTOR RYDBERG

SINGOALLA

Translation by Axel Josephson, quod vide

FRANCINA SCOTT

THE ROMANCE OF A TRAINED NURSE

12mo, Cloth, illustrated, $1.50

The Chicago Chronicle says: "The heroine is in every way worthy to represent the noble class of women to which she belongs;" and The Trained Nurse Magazine: "We welcome this book."

GEORGE SCOTT

TAMARACK FARM

The Story of Rube Walcott and His Gettysburg Girl

12mo, Cloth, illustrated. Price $1.25

"A splendid story for boys and girls. The bear story that Stub Haff tells would interest anyone." "Simple story, quaintly and humorously told, one that can be read and reread by anyone who loves nature."—Book News. "'The Story of Rube Walcott and his Gettysburg Girl' should win that book a wide audience; full of incident and successful in its spirit of camp and battle field."—Philadelphia Press.

ERNEST U. SMITH

RACHEL

A Story of the Great Deluge

12mo, Cloth, five maps, $1.50

A thrilling tale of a period in which we are all interested and of which little is known. The narrative of the war horrors and terrors of the flood are revealed by a pure and wholesome story, in which the Princess Rachel is the heroine, loyal to her race, notwithstanding their wickedness, devoted to her parents and faithful to her lover. It is the introduction to this work, however, that appeals to the student, as it reconciles historical, scientific and scriptural matters to a remarkable degree. The ingenious theories of the location of the lands of Eden and Nod, and along the same lines, the development of the numerous races of mankind, are almost convincing in their character. The author has given many years to a close study of scriptural affairs, and his book is one that will interest a great many inquiring minds. The historical facts give it value also as a reference book.

CHARLES FREDERICK STANSBURY

A KITTIWAKE OF THE GREAT KILLS

12mo, Cloth, illustrated, $1.25 net (postage 12 cents)

Lovers of animals will revel in these stories. They are written by a deep student of zoopsychology, and are intensely interesting. The author knows animals as friends and not as specimens. He has analyzed their thoughts and mainsprings of action and presented the result in a perfectly natural way. No more impressive protest against cruelty to or wanton destruction of birds was ever written. No one who reads it could ever injure these lovable and interesting creatures. The book is a valuable adjunct to the humane societies.

GRACE TALBOT

MUCH-MARRIED SAINTS AND SOME SINNERS

12mo, Cloth, $1.00

"The stories are founded on fact instead of being the unfounded offspring of a fertile imagination. They are readable, fresh and interesting. One can not help feeling sympathetic for the heartaches entailed by such a mischievous and pernicious system of religion, nor can one suppress the thrill of indignation at a system propagated by greed and cunning at the expense of ignorance, credulity and superstition."—Indianapolis Sentinel.

MARY IVES TODD

AN AMERICAN ABELARD AND HELOISE

12mo, Cloth, Gilt Top, 300 pp., $1.50

It is, first of all a love story, full of emotion and real tenderness, and after that an indignant protest against various injustices of modern times, in church as well as in state. A fashionable, modern clergyman and his adoring feminine congregation are cleverly depicted, and his change of heart is most striking. The heroine is a fine type of the high-minded American girl, to whom self-sacrifice is no stranger.

There is a literary quality about this work that stamps Mrs. Todd as one of the coming writers of American fiction. The theme of this work is one of the most interesting that human nature knows, that of the relation between woman and religion.

ROSSETER WILLARD

THE SENATOR'S SWEETHEART

With an introduction by Mrs. Cushman K. Davis

12mo, Cloth, illustrated, $1.50 net

As a picture of Washington, and the life there of one of the most prominent of the official families, this is a most charming sketch.

ARTHUR CHARLES FOX-DAVIES

ARMORIAL FAMILIES

A Directory of Gentlemen of Coat-Armor; showing which Arms now in use are borne by legal authority

Fifth Edition

In one volume, folio, bound in buckram, with gilt top, $50.00 net (carriage extra)

A unique feature of the fifth edition is a large series of Coats-of-Arms printed in their proper colors. The total number of illustrations is nearly 3,000. In this edition all the Arms inserted are those which are properly authorized. A few of the fourth edition may be had at $40.00 net and carriage.

The Chart Index alone, 50 cents net; 12 copies for $5.50. The Chart Index, Cover, and Notebook, $1.25; 12 copies for $13.00. Additional sections of the Notebook, 25 cents net; 12 copies for $2.50

Permits the diagrammatic display and indexing of one's ancestors for ten generations, including all of the 1022 ancestors and 512 different surnames which are theoretically possible. Sixteen ancestral lines may also be shown for thirteen generations. Spaces are provided for writing in the names, and for references to a notebook or manuscript where data under each name is jotted down. A cover and a series of notebooks have been arranged for use with the Chart Index. The notebook is detachable, and when its pages are filled, another can be attached to the cover, each becoming a section of one large notebook. The Chart Index and Notebook will be especially appreciated by those who are interested in all their family lines.

GRAFTON GENEALOGICAL NOTEBOOK, AMERICAN FORM

Convenient for the pocket, 5¼ x 8½ inches. Price, 25 cents net; 12 copies for $2.50 (carriage extra)

A self-compiling notebook for practical genealogists, consists of a succession of groups of pages, each group arranged to receive the data for a family. The arrangement is that which is to appear on the printed pages, with blanks to be filled in with the proper names, dates, numbering, etc., for each family as these facts are ascertained, the connecting words and proper punctuation being printed in the notebook. When the work of research is finished it will be found that the work of compilation has taken care of itself. A pen is drawn through any unused spaces, and the leaves of the notebook, perforated for that purpose, are detached and arranged and numbered in any order desired, making a manuscript ready for the printer! This notebook is suitable for any form of the "clan" genealogy, which traces the many descendants of a common ancestor.

EDWARD HALL

CHRONICLE OF HENRY VIIIth

With an Introduction by Charles Whibley

Two volumes, large octavo, with photogravure frontispieces, buckram, gilt top, limited to 100 sets for sale in America, $12.00 net (carriage extra)

The book was completed by Richard Grafton in 1550, but as its destruction was ordered by Queen Mary in 1555, it is to-day excessively rare. This reprint has been made from the edition of 1550. The book is of especial value to Americans who are interested in History and Genealogy because it is a contemporary authority on a period in English history just before the Settlement of America, and contains innumerable surnames of Englishmen who flourished between 1509 and 1547.

The Genealogy and Arms of the Cecils. By A. C. Fox-Davies.
Known Descendants of Lord Burghley. By A. C. Fox-Davies.

Illustrated with many photogravures, other plates, and text pictures. Only 100 copies for sale in America. Price, $10.00 net (carriage extra)

To borrow the words of Froude, Elizabeth "was a woman and a man: she was herself and Cecil"; and as the masculine alter ego of the great Queen during practically the whole of her critical and difficult reign, Burghley undoubtedly did far more than any other man in his generation to shape and direct the course of English History. The descendants are traced through both the Exeter and the Salisbury lines. There are more than 5,000 known descendants through the Exeter line alone.

EMMA C. BREWSTER JONES

THE BREWSTER GENEALOGY

A Record of 20,000 Descendants of Elder William Brewster, of the "Mayflower." 1566-1905.

Two volumes, 8vo, Cloth, 500 pages each, illustrated. Price to subscribers before publication, $10.00 net, per set (carriage extra)

This work will comprise about four thousand finished and unfinished family records, approximating twenty thousand or more names of both male and female descendants of Benjamin[3] Brewster (son of Jonathan[2] Brewster), William[3] Brewster and Wrestling[3] Brewster (sons of Love[2] Brewster), also, one branch only of Isaac[3] Allerton (son of Fear[2] Brewster), they being four grandsons of William Brewster, the Ruling Elder of the Pilgrim Church, who came to this country in 1620, in the ship "Mayflower."

BENJAMIN MERRILL RICKETTS, M.D.

THE SURGERY OF THE HEART AND LUNGS

8vo, 142 illustrations, Cloth, $5.00 net; half Morocco, $5.75 (carriage extra)

This is a most valuable work for the surgeon who would keep abreast of the important investigations in the lines treated. The author has spent years in making the investigations he describes in these pages, and he writes with much directness and clearness. The illustrations are splendid reproductions, by the best half-tone process, of excellent photographs.

WAES HAEL; THE BOOK OF TOASTS

12mo, Cloth, gilt top, decorative cover, $1.50 net (postage 15 cents)

De Luxe Edition, 510 numbered copies, in vellum and gold, $7.50 net (carriage extra)

The book contains about 1,500 toasts and sentiments suitable for almost every conceivable occasion. In preparing the material for "Waes Hael" innumerable books, both ancient and modern, have been searched for their best contributions. Beside these, the authors have produced considerable original matter, so that it is probably true that nowhere else can be found gathered together such a large number of sentiments, poetical or in prose, suitable for use as toasts as in this book. "Waes Hael" was chosen for a title because it is the early form of a toast. It means "Be well," or, more literally, "Be in health." "About as useful collection of sentiments, both poetical and prose, suitable for use as toasts, as may be found. A wide discrimination has been shown in collecting the material for this book from ancient and modern literature. Much of the matter is new and original"—Chicago Journal. "This is probably the largest collection of toasts ever brought out, and should make a most attractive present for lovers of fine books."—Pittsburg Post News.

MOTOR GOOSE RHYMES

FOR MOTOR GANDERS

Illustrated by Pal

12mo, printed in colors on old colonial toned paper; 112 pages, handsomely bound.
Price, 75 cents net (postage extra)

An intensely funny book. Will be appreciated by all who have had anything to do with this very uncertain means of conveyance. It is as clever in another vein as "The Reflections of the Morning After" by the same author.

CAROLINE ELIZABETH MERRICK

OLD TIMES IN DIXIE LAND

A Southern Matron's Memories

12mo, Cloth, frontispiece portrait, $1.50

The author of this interesting and enjoyable volume of reminiscences is widely known, both in this country and abroad, as one of the most distinguished representative women of the South. "Its transcription of negro scenes is worthy of attention."—The Outlook, New York. "The book is written in a bright, chatty style and gives the reader a pleasant idea of life on a Southern plantation at the time of the Civil War."—Boston Journal.

JOHN ROGERS WILLIAMS

THE HANDBOOK OF PRINCETON

With an Introduction by President Woodrow Wilson

12mo, Cloth, profusely illustrated, $1.50 net (postage 15 cents)

The contents is divided into chapters touching the history of the town of Princeton and its vicinity, which region is so closely connected with many important incidents of the Revolutionary War and the early history of the United States, the history of the University and of the Theological Seminary, and a complete guide to everything of interest in the town, the University and the Seminary as they stand to-day. It is profusely illustrated with the best obtainable pictures of buildings and views, and should prove of value not only to old and new students, but to many people who visit Princeton and desire a serviceable guide book and a handsome souvenir

XENA

THE THREEFOLD PATH TO PEACE

12mo, Cloth, 75 cents net

The book is dedicated "to those who believe that Justice is a higher virtue than Charity, and that the tendency of one is to elevate mankind and of the other to degrade it." A novel with a purpose, but one that is bound to be read and talked about. The compiler of this volume writes: "During the winter of 1903-04 a small group of students met for the study of Spiritual Laws and their application to every day life. Among them was one who had been trained to listen for the Inner Voice. Sincerely the Disciple solicited guidance before the meetings, and as the appointed day came, heard and wrote down the lessons contained in this volume. As they proved helpful, it was resolved, in grateful acknowledgment of the guidance vouchsafed, to offer them to a wider public."

MARY E. BECKWITH

LOWELL'S VISION OF SIR LAUNFAL

For Spanish students of the English language, with a biographical sketch of Mr. Lowell, introduction and explanatory notes in Spanish, and vocabulary

12mo, Paper, 75 cents net (postage 7 cents)

In her work in Porto Rico Miss Beckwith found that many of the students who sought to read America's greatest poets could not appreciate them. This is the first of a series that Miss Beckwith proposes editing.

JOHN M. BERDAN

THE POEMS OF JOHN CLEVELAND

12mo, Cloth, with Photogravure Portrait of Cleveland, $1.50 net (postage 15 cents)

This is the first collected edition of the works of one of the lesser-known poets of the 17th Century. A critical introduction dealing with the life and work of the poet precedes the text which is copiously annotated. "As a piece of patient and thorough literary work it is in every way to be commended."—The Outlook.

ECHOES FROM THE GLEN

In Divers Keys

16mo, Cloth, $1.00 net (postage 10 cents)

A strong array of poems by this popular Southern writer. Divided into three groups, Sentiment, War and Dialect Verse. The love poems are imbued with a tender sentiment, expressed in most graceful form, and the poems of war are full of fire and the ring of truth, because they are an expression of the author's own experience in the field.

EDWARD CURTIS

MONTHS AND MOODS

A Fifteen-year Calendar

4to, Cloth, $1.00 net (postage 14 cents)

This is a charming gift-book. Dr. Curtis has written a number of delightful verses suitable to the seasons and the months, and facing the latter poems are pages of calendars of each month of every year from the year 1901 to 1915.

GERDA DALLIBA

FATE AND I

And Other Poems

16mo, only 250 copies on handmade paper and signed by the author, photogravure portrait of the author, $1.50 net (postage 10 cents)

No one would suspect from reading them that they are the work of a young girl. They are strikingly original and strikingly strong. Their main features are maturity of thought, richness of expression, knowledge of versification, and rare beauty of imagery. Miss Dalliba is an inspired poet, not a maker of machine verses.

GEORGE ALLAN ENGLAND

UNDERNEATH THE BOUGH

A Book of Verses

12mo, Cloth, $1.00 net (postage 10 cents)

A Miscellany of Songs and Sonnets short and long—grave, amorous and gay,—some reprints, others now for the first time published. Mr. England's verses "have attracted much attention."—Philadelphia North American. His "versification is faultless and easy . . . and betrays the practised hand."—New York Herald. Characterizing his "Race of the Mighty," the latter paper calls it a poem which "as a clever bit of literary transfusion would not discredit the famous Father Prout."

OWEN INNSLY

LOVE SONGS AND OTHER POEMS

16mo, Cloth, $1.00 net (postage 10 cents)

"Perhaps twenty years ago some tender and graceful poems appeared over the pen name 'Owen Innsly' and attracted much attention. It was clear that the writer was a woman, and in Boston she was compared to Mrs. Browning, partly because of the intensity of the love poems and partly because of the author's love of Italy. After a time it came out that 'Owen Innsly' was a Miss Lucy W. Jennison, and soon after, if we are not mistaken, she died. At any rate, her poetry was no longer heard. We are glad to see that the Grafton Press publishes 'Love Songs and Other Poems,' by Owen Innsly, in a pretty little volume. It is poetry of a great deal of merit, too good to be lost so soon."—New York Sun. Miss Jennison is now living abroad. Her first volume, referred to above, has long been out of print, but the new edition contains all the original poems and about as many new ones.

MARY HALL LEONARD

MY LADY OF THE SEARCHLIGHT

12mo, Cloth, 64 pp., $1.00 net (postage 5 cents)

This is an up-to-date study of the Problem of Womanhood in its general relations to humanity. While the poem abundantly sustains the tests of good poetry in regard to diction, versification, and poetic thought and expression, it is not merely "pure poetry," but also a very modern presentation of a subject that is of universal and permanent interest to the human race.

EDWARD MAYHUGH

LYRICS OF CHILDHOOD

Small 8vo, Cloth, $1.00 net (postage 10 cents)

In Lyrics of Childhood, Mr. Mayhugh has struck a delightful chord. These poems appeal not only to the young but to those of us who have passed beyond the day of childhood. They bring back memories of the time when life centered in the moment's pleasure, and when we enjoyed everything without a thought of the past or the future.

JOHN M. MORSE

ANACAONA AND OTHER POEMS

12mo, Cloth, photogravure frontispiece, $1.00 net (postage 10 cents)

"A noteworthy book of verse."—Boston Courier. "A volume of cleverly written poetry upon a variety of themes. The title poem contains historic features of interest to Americans, and is a most entertaining story."—Baltimore Herald.

WILLIAM BONNIE OCKHAME

THE SONG OF THE WEDDING BELLS

16mo, Cloth, $1.00 net (postage 10 cents)

The use of detached poems of the utmost diversity of form and sentiment to tell a story is a decided novelty. The language is vigorous, brief, suggestive. While it is cultured, it is fresh. The book is what the French call a livre vécu, a book that has been lived. It is a charming gift volume.

PERCY W. SHEDD

THE POEMS OF HENRIK IBSEN

12mo, uncut, $1.50 net (postage 15 cents)

"This is almost as good as Shelley, and it is at the same time rather closer to the original text. Mr. Shedd's gifts as a translator are indeed remarkable, and we are grateful for the many lyric jewels from foreign tongues that he has put into musical English. Most of all are we grateful for his translation of the poems of Dr. Ibsen. These versions are scattered all along through the volume, and not until we approach the close do we realize that Mr. Shedd has translated practically the whole of Dr. Ibsen's slender volume of poems."—The Dial.

JOHN LANCASTER SPALDING, Bishop of Peoria

GOD AND THE SOUL

A Poem

New edition—steel portrait, 12mo, Cloth, gilt top, $1.25 net (postage 12 cents)

"For those who seek something more than entertainment in their reading, these admirable poems of Bishop Spalding's are designed. But there will be found no narrow advocacy of specific dogma, nor the holding out of warped or partial ideals. To be a Christian and an American is for this good man the gratification of all earthly and heavenly ambition, and his private life and public teachings both prove that he does not dissociate rights and duties nor hold that privilege does not imply, of necessity, responsibility."—Chicago Evening Post.

ALFRED ELY THAYER

STUDIES IN VERSE

12mo, Cloth, about 190 pages, $1.50 net (postage 11 cents)

These verses of Mr. Thayer are worthy of frequent reading and study. They strike the deeper chords of life with remarkable trueness.

GEORGE W. RANCK

"THE BIVOUAC OF THE DEAD," AND ITS AUTHOR

Illustrated, small 12mo, Cloth, $1.00 net (postage 6 cents)

This book quotes this great poem entire, and it tells the story of the poem, and gives a biography of its author. Among the pictures is a portrait of O'Hara with his autograph. Gen. Joseph Wheeler once said: "I know of no greater martial elegy than 'The Bivouac of the Dead.'"

THE BUILDING OF A BOOK

Being a series of practical articles contributed by experts in each department of the business

12mo, Cloth, $1.50 net (postage 15 cents)

The articles that go to make up this most valuable volume are written by experienced workers. Few readers realize the immense amount of detail that enters into the manufacture of a little book, but when they have read in this work of the time, thought and money expended by many people—from the author to the seller—in the effort to give them perhaps an hour's amusement, they will wonder that any books at all are published.

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY CHRONOLOGY OF THE WORLD

A Digest of Universal History from the Earlier Times to 1903 A.D.

8vo, half leather, illustrated, $5.00 net; Cloth, $3.00 net (carriage 50 cents)

This is the most complete work of its kind. It contains, in addition to the full and accurate record of events arranged in order of their dates, a complete alphabetical index, tables of rulers, and copious notes. A valuable feature is the clear way in which the equivalent dates are shown, computed according to the eras of Before Christ, Anno Domini, Julian Period, Anno Mundi, Olympiads Year of Rome, Roman Indications, and Hegira.

"One of the most important and valuable works of reference ever published."—Albany Times-Union. "The book will be thoroughly appreciated by editors, and perhaps to a slightly less extent by the many who find it impossible to carry even a small number of dates in their heads. Too much praise cannot be given to the author's care in assembling her material."—Public Opinion. "It is destined to take its place among the English historical reference books in the world."—Baltimore Herald. "As a work of reference it is invaluable."—Baltimore American.

In two parts: domestic and foreign mails; with complete index; compiled from official sources; entirely new and revised edition.

Vest pocket size, 112 pages, Paper, 15 cents net, Cloth, 25 cents (postage 2 cents)

Delays, miscarriages and losses of mail matter are in very many cases known to be due to carelessness or ignorance on the part of the sender, rather than to inefficiency of the postal service. Much of this ignorance is due to the want of a popular means of reference to postal laws; and with a view to providing such an aid, the compiler of this manual has selected from the Government publications such information as is commonly needed, and endeavored to present it in the form most convenient for quick reference.

TRAVEL

CHARLES FRANKLIN CARTER

SOME BY-WAYS OF CALIFORNIA

12mo, Cloth, $1.25 net (postage 12 cents)

The author of this interesting volume describes with much charm and enthusiasm some of the interesting parts of California that are little frequented by the usual traveler. The western tourist will find that, with this book as a guide, visits to some of the places suggested by Mr. Carter will add greatly to the pleasure of the trip.

ELBERT E. FARMAN, LL.D.

ALONG THE NILE WITH GENERAL GRANT

Including an Extended Account of Ancient Egypt

8vo, Cloth, 64 full page illustrations, $2.50 net (postage 25 cents)

Though a story of a journey made some years ago, Judge Farman has brought his work up to these times as far as historical data is concerned. The book is full of keenly interesting matter, for Egyptologists as well as for admirers of General Grant. Americans are indebted to Mr. Farman not only for the obelisk standing in Central Park, a gift of Ismáil Pasha, Khedive of Egypt, but the well-known Farman collections of coins, made by himself, to be seen at the Metropolitan Museum in New York City.

LANIER McKEE

THE LAND OF NOME

A Narrative Sketch of the Rush to the Bering Sea Goldfields, the Country, its Mines and its People, and the History of a Great Conspiracy

12mo, Cloth, $1.25 net (postage 12 cents)

Herein is presented an unusual work by a young member of the New York bar (practising also in Alaska) and a Yale graduate. A very significant feature of the book is the clear and connected exposition, for the first time, of the dramatic plot to confiscate the mines.

JOSEPH A. MUNK, M. D.

ARIZONA SKETCHES

8vo, Cloth, 240 pages, 100 illustrations, $2.00 net (postage 18 cents)

A charming volume describing the many interesting characteristics of Arizona and the West. A profuse number of excellent illustrations adds much to the value of the work.

The Printing and Publishing

GENEALOGIES

HAS been made a special feature by THE GRAFTON PRESS, which invites correspondence from those having a genealogy, small or pretentious, in manuscript or in preparation.

¶ Genealogical printing requires much special knowledge. Not every one has the equipment necessary to handle, without friction and delay, and to put into proper typographical form, the difficult and delicate matter, with its complicated genealogical tables, multitude of dates and proper names, all requiring the greatest care and precision in execution and proof-reading. Inaccuracies in such works are especially unfortunate, long persisting, and propagating further errors after they have once appeared in the pages of an apparently authoritative volume.

¶ It is the constant effort of THE GRAFTON PRESS to produce books of the highest standard, and to watch with the greatest care all of the small but important details which mark the difference between a poor and a good book.

¶ We are always glad to submit, with estimates, specimens of type pages, paper, illustrations, and bindings.

¶ Do you desire an elaborate book, on fine hand-made paper, with handsome leather binding, and illustrations by the best processes? Or would you prefer a low-priced volume, plain and business-like, with the cost kept down to the minimum? Most of our orders are for books halfway between these extremes, but we are equally at home in executing a commission for either style.

¶ We supply both artist's work and plates for illustrations of any character desired. Photographs, paintings, silhouettes, daguerreotypes, drawings, maps, autographs, and old documents afford interesting material for reproduction. Originals which are faded or otherwise damaged can be redrawn.

¶ We call special attention to the special facilities offered by our publishing department in giving a wide publicity to the genealogies printed by us without extra charge to the author. The sales are largely increased by proper methods in bringing the books to the attention of reviewers, the book trade, libraries and societies, special collectors, and other buyers in America and abroad known to us.

¶ It is a great pleasure to us to offer genealogists the full benefit of these advantages.

THE GRAFTON PRESS

70 Fifth Avenue, New York

The Genealogical Department
The Grafton Press

IN charge of an expert of many years' experience, will undertake genealogical and heraldic research in any part of America or Europe. We have special facilities for the conduct of research abroad. The careful methods employed have resulted in the solving of many most difficult genealogical problems which had been given up as hopeless, and in not merely tracing out American lineages to the emigrant-ancestors, but in establishing, in numerous instances, the connections with the earlier ancestral lines in Europe.

¶ Certified documents, or complete references to the authorities for the facts stated, always accompany our final reports to our clients.

¶ Special researches will be made to establish authoritatively the right to the use of arms and crests, and to determine which, if any, of the coats of arms under a given surname belong by inheritance to the client. Long experience in this work and valuable connections abroad enable us to prosecute these investigations in the most economical manner consistent with accuracy. But the facts as they exist will be stated.

¶ While it is difficult to estimate in advance the cost of genealogical and heraldic researches, the best estimate possible will be given upon application. A retainer of $10.00, enclosed with the statement of the service desired, will always secure the cooperation of our Genealogical Department and entitle the sender to a careful preliminary search which, if it should fail to secure all the information desired, will at least permit an intelligent estimate of the character and cost of further researches which may be desirable.

¶ Any coat of arms will be engraved to order, printed in the proper heraldic colors or in black and white, or painted in a size suitable for framing. Bookplates with the family coat-armor will be designed and engraved, and labels of the same printed in quantities. Crests will be engraved and the dies furnished, or stationery bearing the same printed. An expert will supervise every heraldic detail. Prices furnished upon application.

¶ Advice and instruction given to amateur genealogists at any point in their investigations. Rough genealogical notes compiled for the press; genealogical manuscripts criticised, revised, and entirely rewritten, or carefully arranged and supplied with a scientific system of numbering; indexes made, and every form of assistance or advice cheerfully rendered. Correspondence is invited. When editorial work is desired on genealogical notes, charts, or manuscripts, it is desirable that the material be submitted with the request for an estimate.

The* Filigree Ball. The most popular and widely read detective story since the days of "The Leavenworth Case," by the same author. Enough intrigue and mystery to satisfy the most exacting reader. With frontispiece by C. M. Relyea.

Harland, Henry

The* Cardinal's Snuff Box. A charming, sprightly romance of Italy at the present day. A delightful and unusual love story.

Hewlett, Maurice

The* Forest Lovers. A tale of the greatest beauty, brimful of adventures that will stir the blood, and tender sentiment that will warm the heart of the most callous reader. A masterpiece of imaginative romance.

Hope, Anthony

Tristram of Blent. An episode in the story of an Ancien House.

Quisante. A story of modern English Country Life and Politics.

Hornung, E. W.

The* Amateur Cracksman.

Raffles. Rattling good stories, these, of two of the most attractive rogues in all fiction. With illustrations by F. C. Yohn.

Howells, William Dean

The* Landlord at Lion's Head.

The* Coast of Bohemia. With fine photogravure portrait of the author.

Hough, Emerson

The* Mississippi Bubble. Portraying most vividly the adventures of John Law of Lauriston, both in England and America. Illustrated by Henry Hutt.

Jerome, Jerome K.

Second Thoughts of an Idle Fellow.
Three Men on Wheels. With illustrations by Harrison Fisher.

Two delightful volumes of whimsical humor and philosophy.

King, Charles (Brig. Gen. U. S. A.)

A Daughter of the Sioux.
An Apache Princess.

Two stirring tales of the Indian Frontier. Illustrated by Frederic Remington and E. W. Deming.

A Knight of Columbia. Illustrated by George Gibbs.
A Broken Sword. With portrait of the author.

Two thrilling romances of the Civil War.

Kingsley, Florence Morse

Author of "Titus," "Stephen," Etc.

Prisoners of the Sea. A romance of the time of Louis XIV, King of France. Illustrated by Henry Austin.

The* Singular Miss Smith. A story of To-day. Illustrated by Will Grefé.

Le Gallienne, Richard

The Quest of the Golden Girl.

Lewis, Alfred Henry

Wolfville. With illustrations by Frederic Remington.
Wolfville Days.
Wolfville Nights.

These three volumes constitute as distinct and valuable an addition to American humor as anything produced during the past ten years.

London, Jack

The Call of the Wild. This book is not only a great dog story, it is real literature, and at the same time an unforgetable picture of the whole wild, thrilling, desperate primeval life of the Klondike during the period of the gold fever. A beautiful book with all the original illustrations and decorations.

Lyman, Olin L.

The Trail of the Grand Seigneur. A story of the war of 1812, the scenes of which are laid round about Sackett's Harbor, and the lower part of Lake Ontario. With colored illustrations by J. Steeple Davis and Clare Angell.

Major, Charles

Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall. With illustrations from the play as produced by Bertha Galland. A delightful and entertaining story.

Marchmont, Arthur W.

A Dash for a Throne. With illustrations by D. Murray Smith.

By Right of Sword. With illustrations by Powell Chase.

The Heritage of Peril. With illustrations by Edith Leslie Lang.

Miser Hoadley's Secret. With illustrations by Clare Angell.

The Price of Freedom. With illustrations by Clare Angell.

Rattling good stories, full of action, plot and counter-plot, love, intrigue and adventure. There is life and animation on every page, and to the reader who has become surfeited with the analytical and historical novels of the present time, we heartily commend them.

Merriman, Henry Seton

The Sowers. A tale of Modern Russia.

McCutcheon, George Barr

Graustark. The story of a love behind a throne.

Castle Craneycrow.

Brewster's Millions.

The* Sherrods. With illustrations by C. D. Williams.

Few authors of the present time have been so uniformly successful in pleasing the public as the talented author of "Graustark." Over half a million copies of these four books have been sold and there seems to be no diminution of their popularity.

McCarthy, Justin Huntly

If I Were King. A tale of Louis XI and Francois Villon. With illustrations from the play as produced by E. A. Sothern.

MacGrath, Harold

The Grey Cloak. A capital Romance by the author of "The Man on the Box," a picturesque tale of Paris in the time of Louis XIII.

With illustrations by Thomas Mitchell Pierce.

Moore, F. Frankfort

The Jessamy Bride. This is the love story of Oliver Goldsmith, a charming tale, full of literary and historic interest.

Munn, Charles Clark

Uncle Terry. A tale of the Maine coast. Illustrated by Helena Higginbotham.

Rockhaven. With illustrations by Frank T. Merrill.

The Hermit. A story of the wilderness. With illustrations by A. Burnham Shute.

Parker, Gilbert

The Right of Way. With illustrations by A. I. Keller. One of the really great novels of recent years. A virile and fascinating book, in its unusual love story, its character portrayal, its spiritual import.

Pidgin, Charles Felton

Quincy Adams Sawyer. With illustrations from the play.

Blennerhassett. A romance of American History. Illustrated by Charles H. Stephens.

The Climax. A romance of the Great Republic.

Nicholson, Meredith

The Main Chance. With illustrations by Harrison Fisher.

Gordon Keith. With illustrations by George Wright.

The Fortunes of Fifi. A delightful tale, full of the most sprightly and whimsical humor. With illustrations in color by T. De Thulstrup.

Stoker, Bram

Dracula. A tale of the grotesque and horrible.

Tilton, Dwight

Miss Petticoats. A charming story of New England life.

Tarkington, Booth

The Gentleman from Indiana. A most absorbing tale, strong, stirring and virile. A story of love and politics that will appeal strongly to every reader.

Monsieur Beaucaire. Since Stevenson laid aside his pen there has not appeared in English speech anything so worthy of the word perfection as Booth Tarkington's Monsieur Beaucaire. It is a piece of literature, a poem, an idyl, the very flower of romance.

With decorations and illustrations in color.

Thompson, Maurice

Alice of Old Vincennes. A new edition of this charming romance, of which nearly 300,000 copies have been sold. With illustrations by F. C. Yohn.

Tolstoy, Count Leo

Resurrection. A novel of surpassing interest and undoubtedly the masterwork of the great Russian. With frontispiece showing Blanche Walsh in the prison scene, from the play.

Tracy, Louis

The Wings of the Morning. One of the real spontaneous successes in recent fiction. As a tale of love and adventure it ranks supreme, and we doubt if anything finer in pure romance has been written within a decade.

The King of Diamonds. A fascinating tale of the Monte Cristo sort, full of intrigue and adventure.

Winslow, Helen M.

Concerning Polly. A story of Boston and New England, with illustrations by Frank T. Merrill.

Zola, Emile.

Truth. The story of a great crime. One of the most vivid works of the great realist. Translated by Ernest A. Vizetelly.

FOR SALE BY ALL BOOKSELLERS

An Important New Historical Work on the Great West

LIFE, LETTERS AND TRAVELS OF FATHER DE SMET

By Major Hiram M. Chittenden, U. S. Engineering Corps, and Mr. A. T. Richardson

A History of Father P. J. De Smet's Travels, Observations, Hardships, etc., on the Plains, his experiences among the Indians of the West, their manners, customs, etc., mostly new material now for the first time printed, and culled with great care from the original twenty-four manuscript letter books of Father De Smet. Illustrated with a map of his route, views of Trading Posts, Indians, Scenery, etc., 4 vols., 8vo. cloth, uncut, per set, - - - - - - - - - - $15.00 net

The authors state, "We will show Father De Smet to be a great man, not merely in his calling, but in the broader sphere of a public servant to his country and we believe that this work will rank as one of the very best in the line of Western History and Exploration." To the text the authors have added numerous valuable historical, geographical, ethnological and other notes, and the work is one that will necessarily be consulted by all students and readers of Western History. Send for prospectus.

Uniform with Dr. Coue's "Pike's Expeditions," "Henry and Thompson Journals," and Major Chittenden's "American Fur Trade of the Far West."

THE AMERICAN FUR TRADE OF THE FAR WEST

By Major Hiram M. Chittenden, U. S. Engineer Corps.

A History of the Pioneer Trading Posts and Early Fur Companies of the Missouri Valley and the Rocky Mountains, and of the Overland Commerce with Santa Fe, etc., written largely from manuscript and other records hitherto inaccessible. Illustrated with maps and plates and an elaborate folding map of the Trans-Mississippi Territory, showing Posts, Trails, Waterways, Indian Tribes, etc., in great detail. 3 vols., 8vo, cloth, uncut, per set, - - - - - - - - $10.00 net

A work of the highest merit and greatest importance on the early history of the great West. The author has embodied in it the results of years of painstaking research, going into the whole subject with a thoroughness and ability rarely met with in these days. Every known printed authority has been consulted and digested, and in addition a mass of original manuscripts hitherto inaccessible has been placed at Capt. Chittenden's disposal. The result is that many important details connected with the discovery and development of the West are now first brought to light.

This is a work that has at once taken its place in the very front rank in the field of American history. Written by one who is in thorough sympathy with his task, the entire subject is treated in the most happy style, and there is not a dull page in it.

Part I. The Fur Trade. Character of the Business—Relations with the Indians—Trading Posts—The Trapping Fraternity, etc.

Part II. Historical. Louisiana—Rise of the Fur Trade—St. Louis Early Expedition—Missouri Fur Co.—Astoria—The Rocky Mountain Fur Co.—American Fur Co.—Capt, Bonneville—Nathl. J. Wyeth—The Oregon Trail—The Santa Fe Trail—The Santa Fe Trade, etc.

Part III. Contemporary Events.—Lewis & Clark and Long's Expeditions—Yellowstone Expedition of 1825—Military Occupations and Explorations, Missionary Work, etc.

Part IV.—Notable Incidents And Characters In The History Of The Fur Trade. The Lost Trappers—The Battle of Pierce's Hole—The Battle of Fort McKenzie—Alexander Harvey—Indian Escapes and Captivities, etc.

Part V. The Country and Its Inhabitants. Mountains—Rivers—Indian Tribes, etc.—Buffalo—Beaver—Bear and other Fauna.

CHARLEVOIX'S HISTORY OF NEW FRANCE

Translated from the original edition, with notes, by Dr. John Gilmary Shea. A new edition, with life of the Translator and Bibliography of his writings, by Noah Farnham Morrison.

The importance of Dr. Shea's translation of Rev. P. F. X. De Charlevoix's History and General Description of New France, as an original authority and standard reference work cannot be overestimated. The New France of that date (1740) was far more than what we now know as Canada. It embraced the best part of the North American Continent. Thus Charlevoix, besides giving a full history of Canada down to 1740, relates in detail the early annals of Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, New York, Michigan, Illinois and Northwestern States, and Louisiana, Arkansas, and Texas. This new edition contains over 40 illustrations, including all the maps, steel portraits, etc. Limited to 750 numbered sets. 6 vols., 8vo, cloth, uncut. $18.00 net per set

This important work, of which a very limited number was published by the author thirty years ago, is now very rare. A fire having destroyed a large portion of certain of the volumes, only about 150 complete sets were ever sold.

AMERICAN EXPLORERS SERIES NO. 4

History of Early Steamboat Navigation on the Missouri River

By Major Hiram M. Chittenden, U. S. Engineer Corps.

The Life and Adventures of Joseph La Barge, Pioneer Navigator and Indian Trader. For fifty years identified with the commerce of the Missouri Valley. Map, portraits, and illustrations from early photographs. 2 vols. 8vo, cloth. (Edition limited to 950 copies.) - - - - - - - - - $6.00 net

A valuable and interesting original work by the author of "The American Fur Trade of the Far West." Very few people now have any conception of the part the steamboat navigation of the Missouri River played in the upbuilding of the West. The business of the fur trade, the intercourse of government agents with the Indians, the campaigns of the army throughout the valley and the wild rush of gold-seekers to the mountains, all depended, in greater or less degree, upon the Missouri River as a line of transportation. No other river in this country has a record to compare with it. From beginning to end it abounds in thrilling incident, and the life which it fostered was full of picturesque and even tragic details.

TITLE INDEX.

General titles, such as Poems, Essays, Reminiscences, Sermons, Works, etc., are omitted in this Index, as they are, necessarily, connected with the authors' names, and are thus indexed in the main body of the Trade-List.

Biographies are indexed here only when not already indexed in the Trade-List.

Histories and Travels, as a rule, are indexed under their respective countries.

Prints, Portfolios, Calendars, Theatrical Souvenirs, and Paper-bound books are not included in this index. See pages 35–39 inclusive.

Four New Novels by Famous Writers

The Gambler

By KATHERINE
THURSTON

The success of "The Masquerader," which still continues in popularity, renders superfluous any word as to Mrs. Thurston's abilities as a story-writer. Her new novel is the story of a young Irish beauty who is brought, by an inherited passion for gambling, to the verge of a tragic end. Mrs. Thurston has wrought with unswerving skill, and "The Gambler" promises to be a tremendous success, like its predecessor.

Illustrated. Post 8vo, Cloth, $1.50

The Conquest of Canaan

By BOOTH
TARKINGTON

Mr. Tarkington returns to the scene of his first famous book, "The Gentleman from Indiana," laying his story in Canaan, a typical "incongruous Indiana town." It is a splendid story of the triumph of character over circumstance, and the reader's sympathy is at once enlisted in Joe Louden. Mr. Tarkington's characters are bold, picturesque, and convincing, and the group of small-town personages that make up the village chorus add much humor to the tale.

Illustrated. Post 8vo, Cloth, $1.50

Silas Strong

By IRVING
BACHELLER

In this book Mr. Bacheller has gone back to the scenes of his early triumphs like "Eben Holden." The story is laid in the northwestern part of the Adirondacks. "Uncle Sile" is a philosopher of the woods who thinks much and says little—a "one-word man" but a genuine humorist, with fountains of sly laughter in him. The climax brought about by a great forest fire affords opportunity for a tremendous dramatic scene in the love story. Altogether it is the best story Mr. Bacheller has yet written.

Post 8vo, Cloth, $1.50

The Debtor

By MARY E.
WILKINS
FREEMAN

The career of Arthur Carroll, defrauded of his inheritance—his struggles with poverty in New York, his despair and moral regeneration—as depicted by this popular writer, makes a telling story, with touches of romance and pathos such as Mrs. Freeman always puts into her best work. "The Debtor" is a keen character study, and, from its moving dramatic interest and human appeal, it should find a popular reception with the many thousands who have read and enjoyed Mary E. Wilkins's New England tales.

A LIST OF THE PUBLICATIONS

OF THE HEALTH-CULTURE COMPANY

Common Disorders.

With rational Methods of Treatment, Including Diet, Exercise, Baths, Massotherapy, etc. By W. R. C. Latson, M. D., Editor of Health-Culture; 300 pages, 200 illustrations. $1.00.

This is a practical handbook and guide for the home treatment of the sick without the use of drugs, with suggestions for the avoidance of disease and the retaining of health and strength. A book for those who would get well and keep well. The author sets forth the methods he has pursued and found to be practical and successful.

The Food Value of Meat.

Flesh Food Not Essential to Physical or Mental Vigor. By W. R. C. Latson, M. D. Illustrated. Paper, 25 cents. Cloth, 50 cents.

The most valuable work on Practical Dietetics that has been published. The food question is considered in its relation to health, strength and long life.

Dr. Latson's Health Chart.

18x25 inches in size, printed on fine paper, bound with metal, with rings to hang on the wall. Price $1.00. Presenting an Attractive and Comprehensive Form a Complete System of Physical Culture Exercises, fully Illustrated with Poses From Life, with Special Directions for Securing Symmetrical Development, for Building up the Thin Body, for Reducing Obesity, and for the Increase of General Vitality.

The instructions are definate, specific and practical. Also contains rules regarding diet for various conditions, directions for Bathing, Relaxation, Rest, etc.

This chart is not for sale, but given as a premium to yearly subscribers of Health Culture, at $1.00 a year.

Uncooked Foods.

And How to Live on Them. With Recipes for Wholesome Preparation, Proper Combinations and Menus, with the Reason Uncooked Food is Best for the Promotion of Health, Strength and Vitality. By Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Christian. Illustrated. 12mo, cloth, $1.00.

The only complete work on the subject that has been published, and will do very much to solve the question of how to live for health, strength and happiness.

It will simplify methods of living—help to settle the servant question and the financial problems as well as point the way for many to perfect health.

Womanly Beauty.

Of Form and Feature. The Cultivation and Preservation of Personal Beauty Based upon Health and Hygiene. By Twenty Well-known Physicians and Specialists. With 80 half-tone and other Illustrations. Edited by Albert Turner. A handsome volume, 256 pages, bound in cloth and gold. Price, $1.00.

In this volume the Editor has brought together the teachings of those who have made a study of special features of the subject, and the result is a work that is unique and practical, not filled with a medley of receipts and formulas, so often found in books on beauty.

Fully illustrated with pictures that mean something to the reader, not of so-called "beauties," closing with chapters of "Hints in Beauty Culture" and "Hints in Health Culture," which, if followed, would alone be worth many times the price of the volume in securing health and good form, which is possible to all.

What Shall We Eat?

The Food Question, from the Standpoint of Health, Strength and Economy. Containing Numerous Tables, Showing the Constituent Elements of over Three Hundred Food Products and Their Relations, Cost and Nutritious Values, Time of Digestion, etc., Indicating Best Foods for all Classes and Conditions. By Alfred Andrews. 120 pp. Price, leatherette, 50c.; cloth binding, 75c.

To many people there is no question of greater importance than the one asked in the title of this book, and no more satisfactory effort to answer it has been made than is to be found between the covers of this practical volume. It opens with a consideration of the purposes for which we eat, and how food material is converted to our needs, and is used in sustaining life.

A very important feature of the work is found in the numerous tables given, showing the results of some 1500 analyses of food products to determine the constituent elements, comparative food values, time required for digestion, &c.

The New Method.

In Health and Disease. By W. E. Forest, B. S., M. D., Fellow of N. Y. Academy of Medicine. Sixteenth Edition. Revised and enlarged by Albert Turner, Publisher of Health-Culture 350 pp., clo. binding, $1.

It makes the way from weakness to strength so plain that only those who are past recovery (the very few) need to be sick, and the well who will follow its teachings cannot be sick, saving the need of calling a physician and all expenses for medicine.

Massotherapy,

Or the Use of Massage Rollers and Muscle Beaters in Indigestion, Constipation, Liver Trouble, Paralysis, Neuralgia and Other Functional Diseases. By W. E. Forest, M. D. 25c.

Constipation.

Its Cause and Proper Treatment Without the Use of Drugs. By W. E. Forest, M. D. The only rational method of cure. 10c.

Hygienic Cookery,

Or Health in the Household. By Susanna W. Dodds, M. D. 603 pp., $2.

The author of this work is especially qualified for her task, as she is both a physician and a practical housekeeper. It is unquestionably the best work ever written on the healthful preparation of food, and should be in the hands of every housekeeper who wishes to prepare food healthfully and palatably.

The Diet Question,

Giving Reasons Why. By Dr. Dodds. 25c.

All who are interested in the "Reason Why" for rules of diet, and all who would eat for health and strength, should read this valuable treatise.

The Liver and Kidneys,

With a Chapter on Malaria. Part I. The Liver and Its Functions, Diseases and Treatment. Part II. The Kidneys, Their Healthy Action and How to Secure It. Part III. Malarial Fever, Rational Treatment by Hygienic Methods. By Dr. Dodds. 25c.

The Philosophy of Eating.

Why food is needed, and how it sustains life and strength. By Susanna W. Dodds, M. D. 25c. (In press.)

PUBLICATIONS OF THE HEALTH-CULTURE CO.

Manhood Wrecked and Rescued.

How Strength and Vigor is Lost and How it may be Restored by Self-Treatment. A Series of Chapters to Men on Social Purity and Right Living. By Rev. W. J. Hunter, Ph. D., D. D. Cloth, $1.00.

This is a most timely and important work, by one who has made a careful study of the subject, and brings to bear a thorough knowledge of general and sexual hygene. For the want of the knowledge on sexual subjects this book contains, many men are on the downward course, and by the use of it many could be saved from sexual weakness, restored to manly vigor and made capable of properly filling life's duties and become strong, manly men, instead of physical and social wrecks.

The No-Breakfast Plan and Fasting Cure.

With specific instructions for application in the promotion of health. With portraits of famous fasters. By Edward Hooker Dewey, M. D. 12 mo., cloth, $1.00.

This work presents Dr. Dewey's theories in a clear, concise way, giving the origin of the no-breakfast plan and the theories upon which it is based.

WORKS BY

JOHN HAMLIN DEWEY, M.D.

On the Higher Spiritual Life, from the Standpoint of New Psychology.

The New Evangel—The Way, the Truth and the Life (Enlarged).

A Text Book of Healing, Inspiration and Spiritual Attainment. A New Education Based on the Ideal and Method of the Christ. Cloth, $2.00.

The new advanced and illuminating inspiration which has been added in this revision has made The Way, The Truth and The Life practically a new book. It opens the door to a new world of possibility and realization and gives the very message and revealing word which our questioning age urgently needs.

The Pathway of The Spirit.

A Guide to Inspiration and Divine Realization. $1.25; paper, 75c.

This comprehensive work gives an original and luminous exposition of the spiritual nature and higher possibilities of man, in the light of which is presented a new and satisfying interpretation of the Christ gospel of the kingdom of God, and of the conditions under which its mighty promises for this world are to be realized. It harmonizes the latest suggestions of science with the deepest experiences and loftiest inspirations of prophets, seers and saints, and reconciles the most rigid demands of the intellect with the deepest yearnings of the spirit within.

The Open Door, or Secret of Jesus.

A Gem of Spiritual Insight and Illuminating Power. $1.00; paper, 50c.

The glowing pages of this stirring book throw a flood of light on the most vital questions involved in the higher soul relations and activities, and open to the mind the profoundest realities of spiritual being. Its clear definitions and sharp discriminations disentangle the practical from the speculative, and bring to the active worker of our busy age the timely help he needs.

The New Testament Occultism.

The Wonder-Working Power of the Christ and His Apostles Analyzed, Defined and Applied. 360 pages. Cloth, gilt, $1.50.

This original and quickening work is an opening of the seals by a seer. The deific powers slumbering in the human soul, and the process of their awakening are disclosed. In its searching and illuminating analysis the supposed miraculous power of the Master and his Apostles is shown to be the spontaneous and legitimate operation of the law of the higher spiritual life and power possible and of free access to all, as promised by the Master. A sharp contrast is drawn between the fundamental basis of the gospel of Jesus and that of Buddha and other great teachers of the Oriental world, a matter of vital consideration.

The Genesis and Exodus of the Human Spirit.

An Unveiling of the Mysteries of Individual Existence and Destiny. 100 pages. Cloth, 50 cents.

This unique and comprehensive work is an inspired and quickening appeal to the higher reason and intuition of the spiritual mind, and will prove an emancipating revelation to many souls. The secret of Faith-Healing, of Regeneration and of dominion over the limitations of sense relations to the material world is here disclosed, with suggestions of vital importance to all seekers after the illuminated and perfect life.

The Inner Light Series, No. 1.

This series embraces "The Master's Perfect Way," "Regeneration," "Pentecost," and "The Signs Which Follow, or Power From On High." The set in paper, 50 cents.

The Inner Light Series, No. 2.

This series, in pamphlet form, embraces "The Sons of God and Brothers of The Christ," "The New Age Gospel," and "The New Education." The set in paper, 50 cents.

1. Give full and exact titles.

   When ordering from a series, state explicitly which numbers in the series are desired.

2. State definitely whether you wish editions with answers or without, with vocabulary or without.

   We cannot hold ourselves responsible for your neglect to specify when editions with answers or vocabularies are wanted.

3. State which binding is desired — paper, boards, or cloth.

   Books not otherwise described in this list are bound in cloth.

4. When books ordered are for introduction, this fact should be stated, with the name of the school or college into which they are to be introduced.

SHIPPING DIRECTIONS

Shipping directions should be given with great care, and it should be distinctly stated whether books are to be sent by mail, express, or freight. If by express or freight, state by what line.

REMITTANCES

Remittances should be made by post-office orders, express orders, or checks on New York, Boston, or Chicago.

NOTE

That goods sent as ordered are not returnable, except by previous agreement.

That all claims for deduction should be made on receipt of goods.

That books sent by mail, or sent to others for enclosure, are at purchaser's risk.

New Items for 1905.

The continued encouragement we received during last year from a further increase in the sale of all the various editions of the Holman Bibles, and the growing demand for Large-Type Bibles in a small compass, induced us to add the following new items in the plain text to our list for this year:

CLEAR TYPE TEACHERS' BIBLE, printed from black-face type, and containing the latest and very Best Helps. See page 11.

CLEAR TYPE TEACHERS' BIBLE, printed from black-face type on India paper. See page 18.

These Editions are all printed from New Electrotype Plates, made from type especially cast for them. All are made in an attractive and graceful size, are light in weight, easy to read, and convenient to handle.

Our specialties in the lines that have been so phenomenally successful comprise the following: Text Bibles; the Ideal Teachers' Bibles, in three sizes—Minion 16mo, Minion 8vo, and Large, Clear Bourgeois 8vo—all of which contain the latest and most serviceable Helps in the smallest compass; the Pictorial Teachers' Bibles containing the kind of pictures that appeal most strongly to the reader; the Linear Bible, a wonderfully clear combination of the two versions—the Vest-Pocket Testament and the Large-Type Testament. All these Special Editions are Self-Pronouncing. We also publish the Pictorial Scholars' Bible and the Home Bible, notable successes, in the plain text.

The bindings on all the above lines are Absolutely Flexible, and are not equalled in this respect by any others published. For detailed description, specimen of type, illustrations, prices, etc., see pages following. For complete list of our publications, see Index on inside cover page.

The NEW SELF-PRONOUNCING FAMILY BIBLE, described on pages 26 to 33, is the finest Family Bible ever offered to the trade at the prices mentioned. We make the largest line of Family Bibles, have more sets of plates, a greater range of contents, more styles of cover designs, more variety of bindings than any other house in America.

THE HOLMAN LINE OF BIBLES is complete, well known, popular, and fast selling. If you are not handling these Bibles it will pay you to investigate. Prices sent on request.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Wickedness of man. 9 Generations of Noah. 14 Noah instructed to build the ark.

AND it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them,
2 That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose.
3 And the LORD said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years.
4 There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.
5 ¶ And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.
6 And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart.
7 And the LORD said, I will de-

Generations of Terah. GENESIS, 12. God calleth Abram.

17 And Ē′bēr lived after he begat Pē′leg four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.
18 And Pē′leg lived thirty years, and begat Rē′u:
19 And Pē′leg lived after he begat Rē′u two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters.
20 And Rē′u lived two and thirty years, and begat Sē′rug:
21 And Rē′u lived after he begat Sē′rug two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.
22 And Sē′rug lived thirty years, and begat Nā′hôr:
23 And Sē′rug lived after he begat Nā′hôr two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.
24 And Nā′hôr lived nine and twenty years, and begat Tē′rah:
25 And Nā′hôr lived after he begat Tē′rah an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.
26 And Tē′rah lived seventy years, and begat Ă′brăm, Nā′hôr, and Hā′ran.
27 ¶ Now these are the generations of Tē′rah: Tē′rah begat Ă′brăm, Nā′hôr, and Hā′ran; and Hā′ran begat Lŏt.
28 And Hā′ran died before his father Tē′rah in the land of his nativity, in Ûr of the Chăl′deeş.
29 And Ă′brăm and Nā′hôr took them wives: the name of Ă′brăm's wife was Sā′rāi; and the name of Nā′hôr's wife, Mĭl′cah, the daughter of Hā′ran, the father of Mĭl′cah, and the father of Ĭs′cah.
30 But Sā′rāi was barren; she had no child.
31 And Tē′rah took Ă′brăm his son, and Lŏt the son of Hā′ran his son's son, and Sā′rāi his daughter in law, his son Ă′brăm's wife; and they went forth with them from Ûr of the Chăl′deeş, to go into the land of Cā′năan; and they came unto Hā′ran, and dwelt there.
32 And the days of Tē′rah were two hundred and five years: and Tē′rah died in Hā′ran.

CHAPTER 12.

1 God calleth Abram, and blesseth him with a promise of Christ: 4 he departs from Haran. 6 Canaan promised.

NOW the LORD had said unto Ă′brăm, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee:
2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:
3 And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.
4 So Ă′brăm departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lŏt went with him: and Ă′brăm was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Hā′ran.
5 And Ă′brăm took Sā′rāi his wife, and Lŏt his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gotten in Hā′ran; and they went forth to go into the land of Cā′năan; and into the land of Cā′năan they came.
6 ¶ And Ă′brăm passed through the land unto the place of Sĭ′chem, unto the plain of Mō′reh. And the Cā′năan-ite was then in the land.
7 And the LORD appeared unto Ă′brăm, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.
8 And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Bĕth′-el, and pitched his tent, having Bĕth′-el on the west, and Hā′ī on the east: and there he builded an altar unto the LORD, and called upon the name of the LORD.
9 And Ă′brăm journeyed, going on still toward the south.
10 ¶ And there was a famine in the land: and Ă′brăm went down into Ē′ğŷpt to sojourn there; for the famine was grievous in the land.
11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Ē′ğŷpt, that he said unto Sā′rāi his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon:
12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Ē′ğŷp′tjanş shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife: and they will kill me, but they will save thee alive.
13 Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee.

The Ammonite insult. 1 SAMUEL, 12. Samuel reasons wit Israel.

besh said unto Nahash, Make a covenant with us, and we will serve thee.
2 And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, On this condition will I make a covenant with you, that I may thrust out all your right eyes, and lay it for a reproach upon all Israel.
3 And the elders of Jabesh said unto him, Give us seven days' respite, that we may send messengers unto all the coasts of Israel: and then, if there be no man to save us, we will come out to thee.
4 ¶ Then came the messengers to Gibeah of Saul, and told the tidings in the ears of the people: and all the people lifted up their voices, and wept.
5 And, behold, Saul came after the herd out of the field; and Saul said, What aileth the people that they weep? And they told him the tidings of the men of Jabesh.
6 And the Spirit of God came upon Saul when he heard those tidings, and his anger was kindled greatly.
7 And he took a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the coasts of Israel by and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal; and there they sacrificed sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Samuel reasons with Israel. 16 He admonishes them. 20 Comfort in God's mercy.

AND Samuel said unto all Israel, Behold, I have hearkened unto your voice in all that ye said unto me, and have made a king over you.
2 And now, behold, the king walketh before you: and I am old and grayheaded; and, behold, my sons are with you: and I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day.
3 Behold, here I am : witness against me before the LORD, and before his anointed: whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any bribe to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you.

length of it and in the breadth of it; for I will give it unto thee.
18 Then Abram removed his tent, and came and dwelt in the plain of Mamre, which is in Hebron, and built there an altar unto the LORD.

CHAPTER XIV.

The battle of the kings.

AND it came to pass in the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of nations;
2 That these made war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, and Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, which is Zoar.
3 All these were joined together in the vale of Siddim, which is the salt sea.
4 Twelve years they served Chedorlaomer, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled.
5 And in the fourteenth year came Chedorlaomer, and the kings that were with him, and smote the Rephaim in Ashteroth Karnaim, and the Zuzim in Ham, and the Emim in Shaveh Kiriathaim,
6 And the Horites in their mount Seir, unto El-paran, which is by the wilderness.
7 And they returned, and came to En-mishpat, which is Kadesh, and smote all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites, that dwelt in Hazezon-tamar.
8 And there went out the king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, (the same is Zoar;) and they joined battle with them in the vale of Siddim;
18 And Melchizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine: and he was the priest of the most high God.
19 And he blessed him, and said, Blessed be Abram of the most high God, possessor of heaven and earth:
20 And blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him tithes of all.
21 And the king of Sodom said unto Abram, Give me the persons, and take the goods to thyself.
22 And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have lifted up mine hand unto the LORD, the most high God, the possessor of heaven and earth,
23 That I will not take from a thread even to a shoelatchet, and that I will not take any thing that is thine, lest thou shouldest say, I have made Abram rich:
24 Save only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men which went with me, Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their portion.

CHAPTER XV.

God's promise to Abram.

AFTER these things the word of the LORD came unto Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abram: I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward.
2 And Abram said, Lord GOD, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go childless, and the steward of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus?
3 And Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: and, lo, one born in my house is mine heir.
4 And, behold, the word of the LORD came

CONTAINED IN THE

PICTORIAL TEACHERS' BIBLES.

THE Photographs from which these Views were made were taken but recently, and they therefore give correct representations of the present appearances of places made memorable by the sacred and historic associations of Bible times.

Each View is followed by a clear yet concise description of the scene which it portrays. The series begins with Photo-Views of places that we read of in the book of Genesis, and proceeds to show in an orderly arrangement panoramas of various cities and localities in Bible lands as they come into prominence from time to time throughout the entire period covered by the Old and New Testament narrative. EVERY PICTURE IS PRINTED ON COATED PAPER.

MARKET-PLACE IN BETHLEHEM.—Though anciently a small town, Bethlehem was none the less conspicuous in Hebrew history (Gen. xxxv. 19; Ruth i. 19; 1 Sam. xvii. 12). As the birthplace of Christ, and scene of the events connected therewith, it holds a place in Christian affection second only to that of the Holy City. It now has a population of about 5,000, composed mostly of Greek Christians, whose chief industry is the making of sacred souvenirs, which are sold to visitors. In its streets, architecture, and customs, one reads of a hoary past. In the fields around and in its busy market-place may still be heard the greeting and response of the days of Ruth (Ruth ii. 4).

THE HOLMAN
Comparative Self-Pronouncing Teachers' Bible

CONTAINING, IN COMBINED TEXT,

The Authorized and Revised Versions of the Old and New Testaments

THE LINEAR PARALLEL METHOD

presents in a single line and in large, clear type the texts of the Authorized and Revised Versions of the Holy Bible, where said texts are alike. Where they are unlike, either in language, spelling, italicization, capitalization, parentheses, punctuation, or otherwise, the difference is at once set forth by means of double lines of smaller type, making a readily and easily readable combined text.

AN INSTANTANEOUS COMPARISON

There is nothing mysterious or involved about the Linear Bible—all is plain sailing. There are no parallel columns or embarrassing foot-notes to mystify one's understanding. To read the Authorized Version, one has but to read the large type line along to any point of difference in the respective versions, and then follow the UPPER small type line through such difference. Likewise, to read the Revised Version, one has but to read the large type line along to any difference in the respective versions, and then follow the LOWER small type line through such difference. This rule holds as to every difference, even to that of a comma. Thus, not only the readings but the comparisons of the two versions become easy, immediate, satisfactory and perfect.

CONCORDANCE AND MAPS

In addition to the Old and New Testaments this edition contains our New Analytical and Comparative Concordance with 100,000 References—the most complete Concordance in any Teachers' Bible. heard that, said, This man calleth for E-lī'as.
48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.
49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether E-lī'as will come to save him.
50 ¶ Jē'sus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.
51 And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;
52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose,
53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared
58 He went to Pī'late, and begged the body of Jē'sus. Then Pī'late commanded the body to be delivered.
59 And when Jō'seph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,
60 And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.
61 And there was Mā'rȳ Mag-da-lē'nē, and the other Mā'rȳ, sitting over against the sepulchre.
62 ¶ Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Phar'i-sees came together unto Pī'late,
63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I

Christ at the JOHN VII. feast of tabernacles.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Jesus reproveth the ambition and boldness of his kinsmen; 10 goeth up from Galilee to the feast of tabernacles; 14 teacheth in the temple. 40 Divers opinions of him among the people. 45 The Pharisees are angry that their officers took him not, and chide with Nicodemus for taking his part.

AFTER these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.[a]

3 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, show thyself to the world.

5 For neither did his brethren believe in him.[b]

6 Then Jesus said unto them, My time is not yet come:[c] but your time is always ready.

7 The world cannot hate you;[d] but me it hateth, because A. D. 32. I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 ¶ But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast,[e] and said, Where is he?

12 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him:[f] for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit, no man spake openly of him, for fear of the Jews.

14 ¶ Now, about the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters,* having never learned?[g]

16 Jesus answered them, and word." Psalm 119:18, 25; 1 Cor. 2:14.

CHAPTER VII.

1. Jewry; Judea.

2. Feast of tabernacles; the Jews had three great annual feasts: the feast of the Passover, the feast of the Pentecost, and the feast of Tabernacles. Deut. 16:1–15. This last was held from the fifteenth to the twenty-second day of their month Tizri, which included a part of September and October. This was a season of special thanksgiving for the ingathering of the harvest.

3. His brethren; or relatives. Depart hence; from this obscure and secluded region. Into Judea; where was the metropolis of the nation, and where men that sought to be known were accustomed to resort. That thy disciples also may see; thy disciples there.

4. That doeth any thing in secret; works in a secluded place, removed from the observation of men. And he himself seeketh; that is, while he himself seeketh. To be known openly; they upbraid him with acting inconsistently. He seeks to be known openly as the Son of God, and yet he keeps himself removed from public view. These things; the miracles which he wrought, in proof of his being the Messiah.

6. My time; his time to go up to the feast, and manifest himself as the Messiah. Your time is always ready; you are in no danger of persecution, and can safely go at any time you may choose.

7. The world cannot; they have no occasion to do it.

10. In secret; privately, or in a retired manner.

12. Murmuring; private inquiry and contention about Jesus.

15. Letters; learning. Whence his learning? He has never been instructed by doctors of the law.

16. Not mine; I come from God, and I teach what he has committed to me to be taught.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Conquests in Judah. 8 Jerusalem taken. 21 The acts of Benjamin. 29 Nations remaining unconquered.

B. C. 1425.

NOW after the death of Jŏsh'u-a it came to pass, that the children of Īs'ra-el [a] asked the LORD, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Cā'năan-ītes first, to fight against them?

2 And the LORD said, [b] Jū'dah shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into his hand.

3 And Jū'dah said unto Sĭm'e-on his brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Cā'năan-ītes; and I likewise will go with thee into thy lot. [c] So Sĭm'e-on went with him.

4 And Jū'dah went up; and [d] the LORD delivered the Cā'năan-ītes and the Pĕr'ĭz-zītes into their hand: and they slew of them in Bē'zek ten thousand men.

5 And they found Ă-dŏn'ĭ-bē'zek in Bē'zek: and they fought against him, and they slew the Cā'năan-ītes and the Pĕr'ĭz-zītes.

6 But Ă-dŏn'ĭ-bē'zek fled; and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes.

7 And Ă-dŏn'ĭ-bē'zek said, Threescore and ten kings, having [1] their thumbs and their great toes

17 And Jū'dah went with Sĭm'e-on his brother, and they slew the Cā'năan-ītes that inhabited Zē'phath, and utterly destroyed it. And the name of the city was called [q] Hôr'mah.

18 Also Jū'dah took [r] Gā'zā with the coast thereof, and Ăs'ke-lŏn with the coast thereof, and Ēk'rŏn with the coast thereof.

19 And [s] the LORD was with Jū'dah; and [5] he drave out the inhabitants of the mountain; but could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had [t] chariots of iron.

20 [u] And they gave Hē'bron unto Cā'leb, as Mō'ses said: and he expelled thence the three sons of Ā'năk.

21 [v] And the children of Bĕn'ja-min did not drive out the Jĕb'u-sītes that inhabited Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm; but the Jĕb'u-sītes dwell with the children of Bĕn'ja-min in Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm unto this day.

22 ¶ And the house of Jō'seph, they also went up against Bĕth'-el: and the LORD was with them.

23 And the house of Jō'seph [w] sent to descry Bĕth'-el. (Now the name of the city before was

10 And Jū'dah went against the Cā'năan-ītes that dwelt in Hē'bron: (now the name of Hē'bron before was [h]Kĭr'jath-ăr'bȧ:) and they slew Shē'shāi, and Ă-hī'măn, and Tăl'māi.

11 [i]And from thence he went against the inhabitants of Dē'bĭr: and the name of Dē'bĭr before was Kĭr'jath-sē'phĕr:

12 And Cā'leb said, He that smiteth Kĭr'jath-sē'phĕr, and taketh it, to him will I give Ăch'sah my daughter to wife.

13 And Ōth'nĭ-el the son of Kē'năz, [j]Cā'leb's younger brother, took it: and he gave him Ăch'sah his daughter to wife.

14 [k]And it came to pass, when she came to him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field; and she lighted from off her ass; and Cā'leb said unto her, What wilt thou?

15 And she said unto him, [l]Give me a [4]blessing: for thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And Cā'leb gave her the upper springs and the nether springs.

16 ¶ And [m]the children of the Kĕn'īte, Mō'ṣeṣ' father in law, went up out [n]of the city of palm trees with the children of Jū'dah into the wilder-

Ā′brā-hăm and Ā′brăm (father of a multitude). Son of Terah, a dweller in Ur of the Chaldees, Gen. xi. 25-31. Founder of the Jewish nation. Migrated from Chaldea to Haran. Moved thence to Canaan, to Egypt and back to Canaan, where he settled amid the oak-groves of Mamre. There confirmed in the thrice repeated promise that his seed should become a mighty nation, and his name changed from Abram to Abraham. Died, aged 175 years, and was buried in the tomb of Machpelah, Gen. xii.-xxvi.

Ăb′sa-lŏm (father of peace). (1) A son of David, 2 Sam. iii. 3. Killed his brother Amnon, 2 Sam. xiii. Fled to Geshur, 2 Sam. xiii. 37, 38. Returned and conspired to usurp his father's throne, 2 Sam. xiv.-xvii. Defeated at Gilead and slain by Joab, 2 Sam. xviii. (2) Father of Mattathias, 1 Macc. xi. 70.

Professor Dr. P. JENSEN, University of Marburg, Germany, concludes with an essay on "THE HITTITES."

Assyria and Babylonia, Egypt, Arabia, and Asia Minor, have yielded up many secrets that have been hidden for ages. Many disputed Old Testament statements are now substantiated and made plain.

—A Beautiful and Unique—

Life of Christ for Little Children.

ILLUSTRATIONS FROM THE MASTERS AND ILLUMINATED AFTER PARCHMENTS OF THE 15TH CENTURY.

BY

MARY MEIN CARTER.

The story is told in a series of easily memorized verses of which there is one for each letter of the Alphabet. The center of a left hand page is devoted to each letter and a verse, and the upper and lower parts of these pages are embellished with highly artistic and beautiful colored designs which the author has transcribed from Prayer Books of the 15th Century.

The series of peerless half-tone pictures which occupy right hand pages—one opposite each letter and verse—constitute a Pictorial Life of Christ from the Annunciation to the Ascension. These illustrations and the verses by their united influence will serve to keep in the mind the great events in the Life of Christ.

The pictures have been selected from the best works of the Old and Modern Masters and are of world wide fame.

In the concluding pages there are brief biographies of some of the great leaders in Sacred Art which will be of interest to many who do not have ready access to Biographical Dictionaries or Cyclopedias.

—A New and Revised Edition of—Peloubet's Suggestive Illustrations.

On the Gospel According to John.
One Volume, Cloth, 12mo., 548 Pages, $1.25

On the Acts of the Apostles.
One Volume, 12mo., 483 Pages, $1.25

These volumes are called "Suggestive Illustrations," because their object is quite as much to suggest other Illustrations" as to furnish material ready for use.

The Text which is printed at the top of the various pages indicates at a glance the subjects to be elucidated. Every chapter and well-nigh every verse is illuminated with fresh, sparkling "illustrations." Now it is a bit of scientific lore, now a scrap of healthful verse, now a reference to some book or story or poem, now an anecdote, now a little parable—varied in the extreme, but always such as to kindle new ideas and fill the Scriptures with new meaning to the student.

"These books contain the gathered riches of Dr. F. N. Peloubet's quarter century and more of Bible Exposition."—The Advance, Chicago.

Invaluable to Pastors, Leaders of Prayer Meetings, Christian Endeavor and other church societies, Sunday School teachers and parents in conducting Family Devotions.

AUTHOR OF "SELECT NOTES ON THE INTERNATIONAL LESSONS," ETC.

Containing Illustrations from All Sources; Picturesque Greek Words; Library References to Further Illustrations; References to Great Scriptural Paintings, Etc.

FAMILY BIBLE

IN THE AUTHORIZED OR KING JAMES VERSION

Printed from New Electrotype Plates cast from special new type.

Readers of the Word of God have hitherto always found it difficult to pronounce the many troublesome foreign names occurring in the text. This difficulty has now been overcome by means of a system which divides the words into syllables, and which also shows the accented syllables and indicates the proper sounds of the variable vowels and consonants.

A GERMAN TEACHERS' BIBLE

ON A NEW AND IMPROVED PLAN
The only German Bible of the kind ever published

"Scripture Explained by Means of Scripture Through the Medium of Confirmatory Texts"

It differs from other German Bibles in that it gives, in the most important instances, either the full or the slightly abbreviated explanatory or elucidating texts in the narrow side columns on the outer edges of the page as well as numerous references of the kind usually employed in Reference Bibles. In addition to the foregoing invaluable features this Bible also contains:—

A Concordance; A History of the Books of the Bible; The Great Heathen Nations mentioned in the Bible; A History of the New Archæological Discoveries in Bible Lands; A History of the Jewish People; Weights, Measures and Coins of the Bible; Geography and Topography of Palestine; A List of Scriptural Names and their Meanings; Eight (8) splendid Maps in colors, in German Text (just published)

RED LETTER BIBLE

WHAT IS A RED LETTER BIBLE?

The Red Letter Edition is in the Authorized Version, and is Self-Pronouncing. Two Colors (Red and Black) are employed in accordance with the following simple plan:

1. In the New Testament, the words universally accepted as those of our Lord and Saviour are printed in Red.
2. In the Old Testament, the passages printed in Red are those quoted by our Lord, or directly related to incidents to which He referred.
3. Red Lettering in the Reference Columns of the Old Testament directs the reader to some particular utterance of Christ, in which the corresponding quotation or allusion may be found.
4. A Red (★) immediately following a verse in the Old Testament indicates, that, in the concurrent opinion of scholars and theologians the verse embodies a prophetic reference to Christ.

said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs.
27 And she said, Truth, Lord:
yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.
28 Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great ing, lest they faint in the way.

them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.
35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

For Ready reference there is no other edition so serviceable as the Red Letter Testament, owing to the emphasis it gives to Christ's own words, and the facility with which favorite passages may be found.
